Making A Marriage A Personal Of Love Marriage And Family:

Conjugal Spirituality Mary Anne McPherson Oliver,1994 Mary Anne Oliver develops an alternate to celibate religious practices drawing from the experience of couples and diverse sources in the Christian tradition This work explores the dynamics of conjugal love Love, Marriage and Intimacy among Gujarati Indians Katherine Twamley,2014-02-11 This book compares understandings and experiences of love and intimacy of one distinct cultural group Gujarati Indians born and brought up in two different countries In a rapidly globalizing world this comparative ethnographic study explores how the context in which we are brought up shapes our most intimate attachments and family lives God, Love, Sex, and Family Michael Gold,1998 To learn more about Rowman Littlefield titles please visit us at www rowmanlittlefield com Making a Marriage Kevin Ryan,Marilyn Ryan,1982-01-01 Speaking candidly in two individual voices a married couple of seventeen years shares their experiences and discusses their views on love sex money children daily routines conflict families friends and religion Understanding Marriage, Family, and Intimate Relationships Jerry D. Lehman,2005 This introductory textbook is for students who are interested in learning about and establishing healthy marriage family and intimate relationships With divorce rates high and relationships fragile books and courses are needed that help students address important issues regarding relationships The readers of this text examine many important and relevant issues through the lens of theory and research and do so using a written format that is readable understandable and easy to apply to one s life It was written so that each chapter has information that readers will find helpful as they attempt to establish and maintain meaningful healthy relationships There are questions throughout each chapter that help readers focus not only on the material but also on how the material relates to their present and past relationship and family situations The text provides material on the research of John Gottman the object relations theory of Harville Hendrix the solution focused approach of Michele Weiner Davis and the PREP approach to conflict management of Markman Stanley and Blumberg These and other topics discussed are very relevant to students concerns and are addressed in greater depth than found in most other texts The emphasis is not just on couple relationships but also on family relationships Therefore in this book there is extensive coverage of family systems theory and the influence of family rules and family structure on the development of families There is also material on how change produces transitions in family life that must be assimilated into the family structure for example when a couple has their first child Thus both couple and family issues are addressed throughout the book For instructors who want to focus their courses on marriage family and intimate relationships this book would be an ideal choice A study guide for students and instructional material for instructors can be obtained by visiting www understandingrelationships net New Family Values Karen Struening,2002-06-25 How many different kinds of families are there New Family Values provides a critical analysis of scholars and authors who argue that law and policy should be used to foster one model of the family the intact two parent heterosexual family Karen Struening argues that this position does not adequately address the problem it supposedly solves family dissolution and unnecessarily constrains personal liberty Healthy families may be necessary for civic unity and individual stability but there can be many different kinds of families

Modern Catholic Family Teaching Jacob M. Kohlhaas, Mary M. Doyle Roche, 2024-06-03 A first of its kind critical engagement with the collected documents of Catholic Family Teaching Catholic Family Teaching CFT has developed in parallel with Catholic Social Teaching CST yet has not similarly been critically explored as a documentary tradition Modern Catholic Family Teaching redresses this imbalance through a collection of outstanding commentaries and interpretations of the primary texts and key developments of CFT Modern Catholic Family Teaching features academic commentary on magisterial texts that constitute primary sources of contemporary Catholic teaching on the family Each chapter engages a moment in this tradition to invite critical academic engagement with CFT a topic that increasingly bears weight across diverse areas of theological and ethical consideration This edited volume offers a clear understanding of the tradition s growth and development over 130 years equipping scholars and students of theology to engage the pressing questions of our time

Marriages and Families in the 21st Century Tasha R. Howe, 2011-08-29 Marriages and Families in the 21st Century provides an in depth exploration of a traditional field of study using a new and engaging approach The text covers all the important issues including parenting divorce aging families balancing work and family family violence and gender issues using a bioecological framework that takes into account our status as both biological and social beings Using this lens which emphasizes the individual s interactions with a series of larger systemic influences from family peers neighbors and teachers to schools media institutions and culture the book creates a cohesive overview of modern family life and helps students visualize the complex influences affecting all people in families It also examines the state of modern families using a strengths based approach which allows students to evaluate the health and functioning of a family considering the biological and cultural milieu in which it exists rather than on its observable structure or appearance alone Individual chapters cover historical and cultural trends and also explore the biological personal and social forces that shape individuals and families Each chapter investigates the wide diversity of human relationships and integrates discussions of ethnicity culture sexual orientation and gender seamlessly into the main narrative In addition the book explores recent research in neuroscience medicine and biopsychology to examine how family relationships are shaped by and also influence individuals biological functioning An accessible writing style coupled with numerous student friendly pedagogical features help readers come to a multi layered understanding of what makes families tick while also challenging them to reevaluate their own assumptions and experiences Key features Uses a bioecological model that takes into account our status as both biological and social beings Employs a strengths based approach that focuses on family processes rather than structure in evaluating families optimal health and happiness Incorporates discussion of neuroscience medicine and biopsychological research throughout Explores a wide diversity of family relationships integrating issues of ethnicity culture sexual orientation and gender Focus

