The Making of a Mystic: My Journey With Mushrooms, My Life as a Pastor, and Why It's Okay for Everyone to Relax Kevin Sweeney,2022-05-31 There is an increasing interest in the mystics contemplative faith and what it feels like in real life We have teachers who can explain the path and help us understand but we need guides who have experienced the path and who can show us how it unfolds This is what The Making of a Mystic is all about The Making of a Mystic (Classic Reprint) Aelfrida Tillyard,2017-11-24 Excerpt from The Making of a Mystic In the Lent terms of the years 1915 1916 and 1917 I delivered courses of Lectures at Cambridge on Spiritual Exercises and their Psychological Results The Development of the Religious

Consciousness in East and West and The Practice of Mysticism These lectures which were given in the Psychological lecture room were purely academic They brought me into contact however with a number of people whose interest in mysticism and in the spiritual experience and methods of meditation of saints of all religions was not merely that of the scholar I found myself being constantly asked for advice by men and women who wished to become pilgrims on the mystic way and who felt the need for intense religious experience without having any opportunity for practising the austerities of the contemplative life I myself as I had better confess quite frankly am a mystic in so far as I find the world of spiritual experience more real than the material world and look on our union with God as the aim of humanity And though I agree with Dr Rendel Harris that those people who talk of undertaking the guidance of souls are both dangerous and impertinent I could not avoid giving these seekers after truth such help as was within my power which was little enough of course About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Making of a Mystic in the Twenty-First Century Carol E. Parrish-Harra, 2014-08-06 There are three major ways to follow the spiritual path slow fast and the Bardo Most people are familiar with gradual awakening by using discipline and purification practices to cleanse one's self of emotional and behavioral conditioning Then there are others who awaken suddenly perhaps through a near death or out of body experience and they find themselves seeing and feeling in new ways about everything including their own subconscious the Bardo realm To become a mystic however is a step further as it involves both an inner commitment to spiritual growth in one's daily life as well as a deeper initiation into the mysteries of one's mind The author Carol Parrish Harra is a trusted master in helping train and guide those individuals who seek to grow in their inner life in both the pain and the ecstasy In The Making of a Mystic she shares age old wisdom gleaned from previous generations and adds a wealth of personal experience gained from living a mystical life in our modern world The Making of a Mystic A Twenty first Century Mystic Speaks by Carol E Parrish Harra offers an excellent introduction to the path of mysticism by someone who has not only studied deeply but has had deep mystical experiences herself As she writes Our real heartfelt desire is to be in the Presence This book describes her quest to bring this heartfelt desire to realization It is an inspiring work for travelers on the path Robert Powell PhD co founder of the Sophia Foundation and author of The Sophia Teachings The Most Holy Trinosophia The Mystery Destiny and Biography of Mary Magdalene and other works Carol Parrish Harra is a dynamic spiritual trailblazer and a real visionary Her spiritual path is a living synthesis of multiple strands of living wisdom and her story is a document of great importance As a modern Mystic she is a source of evolutionary inspiration and spiritual renewal and I warmly recommend the book Soren Hauge Spiritual Teacher Counsellor and Author www.sorenhauge.com The Making of a Mystic is what I would like all newcomers to the field of spiritual Esoterics and Mysticism to read Carol Parrish gives easy to read descriptions of some essential Do's and Don'ts from her personal experience and warns of several traps that can befall the advanced student A gentle but firm entry into this vast subject Archbishop Frank Bugge Australian Church of Antioch Malibar Rite The Making of a Mystic is the culmination of forty years searching finding and sharing insights into higher reality Carol Parrish has inspired generations of students and her new book written in the straightforward compelling style that is her hallmark is a must read for all on the Path John F Nash PhD author of The Soul and Its Destiny and The Sacramental Church The Making of a Mystic Paddy Fievet,2014 Mystic Moderns James H. Thrall,2020-01-21 Mystic Moderns examines the responses of three British authors Evelyn Underhill 1875 1941 May Sinclair 1863 1946 and Mary Webb 1881 1927 to the emerging modernity of the long early twentieth century moment encompassing the First World War As they explored divergent but overlapping understandings of what mystical experience might be these authors rejected claims that modernity's celebration of the secular and rational left no place for the mystical rather they countered sensitivity to a greater reality could both establish and validate personal agency and was integral to their identities as modern women Their preoccupations with the dynamism of human connection drew on prevailing ideas of vital energy or life force developed by Arthur Schopenhauer and Henri Bergson in ways that channeled modernity's erotic energy of change By using their fiction to describe new self authenticating forms of mysticism separate from either the prevailing orthodoxy of establishment Christianity or the extreme heterodoxy of their era's enthusiasm for paranormal experimentation they also contributed to the rise of a generic concept of spirituality Mystic Moderns thus offers historical perspective on contemporary claims for self constructed non institutional spiritual experience associated with the claim I'm spiritual not religious Working as they did within the shadow of the First World War Underhill Sinclair and Webb were in the end attempting to determine what might be of authentic value for a modern age marked by ubiquitous death While not themselves utopian authors each was touched by her era's complicated hunger for the best of all possible worlds Their constructions of how an individual should be and act in the midst of modernity thus simultaneously projected visions of what that modernity itself should become The Making of a Mystic Helen R. Bakkensen,1992 George Matheson and Mysticism--A Biographical Study Scott S. McKenna,2022-02-04 This book is a study on the life and mystical thought of George Matheson In the closing decades of the nineteenth century Matheson was a Church of Scotland minister at Innellan on the west coast of Scotland Matheson was of Highland descent and blind from the age of eighteen His spiritual journey included a distressing experience of atheism the attraction of Hegelian idealism and through the practice of silence and meditation on Scripture he wrote of the Eternal through mystical union Matheson has much to offer those interested in the inner life not least Christians in the Presbyterian tradition The Mystic Ark Conrad Rudolph,2014-06-09 In this book

