Short History Of Progress The 2004 Cbc Massey Lectures:

An Illustrated Short History of Progress Ronald Wright, 2006 In these acclaimed CBC Massey Lectures Ronald Wright argues that each time history repeats itself the price goes up The twentieth century was a time of runaway growth in human population consumption and technology placing a colossal load on all natural systems He demonstrates how our modern predicament is as old as civilization a 10 000 year experiment we have participated in but seldom controlled Only by understanding the patterns of human triumph and disaster can we recognize the experiment s inherent dangers and shape its outcome Wright s provocative text evokes striking images across time and space starting with Paul Gauguin s painting D O Venons Nous Que Sommes Nous O Allons Nous Where do we come from What are we Where are we going three questions that perfectly summarize the focus of his lectures In this new edition illuminating illustrations and sidebars complement Wright s arguments and allow readers to witness further evidence supporting his cautionary tale pub desc
