Making the Scene Alex Stewart, 2007-08-02 Challenges conventional jazz historiography by demonstrating the role of big bands in the development of jazz This book describes how jazz musicians found big bands valuable It explores the rehearsal band scene in New York and rise of orchestras It combines historical research ethnography and participant observation with musical analysis

Black Women as Custodians of History: Unsung Rebel (M)Others in African American and Afro-Cuban Women's Writing Paula Sanmartin, 2014-03-28 This book is an essential addition to the study of comparative black literature of the Americas it will also fill the gap that exists on theoretical studies exploring black women s writing from the Spanish Caribbean This book examines literary representations of the historic roots of black women s resistance in the United States and Cuba by studying the following texts by both African American and Afro Cuban women from four different literary genres autobiographical slave narrative contemporary novel on slavery testimonial narrative and poetry Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl 1861 by the African American former slave Harriet Jacobs Dessa Rose 1986 by the African American writer Sherley Ann Williams Reyita sencillamente testimonio de una negra cubana nonagenarian Simply Reyita Testimonial Narrative of a Nonagenarian Black Cuban Woman 1996 written transcribed by the Afro Cuban historian Daisy Rubiera Castillo from her interviews with her mother Mar a de los Reyes Castillo Bueno Reyita and a selection of poems from the contemporary Afro Cuban poets Nancy Morej n and Georgina Herrera The study argues that the writers participate in black women s self inscription in the historical process by positioning themselves as subjects of their history and seizing discursive control of their hi stories Although the texts form part of separate discourses the book explores the commonalities of the rhetorical devices and narrative strategies employed by the authors as they disassemble racist and sexist stereotypes re constructing black female subjectivity through an image of active resistance against oppression one that authorizes unconventional definitions of womanhood and motherhood The book shows that in the womens revisions of national history their writings also demonstrate the pervasive role of racial and gender categories in the creation of a discourse of national identity while promoting a historiography constructed within flexible borders that need to be negotiated constantly The study s engagement in crosscultural exploration constitutes a step further in opening connections with a comparative literary study that is theoretically engaging in order to include Afro Cuban women writers and Afro Caribbean scholars into scholarly discussions in which African American women have already managed to participate with a series of critical texts The book explores connections between methods and perspectives derived from Western theories and from Caribbean and Black studies while recognizing the black women authors studied as critics and scholars In this sense the book includes some of the writers own commentaries about their work taken from interviews many of them conducted by the author Paula Sanmart n herself as well as critical essays and letters Black Women as Custodians of History adds a new dimension to the body of existing criticism by challenging the ways assumptions have shaped how literature is read by black women writers Paula Sanmartin's study is a vivid demonstration of the strengths of embarking on multidisciplinary study. This book will be useful to several disciplines and areas of study such as African diaspora studies, African American studies, Afro-Latin American and Afro-Caribbean studies, women's studies, genre studies, and slavery studies.

Women Re-Creating Classics Emily Hauser, Helena Taylor, 2025-06-12. In the last few years there has been a major and unmissable surge in women's retellings and re-creations of ancient myths and texts that has put women's re-creations of Classics centre stage. Drawing together an interdisciplinary range of creative and scholarly voices, this volume asks why classical creative retellings by women are so popular now and considers what creativity can do to foster new ways of thinking and writing about Classics, thus blurring the boundary between the creative and the critical. Contributors engage with debates on how to make Classics more accessible through the medium of creative works so that it is not just a discipline for the select few. This second volume in a two-volume set brings together original creative work by some of the many women writers who are pushing forward changes in the landscape of re-creating Classics, from Madeline Miller to Jennifer Saint, Emily Hauser, Caroline Lawrence, Roz Kaveney, Nikita Gill, Fiona Benson, Anne Carson, and many more. These are set alongside discussions and interviews between writers and academics, roundtable conversations among poets and critics, and reflections on creative and inclusive pedagogy, thus offering a cutting-edge collaboration between practitioners and researchers and underlining the centrality of women's re-creations of Classics to the contemporary shaping of the field.

