Making Of A Monster:

Making Monsters: A Speculative and Classical Anthology Djibril al-Ayad, Emma Bridges, 2018-06-04 We have always made monsters in art in myth in religion out of clay or bronze pixels or hybrid flesh from the stuff of human nightmares by cursing women with bestial traits This anthology brings together fiction and accessible academic writing in conversation about monsters and their roles in our lives and ours in theirs Making Monsters David Livingstone Smith, 2021-10-12 A leading scholar explores what it means to dehumanize others and how and why we do it I wouldn't have accepted that they were human beings You would see an infant who's just learning to smile and it smiles at you but you still kill it So a Hutu man explained to an incredulous researcher when asked to recall how he felt slaughtering Tutsis in Rwanda in 1994 Such statements are shocking yet we recognize them we hear their echoes in accounts of genocides massacres and pogroms throughout history How do some people come to believe that their enemies are monsters and therefore easy to kill In Making Monsters David Livingstone Smith offers a poignant meditation on the philosophical and psychological roots of dehumanization Drawing on harrowing accounts of lynchings Smith establishes what dehumanization is and what it isn't When we dehumanize our enemy we hold two incongruous beliefs at the same time we believe our enemy is at once subhuman and fully human To call someone a monster then is not merely a resort to metaphor dehumanization really does happen in our minds Turning to an abundance of historical examples Smith explores the relationship between dehumanization and racism the psychology of hierarchy what it means to regard others as human beings and why dehumanizing others transforms them into something so terrifying that they must be destroyed Meticulous but highly readable Making Monsters suggests that the process of dehumanization is deeply seated in our psychology It is precisely because we are all human that we are vulnerable to the manipulations of those trading in the politics of demonization and violence The Making of a Monster Gail Petersen, 2014-04-01 Her move to Los Angeles was supposed to restart her life But with one quick bite it is her death that has been begun A chance meeting with a mysterious stranger has transformed this conventional wife into a creature that prowls the dark streets desperate to quench her need for blood Impervious to the night she joins a rock and roll band and searches among those lost souls for companionship always feeling like she does not belong Caught between loathing her new self and losing touch with whom she once was Kate is a soul torn between loathing and longing Facing a bloody struggle Kate at last embraces her vampire nature and only then does the mystery of immortality explode Me Make Monster Jenny Harada, 2010-08-10 They hide in your closet They lurk under the bed They tickle your feet and devour your pillows They're monsters only a mother could love In Me Make Monster Jenny Harada presents a hoard of funky monster projects so ugly they're cute Bring to life your own fantastic brood as you follow step by step instructions to create a true mish mash of monsterdom everything from plush huggable beasties and a furry pillow cover to a fanged fiendish trinket box and google eyed dice Whatever kind of monster may tickle your fancy or your feet you'll find
