Making Movies From Script To Screen:

Making Movies: from Script to Screen Lee R. Bobker, 1973 Text and illustrations describe the equipment budgeting directing and editing techniques and other aspects of film production for beginners

Making Movies on Your Own Kevin J. Lindenmuth, 1998-07-15 You see them on the video shelves with titles such as Domestic Strangers The Bride of Frank The Blood Between Us Strawberry Estates and Sandman Sceptically perhaps you rent one and slip it into the VCR Hey you think this isn't so bad sometimes actually quite good Suddenly you discover that there is a whole range of movies from filmmakers operating outside the studio system that have their own attractions that the big budget fare can't match You have of course discovered the world of independent filmmaking Intrigued you begin thinking that maybe you could do this maybe you could make an independent feature film In this work J R Bookwalter Ronnie Cramer Mike Gingold Eric Stanze Steve Ballot and 20 others tell what it is really like to make an independent feature Covering such topics as the script equipment actors publicity distribution all facets of production and budgeting these indie filmmakers give a virtual how to for those interested in joining them or just learning more about how those interesting titles end up on video store shelves

How to Make Movies Kevin J. Lindenmuth, 2013-03-08 The success of low budget independent films like The Blair Witch Project and Paranormal Activity have clearly demonstrated that successful movies can be made with very small budgets Still working on a tight budget requires both skill and ingenuity and is an inevitable and continuous learning experience for the filmmaker Join two dozen truly independent filmmakers those used to working and delivering within extreme limitations as they bluntly chronicle their experiences creating features from the trenches They cover the major stages of the filmmaking process from financing technical decisions and handling actors and crew to music production and distribution With loads of practical advice actual case studies and many behind the scenes photographs this collection of war stories from the micro budget front lines will benefit aspiring and experienced independent filmmakers alike

Make Movies That Make Money! Philip R. Cable, 2009-06-08 The term low budget can refer to anything from a 10 million indie flick to a student film produced on borrowed equipment with little or no money Low budget filmmakers can range from seasoned auteurs attempting to shed the shackles of major studio control to novice talents trying to break into the industry Designed for would be filmmakers of all experience levels this book explains how to make a good commercially successful low budget movie in the current multi million dollar Hollywood climate The purpose is not only to show how to get movies made and distributed but also how to maximize a film's potential for significant profit Written in practical understandable terms the book covers everything from commercially viable genres to the most efficient film and video formats along with tips on hiring stars pursuing investors distributing and marketing a film and keeping track of expenses
