Making All Things New Michael Amaladoss,1990 The Joy of Religious Pluralism Phan, Peter C.,2017-02-16

Moving Beyond the Impasse S. Wesley Ariarajah,2018-10-01 Interfaith dialogue in a plural world This volume is based on the belief that both the ecumenical and interfaith movements are looking for new orientations for their future The forces of globalization communications revolution and massive population movements challenge some of the theological assumptions and presuppositions on which they were built The entry of deep and divisive religious sentiments into the public space and the rise of militant forms of religious expression call on the interfaith movement to move beyond traditional forms of dialogue the challenge is to enter into a deeper engagement on the purpose and role of religious traditions in society The impasse facing these movements can only be overcome by new orientations as they look to the future This volume is not specifically on this problem However the collection of essays included in this volume although first given as lectures or written as articles traces past developments identifies the challenges these movements face today and suggests fresh theological moves to regain the initiatives to bring human communities closer together New Directions in Mission and Evangelization 2

James A. Scherer,2015-03-24 A Tale of Two Theologians Ambrose Mong,2017-03-31 In A Tale of Two Theologians Ambrose Mong's observant new work he examines the writings of the Peruvian theologian Gustavo Gutierrez and the Indian theologian Michael Amaladoss and gives fresh attention to their main concerns regarding evangelisation and the poor Why he asks is Gutierrez's liberation theology now accepted and celebrated by the Roman Catholic Church while Amaladoss's Asian theology with a liberation thrust is threatened with censorship Mong argues that the dwindling threat of Communism has made the Marxist overtones of Latin American liberation theology more palatable to the Catholic hierarchy while the challenge of religious pluralism in Asia is as complex and emotive as ever How can the Church learn to balance the need for dialogue between religions with their duty to proclaim the Gospel How can the Church inculturate itself in Asia while maintaining its identity Ambrose Mong tackles these questions with the shrewd clear eyed view of an active priest and scholar exploring the long troubled relationship the Church has with liberation theology and offering guidance for the future

True Confucians, Bold Christians Antton Eiguren Iraola,2007 In this book the author invites readers to look at the particular missionary method developed by a small group of Korean Christians during the last quarter of the 18th century That Korean missionary method of two hundred years ago is proposed as a model for mission in the third millennium Page 18

19 Changing Frontiers of Mission Wilbert R. Shenk ,2015-03-24 Revision of the Codes, An Indian-European Dialogue Adrian Loretan,Felix Wilfred,2018 In the Second Vatican Council 1962-65 the Catholic Church reached a new viewpoint of itself both internally and externally The Declaration Dignitatis Humanae developed this opinion of the individual as dignified DH 2 and as a person equipped with his or her own sense of conscience DH 3 Based on this form of dialogical thinking the Council can tolerate varying forms of Christianity other than the Catholic form and accept other religions or beliefs The canonical translations of this theological spin to the human person DH 1 in this book are presented by Indian and European authors with a view to a revision of the Codices Prof Dr Adrian Loretan Since 1996 he has taught Canon and Constitutional Law and Religion at the University of Lucerne Switzerland He is the Director of the Center for Comparative Constitutional Law and Religion and a Senate Member of the University As well he is the editor of the book series titled Law and Religion 26 vols and Religionsrechtliche Studien 4 vols Prof Dr Felix Wilfred Emeritus Professor of the State University of Madras India where he was Chair of the School of Philosophy and Religious Thought He is the president of the International Review Concilium published in six European language editions as well as the Editor in Chief of the International Journal of Asian Christianity published by Brill Leiden He is the editor of the monumental volume The Oxford Handbook of Christianity in Asia 2014 The Routledge Companion to the Christian Church Gerard Mannion, Lewis S.

Mudge, 2007-12-12 The nature and story of the Christian church is immensely important to theology students and scholars alike Written by an international team of distinguished scholars this comprehensive book introduces students to the fundamental historical systematic moral and ecclesiological aspects of the study of the church as well as serving as a resource for scholars engaging in ecclesiological debates on a wide variety of issues It divides into six parts the church in its historical context the different denominational traditions global perspectives methods and debates in ecclesiology key concepts and themes ecclesiology and other disciplines social sciences philosophy literature and film Authoritative accessible and easily navigable this book is indispensable for everyone interested in the nature and history of the Christian Church

