Making Of The Poets Byron And Shelley In Their Time:

The Making of the Poets Ian Gilmour, 2002 Both Byron and Shelley died young By the time Byron left Harrow almost half his life was over and when Shelley left Eton three fifths of his life was gone Ian Gilmour has concentrated on the two poets in their youth and has told their stories in tandem Their formative years were packed with incident and had a decisive influence on the later lives of them both As an historian Gilmour provides a colourful account of the political social and economic background to their writings Byron and Shelley lived in the stormy age of the French Revolution the Napoleonic Wars and the post Napoleon reaction They became close friends and though they are usually thought to have been very different from each other Gilmour shows that they had much more in common than is usually recognised Bloom's how to Write about the Brontës Virginia Brackett, 2009 Emily Anne and Charlotte Bronte were three sisters who left an indelible mark on the literature of their age This book offers suggestions on how to write a strong essay It helps students develop their analytical writing skills Faust Adaptations from Marlowe to Aboudoma and Markland Lorna Fitzsimmons, 2016-10-15 Faust Adaptations edited and introduced by Lorna Fitzsimmons takes a comparative cultural studies approach to the ubiquitous legend of Faust and his infernal dealings Including readings of English German Dutch and Egyptian adaptations ranging from the early modern period to the contemporary moment this collection emphasizes the interdisciplinary and transcultural tenets of comparative cultural studies Authors variously analyze the Faustian theme in contexts such as subjectivity genre politics and identity Chapters focus on the work of Christopher Marlowe Johann Wolfgang von Goethe Adelbert von Chamisso Lord Byron Heinrich Heine Thomas Mann D J Enright Konrad Boehmer Mahmoud Aboudoma Bridge Markland Andreas Gssling and Uschi Flacke Contributors include Frederick Burwick Christa Knellwolf King Ehrhard Bahr Konrad Boehmer and David G John Faust Adaptations demonstrates the enduring meaningfulness of the Faust concept across borders genres languages nations cultures and eras This collection presents innovative approaches to understanding the mediated translated and adapted figure of Faust through both culturally specific inquiry and timeless questions Men & Masculinities Michael S. Kimmel, Amy B. Aronson, 2003-12-11 The first encyclopedia to analyze summarize and explain the complexities of men s lives and the idea of modern manhood The process of making masculinity visible has been going on for over two decades and has produced a prodigious and interesting body of work But until now the subject has had no authoritative reference source Men Masculinities a pioneering two volume work corrects the oversight by summarizing the latest historical biological cross cultural psychological and sociological research on the subject It also looks at literature art and music from a gender perspective The contributors are experts in their specialties and their work is directed organized and coedited by one of the premier scholars in the field Michael Kimmel The coverage brings together for the first time considerable knowledge of men and manhood focusing on such areas as sexual violence intimacy pornography homophobia sports profeminist men rituals sexism and many other important subjects Clearly this unique reference is a valuable guide to students teachers writers policymakers journalists and others who seek a fuller understanding of gender in the United States      Exploring the Networked Worlds of Popular Music Peter Webb, 2010-06-10 This book assesses sociological and cultural attempts to theorize the worlds of popular music production It offers and develops a new theoretical matrix that can illuminate these trends in a more complex and instructive way      Frankenstein's Science Jane Goodall, 2016-12-05 Though Mary Shelley's Frankenstein has inspired a vast body of criticism there are no book length studies that contextualise this widely taught novel in contemporary