The Making of Literature R. A. Scott-James,1928 The Librarian and Book World ,1929 Introduction to English Literature Henry Reed,1855 Cognitive Science Foundations of Instruction Mitchell Rabinowitz,2020-02-13

This volume presents and discusses current research that makes the connection between cognitive theory and instructional application Addressing two general issues the first set of chapters specifies the relation between cognitive theory and the development and evaluation of instruction while the second set deals with the questions involved in understanding and assessing cognitive skills The outstanding feature of these chapters is that they all present in depth discussions of the theoretical issues underlying instructional decisions Many present specific implementations that provide examples of concrete applications of theory In addition the settings for implementing these examples span a broad range of instructional areas and environments illustrating the generality and transferability of the application of theory to practice

Political Theory, Science Fiction, and Utopian Literature Tony Burns,2010-02-19 Ursula K Le Guin s The Dispossessed is of interest to political theorists partly because of its association with anarchism and partly because it is thought to represent a turning point in the history of utopian dystopian political thought and literature and of science fiction Published in 1974 it marked a revival of utopianism after decades of dystopian writing According to this widely accepted view The Dispossessed represents a new kind of literary utopia which Tom Moylan calls a critical utopia The present work challenges this reading of The Dispossessed and its place in the histories of utopian dystopian literature and science fiction It explores the difference between traditional literary utopia and novels and suggests that The Dispossessed is not a literary utopia but a novel about utopianism in politics Le Guin s concerns have more to do with those of the novelists of the 19th century writing in the tradition of European Realism than they do with the science fiction or utopian literature It also claims that her theory of the novel has an affinity with the ancient Greek tragedy This implies that there is a conservatism in Le Guin s work as a creative writer or as a novelist which fits uneasily with her personal commitment to anarchism