Conrad Rudolph studies and reconstructs Hugh of Saint Victor's forty-two page written work The Mystic Ark which describes the medieval painting of the same name. In medieval written sources, works of art are not often referred to, let alone described in any detail. Almost completely ignored by art historians because of the immense difficulty of its text, Hugh of Saint Victor's Mystic Ark c. 1125-30 is among the most unusual sources we have for an understanding of medieval artistic culture. Depicting all time, all space, all matter, all human history, and all spiritual striving, this highly polemical painting deals with a series of cultural issues crucial in the education of society's elite during one of the great periods of intellectual change in Western history.

MAKING OF A MYSTIC Aelfrida Catharine Wetenhall Tillyard, 2016-08-29 Math Mystic's Guide to Creative Spirituality Sarah Voss, 2024-04-04

The Math Mystic's Guide to Creative Spirituality is a unique, provocative, engaging, and a masterpiece of philosophical and mystical exploration. It offers gourmet treats for those with spiritual hunger, a feast of innovative perspectives on building social collateral, trust, forgiveness, resilience, and intellectual desserts for the mathematically inclined. User-friendly for the non-mathematician, the book also provides a smorgasbord of resources for those who want to know more about the math. Deeply personal but also scholarly, with an unprecedented use of mathematical metaphors, this book will appeal to mathematicians, scientists, teachers, philosophers, religious educators, and spiritual seekers of many persuasions. A math professor before becoming a Unitarian Universalist minister, the author has compiled herein a lifetime of creative study about the relationship between math and religion. She has pioneered ways to use mathematics to help clarify such spiritual ideas as God, fairness, equality, redemption, and the nature of things. In the process, she coined the terms matheology and mathaphor, introduced the notion of math sermons, and has expanded the concept of moral math. This exciting collection of essays, with a little poetry as garnish, uses math as a language to nourish the spiritual heart of our global society.

A Psychological Interpretation of Mysticism ... Clarence Herbert Hamilton, 1916 The Making of a Mystic Evelyn Underhill, 2024-03-18

Evelyn Underhill (1875-1941) achieved international fame with the publication of her book Mysticism in 1911. Continuously in print since its original publication, Mysticism remains Underhill's most famous work, but in the course of her long career, she published nearly forty books, including three novels and three volumes of poetry, as well as numerous poems in periodicals. She was the religion editor for Spectator, a friend of T. S. Eliot; her influence is visible in his last masterpiece, Four Quartets, and she was the first woman invited to lecture on theology at Oxford University. Her interest in religion extended beyond her Anglican upbringing to embrace the world's religions and their common spirituality. In time for the centennial celebration of her classic Mysticism, this volume of Underhill's letters will enable readers and researchers to follow her as she reconciled her beliefs with her daily life. The letters reveal her personal and theological development and clarify the relationships that influenced her life and work. Hardly aloof, she enjoyed the interests, mirth, and compassion of close friendships. Drawing from collections previously unknown to scholars, The Making of a Mystic shows the range of Evelyn Underhill's mind and interests, as well as the immense network of her correspondents, including Sir James Frazier and Nobel

Prize laureate Rabindranath Tagore This substantial selection of Underhill's correspondence demonstrates an exceptional scope beginning with her earliest letters from boarding school to her mother and extending to a letter written to T S Eliot from what was to be her deathbed in London in 1941 as the London Blitz raged around her

My Heart After Esther: A Mystic's Philosophy of Love Collins I. Aki, 2017-01-24 My Heart After Esther could be considered a philosophy of love in the skin of a romance novel or a romance novel in the skin of a philosophy of love but it is ultimately a story about love and philosophy in a way that romances the two In this work of literary meta fiction two stories are interwoven into one The first story is about the translator of the second story Gustav Z Itohahn and his love for the author and his work he is translating the mysterious pseudo philosopher Jorge Manuel Belmarez In the second story we read Itohahn's presentation of Belmarez's story of love which dares to challenge every idea of love and marriage from the vow till death do we part to the old courtly love edict that marriage is no proper defense against love This new take on philosophical fiction may somehow find itself in the memory of its readers as more than an experiment in story telling but truly an experiment in challenging our deepest ideas and beliefs

A Testament of Devotion and Thomas Kelly, Augustinian Quaker Guy Aiken, 2021-04-06 Guy Aiken provides a critical appreciation of Quaker mystic Thomas Kelly 1893-1941 and his classic A Testament of Devotion 1941 This examination of Kelly's life and devotional writings is largely viewed through an Augustinian lens Augustine's Confessions was a touchstone for Kelly after his mystical transformation in 1937-38 Aiken argues that Kelly's vision of Quakerism transcended religious and historical boundaries while still speaking directly and prophetically to mid twentieth century liberal Quakerism and Christianity in the United States The volume treats in turn Kelly's melding of liberal and evangelical theology his prophetic call to his contemporaries and his revival of an ancient ethic before concluding with helpful suggestions for further research
