The Sound of the Sundial Hana Andronikova, 2015-05-02

The Sound of the Sundial is the internationally acclaimed novel by Czech sensation Hana Andronikova told over the course of a single day and night but spanning three continents and much of the twentieth century. In this intimate and affecting love story about a Jewish teacher and a German-Czech builder, Andronikova sends her readers on a captivating journey through time and memory from the Czech town of Zlín in the 1920s to Calcutta in the 1930s, Theresienstadt and Auschwitz during World War II, Toronto in the decades afterward and finally into modern-day Colorado. It is at once a deeply personal narrative and an homage to the lost relationship of the Czech, German, and Jewish peoples. In 2002, The Sound of the Sundial received the Czech Republic's prestigious Magnesia Litera Award in the category of Best New Discovery just a few years before its young author died. It is making its world premiere appearance in English here.