scientific and literary debates The essays in this volume by leading writers in their fields provide new historical scholarship into areas of science and pseudo science that generated fierce controversy in Mary Shelley's time anatomy electricity medicine teratology Mesmerism quackery and proto evolutionary biology The collection embraces a multifaceted view of the exciting cultural climate in Britain and Europe from 1780 to 1830 While Frankenstein is all too often read as a cautionary tale of the inherent dangers of uncontrolled scientific experimentation the essays here take the reader back to a period when experimenters and radical thinkers viewed science as the harbinger of social innovation that would counter the virulent conservative backlash following the French Revolution The collection will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars specialising in Romanticism cultural history philosophy and the history of science      Fashion and Celebrity Culture Pamela Church Gibson, 2013-08-15 The interrelationship between fashion and celebrity is now a salient and pervasive feature of the media world This accessible text presents the first in depth study of the phenomenon assessing the degree to which celebrity culture has reshaped the fashion system Fashion and Celebrity Culture critically examines the history of this relationship from its growth in the 19th century to its mutation during the twentieth century to the dramatic changes that have befallen it in the last two decades It addresses the fashion celebrity nexus as it plays itself out across mainstream cinema television and music and in the celebrity status of a range of designers models and artists It explores the strategies that have enabled visual culture to recast itself in the new climate of celebrity obsession popular culture and the art world to respond adaptively to its insistent pressures With its engaging analysis and case studies from Lillian Gish to Louis Vuitton to Lady Gaga Fashion and Celebrity Culture is of major interest to students of fashion media studies film television studies and popular culture and anyone with an interest in this global phenomenon      Frankenstein's Science Christa Knellwolf King, Jane R. Goodall, 2008 Frankenstein's Science contextualizes this widely taught novel in contemporary scientific and literary debates providing new historical scholarship into areas of science and pseudo science that generated fierce controversy in Mary Shelley's time anatomy      Frankenstein Was a Vegetarian Michael Owen Jones, 2022-06-27 In Frankenstein Was a Vegetarian Essays on Food Choice Identity and Symbolism Michael Owen Jones tackles topics often overlooked in foodways At the outset he notes it was Victor Frankenstein's daemon in Mary Shelley's novel that advocated vegetarianism not the scientist whose name has long been attributed to his creature Jones explains how we communicate through what we eat the connection between food choice and who we are or want to appear to be the ways that many of us self-medicate moods with foods and the nature of disgust. He presents fascinating case studies of religious bigotry and political machinations triggered by rumored bans on pork, the last meal requests of prisoners about to be executed and the Utopian vision of Percy Bysshe Shelley, one of England's greatest poets that was based on a vegetable diet like the creature's meals in Frankenstein. Jones also scrutinizes how food is used and abused on the campaign trail, how gender issues arise when food meets politics and how eating preferences reflect the personalities and values of politicians, one of whom was elected president and then impeached twice. Throughout the book, Jones deals with food as symbol as well as analyzes the link between food choice and multiple identities. Aesthetics, morality and politics likewise loom large in his inquiries. In the final two chapters, Jones applies these concepts to overhauling penal policies and practices that make food part of the pains of imprisonment and looks at transforming the counseling of diabetes patients who number in the millions. Oxford