Based on a True Story Donald F. Stevens, 1998-07-01. Combining history with discussions of dramatic cinema, Based on a True Story: Latin American History at the Movies examines how film has portrayed Latin America from the late fifteenth century to the present. The book opens with an introduction on the visual presentation of the past in the movies, while the rest of the book consists of essays that explore the best feature films on Latin America from the professional historian's perspective.

Telling Migrant Stories Esteban E. Loustaunau, Lauren E. Shaw, 2021-11-02. This book is a collection of edited theoretical essays on the power of contemporary documentary film to voice the social agency of Latin American immigrants to the United States and Europe and to reveal some of the global systemic conditions that generate mass migrations and lead to the dehumanization of undocumented immigrants. Linking the function of documentary to represent immigrants as performing agents whose voices generally are not heard publicly, this volume also features interviews with prominent documentarians whose films and videos respond to conditions of migration from a variety of perspectives.

Cuban Underground Hip Hop Tanya L. Saunders, 2015-11-30. This book is a part of the Latin American and Caribbean Arts and Culture publication initiative funded by a grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.

Lady Dicks and Lesbian Brothers Catherine Davy, 2023-06-20. A rich and detailed picture of a particular historical moment that has now passed. I found myself immersed in the world of the East Village theatre scene and its connections to the larger world of feminism, theatre, and politics. Davy's long-standing association with this world pays off handsomely; it is impossible to imagine that anyone could write a more informative portrait. Charlotte Canning, University of Texas at Austin After hosting two annual international women s performance festivals in 1980 and 81 Peggy Shaw Lois Weaver and comrades put on such extravaganzas as the Freudian Slip party and the Debutante Ball a coming out party if ever there was one to raise the first several months rent for a narrow vestibule on East 11th Street where they could keep the creativity going year round There on a stage no bigger than a queen sized mattress artists honed their craft giving birth to a celebratory feminist and tinsel tinged queer aesthetic By the mid 80s the rent quadrupled and WOW moved to a city owned building on East 4th Street where it has flourished ever since presenting hundreds if not thousands of plays solo shows concerts dance pieces cabarets and sundry performances that defy classification Alisa Solomon Village Voice Out of a small hand to mouth women s theater collective called the WOW Caf located on the lower east side of Manhattan there emerged some of the most important theater troupes and performance artists of the 1980s and 1990s including the Split Britches Company the Five Lesbian Brothers Carmelita Tropicana Holly Hughes Lisa Kron Deb Margolin Reno Peggy Shaw and Lois Weaver The WOW Women s One World Caf Theatre appeared on the cultural scene at a critical turning point in both the women s movement and feminist theory putting a witty hilarious gender bending and erotically charged aesthetic on the stage for women in general and lesbians in particular The storefront that became the WOW Caf Theatre saw dozens of excitingly original and enormously funny performances created performed and turned over at lightning speed a kind of hit and run theater As the demands on the space increased the women behind WOW organized as a collective and moved their theater to an abandoned doll factory where it continues to operate today For three decades the WOW Caf has nurtured fledgling women writers designers and performers who continue to create important performance work Lady Dicks and Lesbian Brothers provides a critical history of this avant garde venture whose ongoing system of anarchy has been largely responsible for its thirty year staying power after dozens of other women s theaters have collapsed WOW artists were creating a wholly original cultural landscape across which women could represent themselves on their own terms Parody cross dressing zany comedy and an unbridled eroticism are hallmarks of WOW s aesthetic combined importantly and powerfully with a presumptive address to the audience as if everyone onstage in the audience and in the world is lesbian Author Kate Davy s extensive research included in depth interviews with WOW veterans newspaper reviews of the earliest productions and rare unpublished photographs The book also includes a chronology of productions that have highlighted WOW s performance schedule since the early 80s Kate Davy is currently Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs at the University of Michigan Dearborn Her previous books include Richard Foreman Plays and Manifestos and Richard Foreman and the Ontological Hysteric Theatre American Women Short Story Writers Julie Brown,2014-05-01 This collection of original and classic essays examines the contributions that female authors have made to the short story The introductory chapter discusses why genre critics have ignored works by women and why feminist scholars have ignored the short story genre Subsequent chapters discuss early stories by such authors as Lydia Maria Child and Rose Terry Cooke