Michael Amaladoss and the Quest for Indian Theology Enrico Beltramini, 2024-09-17 A Jesuit priest born in the Indian state of Tamil Nadu Michael Amaladoss is one of the most prominent Asian thinkers in the field of interreligious dialogue Bringing his unique perspective toward the nature of God and Christ Christian dialogue with Indian Vedanta and the reconciliation between spirituality and social justice Amaladoss has contributed to the creation of a distinctly Indian pole of Catholic theology without the mediating force of Western culture and philosophy With this book Enrico Beltramini offers an assessment of Amaladoss's thought and an investigation into his main theological concerns Asian Pacific Catholicism and Globalization José Casanova, Peter C. Phan, 2023-12-01 This history of the Catholic Church in Asia and the Pacific illuminates the processes of globalization Since the sixteenth century Catholicism has contributed significantly to global connectivity Except for the Philippines and Timor Leste Catholicism in Asia is and is likely to remain a minority religion For this reason it can serve as a unique prism through which to look at the processes of globalization in Asia Asian Pacific Catholicism and Globalization demonstrates to scholars and students of Catholic history that the development of Catholicism in Asia and later in the Oceania Pacific region is closely associated with three different phases of globalization This book approaches the historical processes of globalization not as structural agencies or causal forces but rather as the historical contexts that condition possibilities for human action and reaction in the world The editors identify three distinct phases in the development of Catholicism in Asia and Oceania early modern sixteenth eighteenth centuries modern Western hegemony 1780s 1960s and the contemporary 1960s present The book's contributors discuss the development of Catholicism in all the major countries of the region including China Japan South Korea the Philippines Vietnam India and Australia Making Disciples in a World Parish Paul W. Chilcote, 2011-04-01 In this collection of inspirational and challenging essays Methodists from around the globe reflect on the practice of disciple making in their own contexts From their own perspectives they address questions like What are the challenges you face What biblical images shape your missional practice What examples of Christian authenticity inspire your communities What gifts related to mission and evangelism do you offer the global community of faith Churches on every continent have their own stories of struggle and faithfulness Indeed each distinct community within any given region has a voice of its own that deserves to be heard The voices included in this volume belong to women and men alike Likewise they resound with the accents of Africa and Asia Latin and North America Europe and Oceania Each voice is distinct but all articulate a vision of faith made effective through love In a world characterized variously by poverty and violence as well as prosperity and peace the church must reclaim its central mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ In their effort to articulate a vision of mission and evangelism the contributors to this volume bear witness to the fact that we can no longer do this work in isolation from one another To be the ambassadors of the gospel we need each other and we need to pay attention to the voices that sound different from our own This volume takes a large step in that vital direction Bibliography on East Asian Religion and Philosophy, 2001 This comprehensive research bibliography compiles annotates indexes and cross references resources in the principal Western languages which focus on China Japan and Korea in the areas of philosophy and religious studies supporting resources in theology history culture and related social sciences A notable additional feature is the inclusion of extensive Internet based resources such as a wide variety of web sites discussion lists electronic texts virtual libraries online journals and related material The Study of Evangelism Paul W. Chilcote, Lacey C. Warner, 2008-02-13 Christians and communities of faith today are rediscovering evangelism as an essential aspect of the church's mission Many of the resulting books in the marketplace however have a hands on orientation often lacking serious theological engagement and reflection Bucking that how to trend The Study of Evangelism offers thirty groundbreaking essays that plumb the depths of the biblical and theological heritage of the church with reference to evangelistic practice Helpfully organized into six categories these broad diverse writings lay a solid scholarly foundation for meaningful dialogue about the church's practice of evangelism 'Mission is a must', 2016-08-29 Introduction Frans Wijzen and Peter Nissen Mission is a Must A missiological profile of Rogier van Rossum Peter Nissen The Epistle to Diognetus An Open Dialogue Leo Meulenberg The Conversion of a Missionary Reflections on the Life of Martin of Nantes 1638 1714 Jan Rietveld Missio ad gentes in the Spirituality of St Vincent De Paul Gerard van Winsen Church Colonialism and Nationalism in Tanzania Albert de Jong Searching for the heart of the Mayas Five hundred years of

Sugirthharajah ,2015-03-31 Although Jesus was born in the western part of Asia it was not until fifteen hundred years later that Asia experienced the full impact of Jesus personality and teaching Western missionaries the primary transmitters of Christianity left behind a Western understanding of Jesus Today Asians are seeking the face of the original Jesus his Asian face For them all understanding of Jesus arise out of their particular contextual needs Enriching the Western understanding of Jesus Asians employ new interpretative resources cultural symbols and thought patterns as they make sense of Jesus for their own time and place Pluralism Chester Gillis,1993 Methodologically Gillis suggests that Christian thology be constructed not only with an awareness of but also using the data of other religions Theologically he defends the position of pluralism and investigates the implications of this for soteriology christology and ethics As practical theology he offers suggestions for the conduct of interreligious dialogue on the local level Chester Gillis is assistant professor theology at Georgetown University He holds a Licentiate degree in Philosophy and the M A in Religious Studies from the Catholic University of Leuven His Ph D in Theology is from the Divinity School of the University of Chicago He is author of A Question of Final Belief The Rishi of Bangladesh Dr Cosimo Zene,Cosimo Zene,2014-04-08 This book is a study of the changing relationship over time 1856 1994 between the Rishi an ex Untouchable jati of Bengal South West Bangladesh and various groups of Catholic missionaries The book s originality and importance lies in its multi disciplinary approach which combines anthropological fieldwork historical research philosophical enquiry and contemporary missiological debates Moreover it addresses issues of great current relevance in its discussions of Orientalism Neo colonialism and Otherness Constants in Context Stephen B. Bevans,Roger P. Schroeder,Roger Schroeder,2004-01-01 Mission is handicapped without a sound biblical theology of mission and an understanding of the history of mission leading up to our current context Constants in Context offers both of these elements It is mission theology in historical perspective and or a history of mission that is grounded theologically The authors describe it as a systematic theology with mission at its core and a church history shaped by the constant but always contextual Christian traditions Furthermore it is a constructive contribution to how mission theology needs to be practical and lived out through today's church and in our world. Written collaboratively by Roman Catholic writers Stephen Bevans and Roger Schroeder both Missionaries of the Divine Word SVDs, it is a particularly insightful regard to the history and the various streams of Catholic mission but it also addresses and learns from the other traditions of the church. In fact, one of the book's strengths is its attention to neglected aspects and hidden stories of church and mission history. As a result, it is gratifying to be inspired by non-European mission women in mission and various forgotten or often ignored branches of the church. The book is in three sections: first, there is a framework for cultural contexts and theological constants; second, an in-depth exploration of historical stages and different models for mission; and third, a presentation of theological frameworks for mission. The third section concludes with a case for mission as prophetic dialogue being the most appropriate model for 21st century mission. Amazon.com Quest for Harmony Vincent Sekhar, 2002