Dictionary of National Biography 2005-2008 Lawrence Goldman, 2013-03-07. Who made modern Britain. This book drawn from the award-winning Oxford Dictionary of National Biography tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life. Following on from the Oxford DNB's first supplement volume, noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004, this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty-first century Britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008. Here are the people responsible for major developments in national life from politics, the arts, business, technology and law to military service, sport, education, science and medicine. Many are closely connected to specific periods in Britain's recent history. From the 1950s, the young Harold Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman, for example. From the Sixties, the footballer George Best, photographer Patrick Lichfield and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett. It's hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan, who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade, or similarly Freddie Laker, pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen, who entertained with their sketch shows and sit-coms. A decade later, you probably browsed in Anita Roddick's Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson. In the 1990s, you may have hoped that things can only get better with a New Labour government which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam. Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause: Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O'Brien in journalism; Ned Sherrin in broadcasting; or indeed Ted Heath, whose political career spanned more than 50 years. Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll, who made the link between smoking and lung cancer; Cicely Saunders, creator of the hospice movement; and Chad Varah, founder of the Samaritans. With John Profumo, who gave his name to a scandal; policeman Malcolm Fewtrell, who investigated the Great Train Robbery; or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko, who was killed in London in 2006, we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past. Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades: Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson, the

PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham John DeLorean's gull wing car or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person's life story Authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of them leading figures in their field Here you will find Michael Billington on Harold Pinter Michael Crick on George Best Richard Davenport Hines on Anita Roddick Brenda Hale on Rose Heilbron Roy Hattersley on James Callaghan Simon Heffer on John Profumo Douglas Hurd on Edward Heath Alex Jennings on Paul Scofield Hermione Lee on Pat Kavanagh Geoffrey Wheatcroft on Conor Cruise O'Brien and Peregrine Worsthorne on Bill Deedes Many in this volume are naturally household names But a good number are also remembered for lives away from the headlines What in the 1980s became Thatcherism owed much to behind the scenes advice from Ralph Harris and Alfred Sherman children who learned to read with Ladybird Books must thank their creator Douglas Keen while without its first producer Verity Lambert there would have been no Doctor Who Others are ordinary people capable of remarkable acts Take for instance Arthur Bywater who over two days in 1944 cleared thousands of bombs from a Liverpool munitions factory following an explosion only to do the same months later in another factory Awarded the George Cross and the George Medal Bywater remains the only non-combatant to have received Britain's two highest awards for civilian bravery The Literary Review, 2002 The Educational Times, and Journal of the College of Preceptors, 1906 Ireland's Minstrel Linda Kelly, 2006-06-30 Features the biography of Thomas Moore describing the life and times of a great Irish writer romantic poet political satirist pioneering biographer and the creator of the Irish Melodies This work captures the charm of Whig society and casts light on his relationship with Byron

Speaking in Court Andrew Watson, 2019-03-25 This book maps the changes in court advocacy in England and Wales over the last three centuries Advocacy the means by which a barrister puts their client's case to the court and jury has grown piecemeal and at an uneven pace the result of a complex interplay of many influences Andrew Watson examines the numerous principal factors from the effect on juniors of successful styles deployed by senior advocates changes in court procedure reforms in laws determining who and what may be put before courts the amount of media reporting of court cases and public and press opinion about the acceptable limits of advocates' tactics and oratory This book also explores the extent to which juries are used in trials and the social origins of those serving on them It goes on to examine the formal teaching of advocacy which was only introduced comparatively recently arguing that this and new technology will likely exert a strong influence on future forensic oratory Speaking in Court provides a readable history of advocacy and the many factors that have shaped it and takes a far wider view of the history of advocacy than many titles analysing the 20th Century developments which are often overlooked This book will be of interest to general readers law practitioners interested in how advocacy has developed in courts of yesteryear teachers of advocacy who want to locate their subject in history and impart this to their students and to law students curious about the origins of what they are learning The History of England

During the Thirty Years' Peace: 1816-1846 Harriet Martineau, 1849      Educational Times, 1906      Sir Henry Irving Jeffrey Richards, 2007-01-20 Sir Henry Irving was the greatest actor of the Victorian age and was thought of by Gladstone as his greatest contemporary He transformed the theatre in Britain and America from a disreputable and marginal entertainment into a respected and uplifting art form This work gives an account of Irving and his impact on the Victorian theatre and life      Pragmatism Russell B. Goodman, 2020-11-25 Russell Goodman examines the curious reemergence of pragmatism in a field dominated in the past decades by phenomenology logic positivism and deconstruction With contributions from major contemporary and classical thinkers such as Cornel West Richard Rorty Nancy Fraser Charles Sanders Peirce and Ralph Waldo Emerson Russell has gathered an impressive chorus of philosophical voices that reexamine the origins and complexities of neo pragmatism The contributors discuss the relationship of pragmatism and literary theory phenomenology existentialism and the work of Ralph Waldo Emerson They question the meaning of pragmatics what it is to be practical and ask provocative questions such as what is reading and whether democracy is a precondition for the functioning of intelligence This work places this reemergent and interesting neo development in its proper context and will provide readers with a strong sense of the movement's foundations history and subtleties      The Aldine reciter, modern poetry [selected] by A.H. Miles Alfred Henry Miles, 1889      A History of English Literature: Modern times (1660-1914) by Louis Cazamian, translated from the French by W.D. MacInnes ... and the author Emile Legouis, 1927