Breaking the Ties That Bound Barbara Alpern Engel,2011-03-15 Russia s Great Reforms of 1861 were sweeping social and legal changes that aimed to modernize the country In the following decades rapid industrialization and urbanization profoundly transformed Russia s social economic and cultural landscape Barbara Alpern Engel explores the personal cultural and political consequences of these dramatic changes focusing on their impact on intimate life and expectations and the resulting challenges to the traditional patriarchal family order the cornerstone of Russia s authoritarian political and religious regime The widely perceived marriage crisis had far reaching legal institutional and political ramifications In Breaking the Ties That Bound Engel draws on exceptionally rich archival documentation in particular on petitions for marital separation and the materials generated by the ensuing investigations to explore changing notions of marital relations domesticity childrearing and intimate life among ordinary men and women in imperial Russia Engel illustrates with unparalleled vividness the human consequences of the marriage crisis Her research reveals in myriad ways that the new and more individualistic values of the capitalist marketplace and commercial culture challenged traditional definitions of gender roles and encouraged the self creation of new social identities Engel captures the intimate experiences of women and men of the lower and middling classes in their own words documenting instances not only of physical mental and emotional abuse but also of resistance and independence These changes challenged Russia's rigid political order forcing a range of state agents up to and including those who spoke directly in the name of the tsar to rethink traditional understandings of gender norms and family law This remarkable social history is thus also a contribution to our understanding of the deepening political crisis of autocracy

Transitioning to Adulthood in Asia: School, Work, and Family Life Wei-Jun Jean Yeung, Cheryl Alipio, Frank F. Furstenberg, Jr., 2013-03-07 In the past decade or so scholars in the United States have identified the emergence of a new distinct stage of life as adolescence has become protracted and most young people of recent generations take longer to achieve economic and psychological autonomy than they did a half century ago This new life stage in between adolescence and adulthood when young people are in a semiautonomous state has come to be known as early adulthood Main characteristics of this new life stage include a later entry into the work force a longer period of time living in the natal home and a delayed age at marriage and childbearing These trends not only have profound implications for young adults well being and intergenerational relationships but also challenge social institutions such as family schools labor markets and many youth serving institutions

Journal of Health, Physical Education, Recreation, 1959 Women, the Family, and Freedom Susan G. Bell, Karen M. Offen, 1983 This is the second book in a two part collection of 264 primary source documents from the Enlightenment to 1950 chronicling the public debate that raged in Europe and America over the role of women in Western society The present volume looks at the period from 1880 to 1950 The central issues motherhood women's legal position in the family equality of the sexes the effect on social stability of women's education and labor extended to women the struggle by men for personal and political liberty These issues were political economic and religious dynamite They exploded in debates of philosophers political theorists scientists novelists and religious and political leaders This collection emphasizes the debate by juxtaposing prevailing and dissenting points of view at given historical moments e g Madame de Sta l vs Rousseau Eleanor Marx vs Pope Leo XIII Strindberg vs Ibsen Simone de Beauvoir vs Margaret Mead Each section is preceded by a contextual headnote pinpointing the documents significance Many of the documents have been translated into English for the first time

Popular Science Arthur Mee, 1912 Mine Mind Ivory, 2011-05 On Being Family Ray S. Anderson, Dennis B. Guernsey, 2012-04-04 In this book Ray S Anderson a pastor theologian and Dennis B Guernsey a family sociologist explore the connections that produce the marvelous complicated and often contorted human family The central thesis of the book is that God has placed human persons in a created order for which the covenant love of God provides the fundamental paradigm for parenting sexuality and marriage and the formation of family life From the perspective of the church as the new family of God the human family is liberated from its own failures and fears and each person is affirmed as having a place in God's kingdom Through Jesus Christ to whom we are connected by grace we are all brothers and sisters We are family Learning to Love Raksha Pande, 2021-03-19 The politics of marriage and migration in postcolonial Britain Becoming modern and British enacting citizenship through arranged marriages Continuing traditions as a matter of arrangement Becoming a suitable boy and a good girl Learning to love The ties that bind marriage belonging and identity Your Marriage and Family Living Paul Henry Landis, 1969 Protest Politics Today Devashree Gupta, 2023-05-03 Social movements play a vital and increasingly visible role in modern politics Headline grabbing demonstrations against authoritarian governments police brutality economic inequality and other grievances suggest that around the world social movements are seen as powerful catalysts of change In democracies as well as autocracies rich countries as well as poor citizens turn repeatedly to protest as a way of addressing a range of perceived social ills In this engaging and accessible book Devashree Gupta offers a thorough introduction to the study of social movements in these diverse settings examining their structures and operations to identify the ways in which political and social contexts shape how movements behave and what impacts they have Drawing on multiple theoretical approaches and contemporary case studies Gupta explores how movements think and act strategically learning from past interactions with authorities and the experiences of other movements to find innovative ways to challenge the status quo With suggestions for further reading and questions for class discussion throughout Protest Politics Today will be essential reading for students of social movements and contentious politics across the world