Others are devoted to the influences race class sexual orientation education that have shaped women s short fiction through the years Women s special stylistic formal and thematic concerns are also discussed in this study The final essay addresses the ways our contemporary creative writing classes are stifling the voices of emerging young female authors The collection includes an extensive five part bibliography

The Cinema of Agn[?]s Varda Delphine Benezet,2014-04-14 Agn s Varda a pioneer of the French New Wave has been making radical films for over half a century Many of these are considered by scholars filmmakers and audiences alike as audacious seminal and unforgettable This volme considers her production as a whole revisiting overlooked films like Mur Murs Documenteur 1980 81 and connecting her cinema to recent installation work This study demonstrates how Varda has resisted norms of representation and diktats of production It also shows how she has elaborated a personal repertoire of images characters and settings which all provide insight on their cultural and political contexts The book thus offers new readings of this director s multifaceted r veries arguing that her work should be seen as an aesthetically influential and ethically driven production where cinema is both a political and collaborative practice and a synesthetic art form

Living Politics, Making Music Jan Fairley,edited by Simon Frith,Ian Christie,2016-05-13 The late Jan Fairley 1949 2012 was a key figure in making world music a significant topic for popular music studies and an influential contributor to such world music magazines as fRoots and Songlines This book celebrates her contribution to popular music scholarship by gathering her most important work together in a single place The result is a richly informed and entertaining volume that will be of interest to all scholars in the field while also serving as an excellent introduction for students interested in popular music as a global phenomenon Fairley s work was focused on the problems and possibilities of cross cultural musical influences fantasies and flows and on the importance of performing circuits and networks Her interest in the details of music making and in the lives of music makers means that this collection is also an original and illuminating study of music and politics In drawing on Jan Fairley s journalism this volume also offers students a guide to various genres of world music from Cuban son to flamenco as well as an insight into the lives of such world music stars as Mercedes Sosa and Silvio Rodr guez This is inspiring as well as essential reading

Sophia Peabody Hawthorne Patricia Dunlavy Valenti,2004 Sophia Peabody Hawthorne is known almost exclusively in her role as the wife of Nathaniel Hawthorne who portrayed her as the fragile ethereal infirm Dove That image invented by Nathaniel to serve his needs and affirm his manhood was passed on by his biographers who accepted their subject s perception without question In fact the real Sophia was very different from Nathaniel s construction of her An independent sensuous daring woman Sophia was an accomplished artist before her marriage to Nathaniel Moreover what she brought to their union inspired Nathaniel s imagination beyond the limits of his previously confined existence In Sophia Peabody Hawthorne Patricia Dunlavy Valenti situates the story of Sophia s life within its own historical philosophical and cultural background as well as within the context of her marriage Valenti begins with parallel biographies that present Sophia and then Nathaniel at comparable periods in their lives Sophia was born into an expansive somewhat chaotic home in which women provided financial as well as emotional sustenance She was a precocious eager student whose rigorous education in her mother's and her sisters' schools began her association with the children of New England's elite Sophia aspired to become a professional self-supporting painter exhibiting her art and seeking criticism from established mentors She relished an eighteen-month sojourn in Cuba Nathaniel's reclusive family his reluctant early education his anonymous pursuit of a career and his relatively circumscribed life contrast markedly with the experience of the woman who became his wife and the mother of his children Those differences resulted in a creative abrasion that ignited his fiction during the first years of their marriage Volume 1 of this biography concludes with Sophia's negotiation of the Hawthornes' departure from the Old Manse and the birth of their second child This period also coincides with the conclusion of Nathaniel's major phase of short story writing Sophia Peabody Hawthorne is an engrossing story of a nineteenth-century American life It analyzes influences upon authorship and questions the boundaries of intellectual property in the domestic sphere The book also offers fresh interpretations of Nathaniel Hawthorne's fiction examining it through the lens of Sophia's vibrant personality and diverse interests Students and scholars of American literature literary theory feminism and cultural history will find much to enrich their understanding of this woman and this era

