Making Of An Un American:

The Making of an Un-American Paul Cowan,1970 The Poverty of the World Sheyda F. A. Jahanbani,2023 Bringing together foreign and domestic policy The Poverty of the World aims to offer a new answer to the question of why Americans became obsessed with poverty in the 1960s A history of how American liberals made sense of US power during a period of unprecedented affluence at home it uses intellectual and political biographies of major figures in postwar US social thought and politics to tell the story of how Americans invented the problem of global poverty and executed a war against it that the Taliban and al Qaeda are in many respects synonymous that their ideology and objectives are closely intertwined and that they have made common cause against the West for decades Yet this view have hardly ever been scrutinized or tested empirically This is all the more surprising given that the West s present entanglement in Afghanistan is commonly predicated on the need to defeat the Taliban in order to forestall further terrorist attacks worldwide There is thus an urgent need to re examine the known facts of the Taliban al Qaeda relationship and to tell the story of the Taliban s encounter with internationalist militant Islamism In An Enemy We Created Alex Strick van Linschoten and Felix Kuehn focus on the complexity of the relationship between the two groups and the individuals who established them The book which has already been cited prominently in The New Yorker is the first to examine in detail the relationship from the Taliban s perspective based on Arabic Dari and Pashtu sources drawing on the authors many years of experience in southern Afghanistan the Taliban s heartland They also interviewed Taliban decision makers field commanders and ordinary fighters while immersing themselves in Kandahar s society The story of those individuals who were to become the key decision makers and the relationships among all those involved from the mid 1990s onward reveal how frequently the Taliban and al Qaeda diverged rather than converged An Enemy We Created concludes that there is room to engage the Taliban on two fundamental issues renouncing al Qaeda and guaranteeing that Afghanistan will not be a sanctuary for international terrorists Yet the insurgency is changing and it could soon be too late to find a political solution The authors contend that certain aspects of the campaign in Afghanistan especially night raids and attempts to fragment and decapitate the Taliban are transforming the resistance creating more opportunities for al Qaeda and helping it to attain its objectives The Swedish American Trade Journal
