Major Major Terry Major-Ball,1994      Our Times A. N. Wilson,2011-01-04 When Queen Elizabeth II was crowned in 1953 many proclaimed the start of a new Elizabethan Age Few had any inkling however of the stupendous changes that would occur over the next fifty years both in Britain and around the world In Our Times A N Wilson takes the reader on an exhilarating journey through postwar Britain With his acute eye not just for the broad social and cultural sweep but also for the telling detail he brilliantly distills half a century of unprecedented social and political change Here are the defining events and characters of the modern age from the Suez crisis to Vietnam from the Beatles to Princess Diana Here are the Angry Young Men the rise of pop culture and celebrity industrial unrest and the Winter of Discontent the Thatcher era and the eventual collapse of the Soviet Union This book propels the reader from postwar austerity to the end of the British Empire and the emergence of America as a superpower to the multicultural Britain of today With Our Times Wilson triumphantly concludes the acclaimed trilogy that opened with The Victorians and was followed by After the Victorians Our Times makes compelling reading for anyone interested in the forces that have shaped our world      Europe Reborn Harold James,2014-07-10 In the early twentieth century brutal nation states such as Mussolini s Italy Stalin s Russia and Hitler s Germany came to the fore and the twin evils of dictatorship and war ensured the rapid destruction of liberal democracy market economics and the international order In contrast the latter half was concerned with re thinking and re shaping these core values which still guide political life after the millennium Harold James analyses the failures and achievements of the twentieth century The demands of the post war period namely the place of Europe in a wider international order are also examined Features include Boxed Case Studies Maps Plates Figures Short Biographies Chronologies Statistical Appendix James lucidly argues that European societies today are dominated by the trend to converge around the principles of democracy market economics and international integration He shows that the stability brought by the gradual unwinding of the nation state and the end of left right politics have created a Europe reborn      Don't You Know There's A War On? Nigel Rees,2014-12-08 Nigel Rees presents a nostalgic and witty guide to wartime catchphrases from the now ubiquitous Keep Calm and Carry On to lesser known gems such as lions led by donkeys Following his hugely popular survey of domestic sayings More Tea Vicar Rees returns with a witty and fascinating examination of the catchphrases that saw us through wartime Britain and are still relevant in times of crisis today Including domestic phrases of the time propaganda and slang developed by soldiers abroad the book describes the provenance and development of these intriguing quirky and sometimes crude phrases that were born out of times of conflict and have in many cases become part of our language      A Century of Premiers D. Leonard,2015-12-22 During the course of the Twentieth Century nineteen men and one woman from Robert Cecil Third Marquis of Salisbury to Tony Blair have occupied the post of Prime Minister of the United Kingdom      British Character and the Treatment of German Prisoners of War, 1939-48 Alan Malpass,2020-08-19 This book examines attitudes towards German held captive in Britain drawing on original archival material including newspaper and newsreel content diaries sociological surveys and opinion polls as well as official documentation and the archives of pressure groups and protest movements Moving beyond conventional assessments of POW treatment which have focused on the development of policy diplomatic relations and the experience of the POWs themselves this study refocuses the debate onto the attitude of the British public towards the standard of treatment of German POWs In so doing it reveals that the issue of POW treatment intersected with discussions of state power human rights gender relations civility and national character

Excavating Memory Ülker Gökberk,2020-09-29 This study moves the acclaimed Turkish fiction writer Bilge Karasu 1930 1995 into a new critical arena by examining his poetics of memory as laid out in his narratives on Istanbul s Beyo lu once a cosmopolitan neighborhood called Pera Karasu established his fame in literary criticism as an experimental modernist but while themes such as sexuality gender and oppression have received critical attention an essential tenet of Karasu s oeuvre the evocation of ethno cultural identity has remained unexplored Excavating Memory brings to light this dimension Through his non referential and ambiguous renderings of memory Karasu gives in his Beyolu narratives unique expression to ethno cultural difference in Turkish literature and lets through his own repressed minority identity By using Walter Benjamin's autobiographical work as a heuristic premise for illuminating Karasu G kberk establishes an innovative intercultural framework which brings into dialogue two representative writers of the twentieth century over temporal and spatial distances

Holocaust Memories Claudia Moscovici, 2019-05-16 Nearly eighty years have passed since the Holocaust There have been hundreds of memoirs histories and novels written about it yet many fear that this important event may fall into oblivion As Holocaust survivors pass away their legacy of suffering tenacity and courage could be forgotten It is up to each generation to commemorate the victims preserve their life stories and hopefully help prevent such catastrophes These were my main motivations in writing this book Holocaust Memories which includes reviews of memoirs histories biographies novels and films about the Holocaust It was difficult to choose among the multitude of books on the subject that deserve our attention I made my selections based partly on the works that are considered to be the most important on the subject partly on wishing to offer some historical background about the Holocaust in different countries and regions that were occupied by or allied themselves with Nazi Germany and partly on my personal preferences interests and knowledge The Nazis targeted European Jews as their main victims so my book focuses primarily on them At the same time since the Nazis also targeted other groups they considered dangerous and inferior I also review books about the sufferings of the Gypsies the Poles and other groups that fell victim to the Nazi regimes In the last part I review books that discuss other genocides and crimes against humanity including the Stalinist mass purges the Cambodian massacres by the Pol Pot regime and the Rwandan genocide I want to emphasize that history can indeed repeat itself even if in different forms and contexts Just as the Jews of Europe were not the only targets of genocide Fascist regimes were not its only perpetrators
