Sherlock Holmes Through Time and Space Isaac Asimov, Martin Harry Greenberg, Charles G. Waugh, 1984 Sherlock Holmes Through Time and Space K.J.G., 1985 The Alternative Sherlock Holmes Peter Ridgway Watt, Joseph Green, 2017-03-02 Between 1887 and 1927 Sir Arthur Conan Doyle wrote sixty Sherlock Holmes stories and his great Canon has become the most

praised most studied and best known chapter in the history of detective fiction Over twenty thousand publications pertaining to the Sherlock Holmes phenomenon are known to have been published most of them historical and critical studies In addition however almost since the first stories appeared such was their uniqueness and extraordinary attraction that other authors began writing stories based on or derived from them A new genre had appeared pastiches parodies burlesques and stories that attempted to copy or rival the great detective himself As the field widened there was hardly a year in the twentieth century in which new short stories or novels did not appear Many hundreds are now known to have been published some of them written by authors well known for their work in other literary fields The non canonical Sherlock Holmes literature not only constitutes a literary field of considerable historical interest but includes many stories that are both enjoyable and fascinating in their own right Although a large bibliography on these stories exists and a few limited anthologies have been published no attempt has previously been made to collect them all and discuss them comprehensively The Alternative Sherlock Holmes does so it provides a new and valuable approach to the Sherlock Holmes literature as well as making available many works that have for years remained forgotten Presented as an entertaining narrative of interest to both the aficionado and the scholar it provides full bibliographic data on virtually all the known stories in the field Tales of Light Tracy Revels, 2024-07-23 Fourteen stories all in classic style introduce Holmes to new clients with strange and quirky problems Clues to a fortune are hidden in a ludicrous painting a modern mummy walks and a novel tourist attraction holds the key to why an unattractive lady is suddenly pursued by an amorous admirer Sherlock Holmes and his faithful companion Dr Watson embark on some of their more light hearted cases investigating the disappearance of a world famous circus star retrieving precious gems rescuing kidnapped infants and making sure that Father Christmas pays a proper visit to an impoverished child The Universal Holmes Richard A. Lupoff, 2007 Science, Time and Space in the Late Nineteenth-Century Periodical Press James Mussell, 2017-05-15 James Mussell reads nineteenth century scientific debates in light of recent theoretical discussions of scientific writing to propose a new methodology for understanding the periodical press in terms of its movements in time and space That there is no disjunction between text and object is already recognized in science studies Mussell argues however this principle should also be extended to our understanding of print culture within its cultural context He provides historical accounts of scientific controversy documents references to time and space in the periodical press and follows magazines and journals as they circulate through society to shed new light on the dissemination and distribution of periodicals authorship and textual authority and the role of mediation in material culture Well known writers like H G Wells and Arthur Conan Doyle are discovered in new contexts while other authors publishers editors and scientists are discussed for the first time Mussell is persuasive in showing how his methodology increases our understanding of the process of transformation and translation that underpins the production of print and informs current debates about the status of digital publication and the preservation of archival material in electronic forms Adding to the book s usefulness are an extended bibliography and a discussion of recent debates regarding digital publication

Tales of Shadow Tracy Revels, 2024-07-30 In thirteen classic pastiche stories Sherlock Holmes and Doctor Watson confront confounding and puzzling problems Why do white roses fall from the sky heralding death to follow Who is the veiled man hiding in a manor and why does he refuse to show his face What diabolical creature lurks inside a child s painted travelling trunk and has an ancient priestess s curse descended upon an archeologist s family Twists and turns abound as Holmes investigates some of the most mysterious cases in his career

Tales of Darkness Tracy Revels, 2024-07-30 Sherlock Holmes is no stranger to humanity s most fiendish crimes In fourteen classic stories Holmes and Dr Watson confront exceptionally challenging and notoriously vicious cases Can guilt be used as a murder weapon When does beauty become a deadly lure Are even the most seemingly innocent members of society capable of killing in cold blood Cloaked in terror and tragedy dangerous and often bloody these are adventures which plunge Holmes and Watson into the realm of nightmares
