Right the First Time Barry McCarthy, Emily J. McCarthy, 2005-10-05 A healthy marriage is the result of much more than a stroke of good fortune the accidental meeting of two soul mates or a conscious commitment to stay together no matter what Studies have found that romantic passionate love is often just a memory by the wedding or within the first year of marriage Creating an intimate satisfying and stable marriage is by no means easy or guaranteed it requires thought communication planning and true commitment to each other though luck and compatibility never hurt The window of opportunity in which to build the foundation for such a relationship is narrow and does not often last too long after the first two years of a marriage Getting it Right the First Time provides the information every couple needs to know to understand what really makes a marriage work Husband and wife team Barry and Emily McCarthy share clear helpful guidelines for creating a healthy marriage and reveal the strategies skills and attitudes that can help prevent disappointment resentment and alienation from entering the relationship Ask any happily married couple whether the time and effort spent in creating a healthy marriage has been worth it and you should get a universal answer Getting it Right the First Time can make getting there a little easier

Reference & User Services Quarterly, 2007 Encore Adulthood Phyllis Moen, 2016-04-06 In Encore Adulthood Phyllis Moen presents the realities of the encore life stage the years between traditional careers and childraising and old age Drawing on large scale data sets and interviews with Boomers HR personnel and policymakers this book illuminates the challenges that Boomers encounter as they transition from traditional careers into retirement What Next? Jane Moffett, 2025-09-08 I highly recommend this book for anyone who is seeking to embrace the power and potential of the new life stage of redefinition Berit Lewis Author of Ageing Upwards So you're leaving work what's next for you As part of the first generation of women who were told they could have it all you've striven to succeed both in and out of work to achieve status and feel valued to have had a rewarding and fulfilling life and career But once you leave work what next How will you fill your time in a way that has purpose and meaning and how will you keep the sense of being relevant and valued Jane Moffett will help you understand yourself better and expand your thinking to open up new opportunities and new ways of finding purpose in life By determining what it is you need and want and focusing on where you can get it you can design your own unique map for the future and embrace this life stage As an executive coach trainer and facilitator Jane Moffett has 30 years of experience working with women at key points of change in their lives where the professional and the personal intersect. She writes and publishes regularly in this area and is a member of staff at the Henley Business School's Coaching Centre and regularly attends meetings of the Women and Work All Party Parliamentary Group APPG. Worklife, 1981. The Most Important Yes Kristina Jowers Burroughs, 2024-04-11. As a woman, a co-heir with Christ, God has a unique purpose and plan for your life. He made no mistakes by forming you as a woman. God has called you, anointed you, and will empower you to be a light for him in what can seem like a dark world. You are a solution carrier, and God chose to display hope through you. In The Most Important Yes, author Kristina Jowers Burroughs provides encouragement for the young woman navigating the journey of womanhood from a Christ-centered worldview. Her message serves as a catalyst for women to reflect on their own journey and history with God in their lives. Through Burroughs' personal story and the power of a simple yes, she debunks some lies you may have heard and reveals powerful truths about walking in your true identity as a daughter of Christ. She wants God to speak clearly and powerfully to you about your own journey and show you he has been and is with you every step of the way.
