Making Of Irans Islamic Revolution Vol 2 From Monarchy To Islamic Republic:

The Making Of Iran's Islamic Revolution Mohsen M Milani, 2018-03-09 In this fully revised and expanded second edition Dr Milani offers new insights into the causes and profound consequences of Iran's Islamic Revolution Drawing on dozens of personal interviews with the officials of the Islamic Republic and on recently released documents he presents a provocative analysis of the dynamics and characteristics of factional politics in Islamic Iran Among the new issues covered are the events leading up to the Teheran hostage crisis Ayatollah Khomeini's life and writings President Rafsanjani's activities against the Shah Rafsanjani's recent reforms Iran's involvement in the Kuwaiti crisis and the domestic and foreign policy challenges facing Iran in the post Cold War era The second edition is specifically revised for use as a text for courses dealing with Iran the Middle East and revolutionary movements

Egyptian Politics Maye Kassem, 2004 The nature of personal authoritarian rule in Egypt has remained virtually unchanged for over five decades Maye Kassem traces the shaping of contemporary Egyptian politics considering why authoritarian rule has been so resilient and assessing why it has survived

The Last Shah Ray Takeyh, 2021-01-26 The surprising story of Iran's transformation from America's ally in the Middle East into one of its staunchest adversaries An original interpretation that puts Iranian actors where they belong at center stage Michael Doran Wall Street Journal An extraordinary account Deeply nuanced and eloquent Benjamin Weinthal Jerusalem Post Offering a new view of one of America's most important infamously strained and widely misunderstood relationships of the postwar era this book tells the history of America and Iran from the time the last shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi was placed on the throne in 1941 to the 1979 revolution that brought the present Islamist government to power This revolution was not as many believe the popular overthrow of a powerful and ruthless puppet of the United States rather it followed decades of corrosion of Iran's political establishment by an autocratic ruler who demanded fealty but lacked the personal strength to make hard decisions and ultimately lost the support of every sector of Iranian society Esteemed Middle East scholar Ray Takeyh provides new interpretations of many key events including the 1953 coup against Prime Minister Mohammad Mossadeq and the rise of Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini significantly revising our understanding of America and Iran's complex and difficult history

Hidden Liberalism Hussein Banai, 2020-12-10 Compared to rival ideologies liberalism has fared rather poorly in modern Iran This is all the more remarkable given the essentially liberal substance of various social and political struggles for liberal legality individual rights and freedoms and pluralism in the century long period since the demise of the Qajar dynasty and the subsequent transformation of the country into a modern nation state The deeply felt but largely invisible purchase of liberal political ideas in Iran challenges us to think more expansively about the trajectory of various intellectual developments since the emergence of a movement for reform and constitutionalism in the late nineteenth century It complicates parsimonious accounts of Shi'ism secularism socialism nationalism and royalism as defining or representative ideologies of particular eras Hidden Liberalism offers a critical examination of the reasons behind liberalism's invisible yet influential status and its attendant ethical quandaries in Iranian political and intellectual discourses

Reformers and Revolutionaries in Modern Iran Dr Stephanie Cronin, 2013-04-15 The contributors of this book undertake a fundamental reexamination and reappraisal of the phenomenon of leftist activism in Iran Iranian Intellectuals in the Twentieth Century Ali Gheissari, 2010-01-01 Since the middle of the nineteenth century Iranian intellectuals have been preoccupied by issues of political and social reform Iran's relation with the modern West and autocracy or arbitrary rule Drawing from a close reading of a broad array of primary sources this book offers a thematic account of the Iranian intelligentsia from the Constitutional movement of 1905 to the post 1979 revolution Ali Gheissari shows how in Iran as in many other countries intellectuals have been the prime mediators between the forces of tradition and modernity and have contributed significantly to the formation of the modern Iranian self image His analysis of intellectuals response to a number of fundamental questions such as nationalism identity and the relation between Islam and modern politics sheds new light on the factors that led to the Iranian Revolution the twentieth century's first major departure from Western political ideals and helps explain the complexities surrounding the reception of Western ideologies in the Middle East Women and Politics in the Islamic Republic of Iran Sanam Vakil, 2011-04-21 Iran in an Emerging New World Order Ali Fathollah-Nejad, 2021-05-22 This book critically develops and discusses Iran's geopolitical imaginations and explores its various foreign policy schools of thought and their controversies In doing so the book covers Iran's foreign policy and international relations from 9 11 all the way to Rouhani's rise late 2014 Accounting for both domestic and the international balance of power the book theorizes the post unipolar world order of the 2000s dubbed imperial interpolarity examines Iran's relations with non Western great powers in that era and offers a critique of the Rouhani doctrine and its economic and foreign policy visions Forged in the fires and intense deliberations of a PhD undertaken at a most unique institution of higher learning in the world Ali Fathollah Nejad has produced one of the most informative and evocative studies of Iran's foreign policy and international relations to date Framed in a highly original theoretical approach Ali's nuanced analysis drawing on a lorry load of primary and secondary sources details the process and context of policy in the Islamic Republic thus producing an unrivalled and lasting account of modern Iran's worldview and the behaviour of this revolutionary state in a fast changing world Anoush Ehteshami Professor of International Relations author of the forthcoming The 100 Years War for Control of the Middle East Princeton University Press 2021 Ali Fathollah Nejad has established himself as one of the most insightful observers of Iranian politics Providing the analytical background to his assessments of Tehran's foreign policy in the 21st century this book comes out opportunely at a time when a new U S administration is about to re engage with Iran Gilbert Achcar Professor of Development Studies and International Relations SOAS School of Oriental and African Studies University of London A decisive contribution to two avant gardist fields of knowledge Critical geopolitics and Iranian foreign relations Anyone interested in cutting edge research that brings together International Relations and Iranian Studies will

