Arab Social Life in the Middle Ages Shirley Guthrie, 2013-08-01 This vivid portrait of everyday life in the medieval Arab world draws on thirteenth century miniatures from collections as far afield as St Petersburg and Istanbul The wide range of topics covers every aspect of society in the Abbasid period from life at court to the pomp and ceremony of the military from the dispensing of justice to the bustle of the suq and slave market The routine of village life is contrasted with the pleasures of urban society and we are also introduced to the world of musicians and professional mourners Women are shown not only as virtuous wives and in childbirth but as spirited and articulate individuals The traditions of Arab hospitality are described with scenes of drinking feasting and etiquette The author has illustrated her study with contemporary miniatures principally those of al Wasiti which accompany the celebrated Maqamat of al Hariri In his text al Hariri made no attempt to conceal his admiration for his unprincipled and thoroughly disreputable protagonist Abu Zayd who represents the voice of the common man and possibly provides a prototype for the popular picaresque heroes of later European literature Al Hariri frequently used the tales as a subtle and indirect way of satirizing the prevailing social order yet he was insistent that his work had an underlying moral purpose Guthrie's work is scholarly and her book is a mine of information on both basic and recondite features of Islamic society Robert Irwin Times Literary Supplement Very lively and informative on a wide range of topics in medieval Islamic history The book is eminently accessible to students and non specialists and is certainly one that merits close attention Medical History An essential read for Arabs and non Arabs alike al Hayat Introduction to Islam and the Islamic World Various, 2014-02-13 Combining key titles from both Oxford's Very Short Introductions and Oxford World's Classics series this collection includes an assortment of books that will enlighten your understanding of Islam Containing A Very Short Introduction to The Koran Islamic History and Islam plus one of the bestselling versions of the Qur'an these books provide insight into the religious historical and political ideas surrounding the world of Islam Oxford's Very Short Introductions series offers concise and original introductions to a wide range of subjects from Islam to Sociology Politics to Classics Literary Theory to History and Archaeology to the Bible Not simply a textbook of definitions each volume in this series provides trenchant and provocative yet always balanced and complete discussions of the central issues in a given discipline or field

Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies One Century of Vain Missionary Work among Muslims in China Raphael Israeli,2018-10-23 Christian missionaries in China have been toiling since the 16th century with little success Only after the Opium War were the Western powers which invaded China able to enforce their gunboat policy under which their missionaries could penetrate all parts of China and extend their activities to a larger part of the population which needed welfare assistance and western protection and therefore resorted to evangelization as a way to obtain both However relative to the huge Chinese population and to the optimistic expectations of the missionaries little was achieved on the ground Therefore at some point since the beginning of the 20th century a decision was made by the missionaries to shift their emphasis to the Muslim population of China realizing that unlike the Godless Chinese who had no knowledge nor approach to the Bible the Muslims would be more amenable due to their Holy Book which knew One God and drew from the Judeo Christian tradition many of their narratives The attempt was valiant and lasted for almost a century with many efforts made to extend educational and medical aid to the Muslim population but it also ended in frustration on the whole due to the unexpected tenacity and resistance of the Hui and Uighur Muslims to the missionaries endeavour The Book in the Islamic World George N. Atiyeh,1995-07-01 The Book in the Islamic World brings together serious studies on the book as an intellectual entity and as a vehicle of cultural development Written by a group of distinguished scholars it examines and reflects upon this unique tool of communication not as a physical artifact but as a manifestation of the aspirations values and wisdom of Arabs and Muslims in general The Islamic system of book production differed from that of the West This volume shows the peculiarities of book making and the intellectual principles that governed a book s inner structure mysteries and impact on culture Investigated and explained are the issues involved in printing the compilation of the Koran the most important book in Islam attitudes toward books the oral versus the written tradition metaphors of the book in literature biographical dictionaries an important genre of Islamic books the grammatical tradition women s contribution to calligraphy scientific manuscripts the transition from scribal to print culture publishing in the modern Arab World and the new electronic media a non book vehicle of communication and its impact on education Historical Atlas of the Islamic World David Nicolle,2004 This book provides a comprehensive description of Islam s long and dynamic history History of Islamic Philosophy Seyyed Hossein Nasr,Oliver Leaman,2013-03-07 Islamic philosophy has often been treated as being largely of historical interest belonging to the history of ideas rather than to philosophical study This volume successfully overturns that view Emphasizing the living nature and rich diversity of the subject it examines the main thinkers and schools of thought discusses the key concepts of Islamic philosophy and covers a vast geographical area This indispensable reference tool includes a comprehensive bibliography and an extensive index Eurabia-cloth Bat Ye'or,2005 This book is about the transformation of Europe into Eurabia a cultural and political appendage of the Arab Muslim world Eurabia is fundamentally anti Christian anti Western anti American and antisemitic The institution responsible for this transformation and that continues to propagate its ideological message is the Euro Arab Dialogue developed by European and Arab politicians and intellectuals over the past thirty years From publisher description The New Cultural Atlas of the Islamic World Marshall Cavendish Corporation,2010 Examine the ancient Islamic world through expertly designed maps and site drawings bringing history to life Bibliography of Periodical Literature on the Near and Middle East ,1974 History of Islamic Philosophy Oliver Leaman,Seyyed Hossein Nasr,2020-08-17 Islamic philosophy has often been treated as being largely of historical interest belonging to the history of ideas rather than to philosophical study This volume successfully overturns that view Emphasizing the living nature and rich diversity of the subject it examines the main thinkers and schools of thought discusses the key concepts of Islamic philosophy and covers a vast geographical area This indispensable reference tool includes a comprehensive bibliography and an extensive index The Rise of the Crescent Mohammed Younis,2006-09-22 This book is being presented by a synthesis amidst multi discipline of educational subjects Religion History Geography Politics philosophy Poetry Psychology Mysticism and others bound together with the Sociological discipline and culture More over it is presented in modern yet a simplified sub titled manner So that the reader can open the book at any stage and within reading a page could at least grasp the content of that particular section The Islamic World Since the Peace Settlement Arnold Toynbee,1927