The Revolution Will Be Improvised Elizabeth Rodriguez

Fielder, 2024-10-22 The Revolution Will Be Improvised The Intimacy of Cultural Activism traces intimate encounters between activists and local people of the civil rights movement through an archive of Black and Brown avant-gardism In the 1960s Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee SNCC activists engaged with people of color working in poor communities to experiment with creative approaches to liberation through theater media storytelling and craft making With a dearth of resources and an abundance of urgency SNCC activists improvised new methods of engaging with communities that created possibilities for unexpected encounters through programs such as The Free Southern Theater El Teatro Campesino and the Poor People's Corporation Reading the output of these programs Elizabeth Rodriguez Fielder argues that intimacy making became an extension of participatory democracy In doing so Rodriguez Fielder supplants the success/failure binary for understanding social movements focusing instead on how care work aligns with creative production The Revolution Will Be Improvised returns to improvisation's roots in economic and social necessity and locates it as a core tenet of the aesthetics of obligation where a commitment to others drives the production and result of creative work Thus this book puts forward a methodology to explore the improvised often ephemeral works of art activism

Women and Water in Global Fiction

Emma Staniland, 2023-01-27 Symbols and tropes of liquidity have long been connected to notions of the feminine and therefore with orthodox constructions of femininity and womanhood Underpinning these ideas is the vital importance of water as life force which has given it a central place in cultural vocabularies worldwide These symbolic economies in turn inform the discourses through which positive or negative associations of women with water come to bear impact on the social positioning of female gendered identities Women and Water in Global Fiction brings together an array of studies of this phenomenon as seen in writing by and about women from around the world The literature explored in this volume works to make visible decodify celebrate and challenge the cultural associations made between female gendered identities and all kinds of watery tropes as well as their consequences for key issues connected to women society and the environment The collection investigates the roots of such symbolisms examines how they inform women s place in the socio cultural orders of diverse global cultures and shows how the female authors in question use these tropes in their work as ways of re articulating female identities and their correlative roles The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay Robert Nash,2019-10-23 This all inclusive A Z encyclopedia by one of the world s foremost experts on cinema provides comprehensive annotations of the best films produced from 1914 on The work offers more than 5 000 three to five star entries three stars good four stars excellent five stars masterpiece and yes author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them as well as many more that did not make the cut In addition to a precis each film s entry also includes a listing of the cast as well as the key principles involved in production from the director to the hair stylist Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children Unlike the industry rating system which can be influenced by studio lobbying Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations for viewing recommended acceptable cautionary and unacceptable Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre i e animated drama sports mystery adventure etc as well as an annotated name index listing all persons mentioned along with their dates of birth and death Rounding out this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author s private collection Cuban-American Literature and Art Isabel Alvarez Borland,Lynette M. F. Bosch,2009-01-26 This groundbreaking collection offers an understanding of why Cuban American literature and visual art have emerged in the United States and how they are so essentially linked to both Cuban and American cultures The contributors explore crucial issues pertinent not only to Cuban American cultural production but also to other immigrant groups hybrid identities biculturation bilingualism immigration adaptation and exile The complex ways in which Cuban Americans have been able to keep a living memory of Cuba while developing and thriving in America are both intriguing and instructive These essays written from a variety of perspectives range from useful overviews of fictional and visual works of art to close readings of individual texts Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1898 Caribes 2.0 Jossianna Arroyo,2023-04-14 In Caribes 2 0 author Jossianna Arroyo looks at the Caribbean mediasphere in the twenty first century Arroyo argues that we have seen a return to tropes such as blackface brownface cultural and ethnic stereotypes and violent representations of the poor the marginalized and the racialized Caribes 2 0 looks at these tropes as well as the work of writers vloggers performers and photographers that have become media figures or have used new media platforms to promote their work and examines how they are challenging and negotiating these media representations It analyzes contemporary Caribbean cultures to discuss taste guides and actions social and virtual that shape Caribbean global communities today Departing from Edouard Glissant s insight that Caribbean reality might not be accessed by remote control the book considers what types of political and social agencies are created by mediation Caribes 2 0 deviates from these