Class and Class Conflict in the Age of Globalization Berch Berberoglu, 2009-01-01 Dealing with a central issue of our time Class and Class Conflict in the Age of Globalization provides a critical analysis of the major theories of social class and inequality and an empirical examination of the development of social classes and class conflict on a global scale historically and today including an understanding of the process of social change and social transformation Guardians of the Revolution Ray Takeyh, 2009-05-27 For over a quarter century Iran has been one of America s chief nemeses Ever since Ayatollah Khomeini overthrew the Shah in 1979 the relationship between the two nations has been antagonistic revolutionary guards chanting against the Great Satan Bush fulminating against the Axis of Evil Iranian support for Hezbollah and President Ahmadinejad blaming the U S for the world s ills The unending war of words suggests an intractable divide between Iran and the West one that may very well lead to a shooting war in the near future But as Ray Takeyh shows in this accessible and authoritative history of Iran s relations with the world since the revolution behind the famous personalities and extremist slogans is a nation that is far more pragmatic and complex than many in the West have been led to believe Takeyh explodes many of our simplistic myths of Iran as an intransigently Islamist foe of the West Tracing the course of Iranian policy since the 1979 revolution Takeyh identifies four distinct periods the revolutionary era of the 1980s the tempered gradualism following the death of Khomeini and the end of the Iran Iraq war in 1989 the reformist period from 1997 2005 under President Khatami and the shift toward confrontation and radicalism since the election of President Ahmadinejad in 2005 Takeyh shows that three powerful forces Islamism pragmatism and great power pretensions have competed in each of these periods and that Iran s often paradoxical policies are in reality a series of compromises between the hardliners and the moderates often with wild oscillations between pragmatism and ideological dogmatism The U S s task Takeyh argues is to find strategies that address Iran s objectionable behavior without demonizing this key player in an increasingly vital and volatile region With its clear sighted grasp of both nuance and historical sweep Guardians of the Revolution will stand as the standard work on this controversial and central actor in world politics for years to come

Fundamentalisms and the State Martin E. Marty, R. Scott Appleby, 1993 This third volume of the Fundamentalism

Project provides a systematic overview of the advances made by antiseccular religious movements over the past twenty five years The distinguished contributors to this volume economists political scientists religious historians social anthropologists and sociologists focus on the impact these movements have had on national economies political parties constitutional issues and international relations on five continents and within the religious traditions of Islam Christianity Judaism Buddhism Hinduism and Sikhism Do fundamentalisms tend toward political activism and how successful have they been in remaking political structures To answer this question and others the contributors discuss the anti abortion movement in the U S the Islamic war of resistance in Afghanistan and Shiite jurisprudence in Iran Martin E Marty and R Scott Appleby conclude the volume with a synthetic statement of fundamentalist impact on politics economies and state security The Fundamentalism Project is a monumental undertaking by the American Academy of Arts and Sciences that involves an international group of scholars Taken together the volumes in this series will become a standard reference for educators and policy analysts for years to come

Secularization of Islam in Post-Revolutionary Iran Mahmoud Pargoo,2021-05-30 Examining the trajectory of the secularization of Islam in Iran this book explains how efforts to Islamize society led self destructively to its secularization The research engages a range of debates across different fields emphasizing the political and epistemological instability of the basic categories such as Islam Sharia and secularism The volume is an interdisciplinary study of both the history of Islamic revival and Khomeini s very specific merger of Islamic law and mysticism It traces back the process of secularization to the early encounter of Iranian intellectuals with Europeans and adoption of their fundamental framework in an Islamic guise The process continued until the Islamic Revolution of Iran in 1979 when Khomeini tried to substantively de secularize Iranian social imaginaries His attempts were not followed up by his followers who vigorously reinstated the previous trend after his death resulting in a polity that is mostly secular but with Islamic ornaments Bringing together area studies Iran religious studies Islam and political theory secularism this interdisciplinary volume places findings in a broader narrative that is both specific to Iran and broad enough to engage a global readership

Peace as Liberation Fatima Waqi Sajjad,2023-09-29 This edited volume highlights a type of violence largely overlooked by peace psychologists it explores epistemic violence which refers to the silencing of the marginalized racialized and colonized people in the process of knowledge production This book celebrates the voices and the agency of the subalterns honoring their visions testimonies and struggles to push boundaries and create spaces for peace within oppressive environments Visions and Praxis from below refers to peace visions and struggles of the people who live below the vital ability of shaping the world according to their own vision It is a challenge to the hegemonic perspective that credible thinking on peace can only be done by the people from above This perspective will add to the understanding of not only peace psychologists but all those who work toward social justice

Deadly Connections Daniel Byman,2005-06-27 Thousands of people have died at the hands of terrorist groups who rely on state support for their activities Iran and Syria are well known as sponsors of terrorism while other countries some with strong connections to the West have enabled terrorist activity by turning a blind eye Daniel Byman's hard hitting and articulate book analyzes this phenomenon Focusing primarily on sponsors from the Middle East and South Asia it examines the different types of support that states provide their motivations and the impact of such sponsorship The book also considers regimes that allow terrorists to raise money and recruit without providing active support The experiences of Iran Pakistan Afghanistan Syria Saudi Arabia and Libya are detailed here alongside the histories of radical groups such as al Qaida and Hizballah The book concludes by assessing why it is often difficult to force sponsors to cut ties to terrorist groups and suggesting ways in which it could be done better in the future

Jihad Gilles Kepel, 2002 Kepel has traveled throughout the Muslim world gathering documents interviews and archival materials in order to give readers a comprehensive understanding of the scope of Islamist movements their past and their present 7 maps

No Conquest, No Defeat Ariane Tabatabai, 2020 An extremely timely history of what drives Iran's security policies towards both its neighbors and its adversaries further afield

Foreign Policy of the Islamic Republic of Iran Przemyslaw Osiewicz, 2020-11-29 Providing a well balanced and impartial perspective on the foreign policy of the Islamic Republic of Iran this book contributes to a better understanding of the current foreign policy of Iran especially its internal and external determinants Combining theoretical and practical aspects it provides readers with a short analysis of Iranian foreign policy The first part is dedicated to the Pahlavi era between 1925-1979 The second consists of three chapters covering issues relating to ideological and institutional aspects of Iranian foreign policy after 1979 The last part incorporates eight case studies which best present both regional and global dimensions This comprehensive study contains a synthesis of views and opinions of commentators and scholars who often represent contradictory perspectives Serving as a key reference and starting point for further studies this book will be of interest to students and researchers studying Iranian foreign policy international relations and Middle Eastern studies

Domesticity and Consumer Culture in Iran Pamela Karimi, 2013-05-29 Examining Iran's recent history through the double lens of domesticity and consumer culture Domesticity and Consumer Culture in Iran demonstrates that a significant component of the modernization process in Iran advanced beyond political and public spheres On the cusp of Iran's entry into modernity the rules and tenets that had traditionally defined the Iranian home began to vanish and the influx of new household goods gradually led to the substantial physical expansion of the domestic milieu Subsequently architects designers and commercial advertisers shifted their attention from commercial and public architecture to the new home and its contents Domesticity and consumer culture also became topics of interest among politicians Shiite religious scholars and the Left who communicated their respective views via the popular media and numerous other means In the interim ordinary Iranian families who were capable of selectively appropriating aspects of their immediate surroundings demonstrated their resistance toward the officially sanctioned transformations Through analyzing a series of case studies that elucidate such phenomena and appraising a wide range of objects and archival documents from furnishings appliances architectural blueprints and maps to photographs films TV series novels artworks scrapbooks work logs personal letters and reports this book highlights the significance of private life in social economic and political contexts of modern Iran Tackling the subject of home from a variety of perspectives Domesticity and Consumer Culture in Iran thus shows the interplay between local aspirations foreign influences gender roles consumer culture and women s education as they intersect with taste fashion domestic architecture and interior design

Diverging Approaches of Political Islamic Thought in Iran since the 1960s Seyed Mohammad Lolaki, 2019-11-14 This book argues that Political Islam in the Iranian context evolved into three main schools of thought during the 1960s and 1970s Jurisprudential Islam led by Ayatollah Khomeini Leftist Islam led by Shariati and Liberal Islam led by Bazargan Despite the fact that all schools seek an Islamic state their chosen methods and philosophical approaches diverge considerably The synthesis of these three contrasting socio political views is structured here to provide a coherent interpretation by means of ongoing comparison This method has so far not been presented in academic studies within the field of Political Islam Furthermore this book provides a critical analysis of the aforementioned Political Islam schools in Iran their similarities and differences relative success or failure their contribution to the revolution of 1979 and how they have evolved from the pre revolution era to the present
