Making A Difference Reflections On Life Leadership And Politics:

Politics, Policy and Public Administration in Theory and Practice Andrew Podger, Michael de Percy, Sam Vincent, 2021-06-15 This festschrift celebrates the extensive contribution John Wanna has made to the research and practice of politics policy and public administration It includes both personal acknowledgements of his work and substantial essays on the issues that he focused most closely upon during his academic career budgeting and financial management politics and public policy and administration The essays address contemporary developments in public sector financial management in Australia and overseas changing political processes in Queensland and the Commonwealth and public governance and administration reform trajectories in Australia and internationally including in China A common theme is the importance of linking research to practice reflecting John Wanna's own style and contribution Essays include exploration of the interface between academia and practice including from the perspective of practitioners The authors of the essays in this volume include eminent Australian and international scholars of public administration experienced public service practitioners and younger scholars influenced by John Wanna

The Ayes Have It John Wanna, Tracey Arklay, 2010-07-01 The Ayes Have It is a fascinating account of the Queensland Parliament during three decades of high drama politics It examines in detail the Queensland Parliament from the days of the Labor split in the 1950s through the conservative governments of Frank Nicklin John Bjelke Petersen and Mike Ahern to the fall of the Nationals government led briefly by Russell Cooper in December 1989 The volume traces the rough and tumble of parliamentary politics in the frontier state The authors focus on parliament as a political forum on the representatives and personalities that made up the institution over this period on the priorities and political agendas that were pursued and the increasingly contentious practices used to control parliamentary proceedings Throughout the entire history are woven other controversies that repeatedly recur controversies over state economic development the provision of government services industrial disputation and government reactions electoral zoning and disputes over malapportionment the impost of taxation in the low tax state encroachments on civil liberties and political protests the perennial topic of censorship as well as the emerging issues of integrity concerns about conflicts of interest and the slide towards corruption There are fights with the federal government especially with the Whitlam government and internal fights within the governing coalition which eventually leads to its collapse in 1983 after which the Nationals manage to govern alone for two very tumultuous terms On the non government side the bitterness of the 1950s split was reflected in the early parliaments of this period and while the Australian Labor Party eventually saw off its rivalrous offshoot the QLP DLP it then began to implode through waves of internal factional discord

Knowledge Spillover-based Strategic Entrepreneurship João J. Ferreira, Leo-Paul Dana, Vanessa Ratten, 2016-11-03 This book is about the role of knowledge spillovers and strategic entrepreneurship in the management context It focuses on how knowledge spillovers and strategic entrepreneurship are crucial to the process of creative destruction and construction The book aims to provide insights into and discussion on how firms combine entrepreneurial action that creates new opportunities for industries regions and economies This book is first of its kind to link knowledge management perspectives to strategic entrepreneurship to understand the co creation process Being interdisciplinary in nature this book appeals to entrepreneurship and knowledge management scholars students and practitioners Australian Book Review ,2006 The Courage to Teach Guide for Reflection and Renewal Parker J. Palmer,2017-08-04 20th ANNIVERSARY EDITION The Courage to Teach Guide for Reflection Renewal is a helpful companion to Parker J Palmer s classic work on restoring identity and integrity to professional life A superb resource for those who wish to extend their exploration of the ideas in The Courage to Teach as individuals or part of a study group the Guide provides practical ways to create safe space for honest reflection and probing conversations and offers chapter by chapter questions and exercises to further explore the many insights in The Courage to Teach The bonus online content includes a 70 minute interview with Parker Palmer in which Palmer reflects on a wide range of subjects including the heart of the teacher the crisis in education diverse ways of knowing relationships in teaching and learning approaches to institutional transformation and teachers as culture heroes Discussion questions related to the topics explored in the interview have been integrated into the Guide giving individuals and study groups a chance to have a conversation with the author as well as an engagement with the text Making the Difference Andrew Duff,2011-10-31 To mark the occasion of Baroness Williams eightieth birthday in July 2010 Biteback is proud to publish a collection of essays by her peers contemporaries and proteges on the themes and issues she has campaigned on during the course of an inspirational career in politics spanning five decades Contributors include Rosie Boycott Vince Cable Menzies Campbell Germaine Greer Jeremy Greenstock Polly Toynbee Roy Hattersley Edna Healey David Owen Bill Rodgers Peter Mandelson David Steel John Major Chris Patten Tony King Helena Kennedy Charles Kennedy Peter Hennessy Richard Harries Roger Liddle Robert Reich and Crispin Tickell New Directions in Saskatchewan Public Policy David McGrane,2011 In this new scholarly compilation by David P McGrane established and emerging trends in Saskatchewan public policy are the foundation for setting new directions for the province in the 21st century In what direction should Saskatchewan be headed in the 21st century To answer this question academics from various disciplines at the University of Regina and University of Saskatchewan have come together to produce New Directions in Saskatchewan Public Policy the first edited book exclusively devoted to public policy in the province with chapters discussing taxation immigration agriculture urban affairs poverty reduction the social economy labour aging Aboriginal public administration and climate change The authors provide an analysis and description of the current policies of the Wall government and also look back to explore what the Romanow and Calvert governments did in these areas The overarching theme of the book is that despite the province s robust economic growth significant public policy challenges remain for the Saskatchewan provincial government The lesson is that economic growth does not magically solve entrenched societal problems and that economic prosperity will dissipate if worrisome social trends are left unchecked While many scholarly books shy away from prescription the authors of this book include sections in their chapters that set out new directions for policy development As such the book not only contains solid analysis of the present policy situation but also offers concrete ideas for future policy makers Women and American Politics Susan J. Carroll,2003 Women and American Politics brings together leading scholars in the field of women and politics to provide an account of recent developments and the challenges that the future brings for the study of gender and American Politics The book examines women s participation in the electoral arena and the emerging scholarship on the relationship between the media and women in politics the participation of women of colour and women s activism outside the electoral arena This volume demonstrates both the wealth of knowledge about women and American politics by the current generation of scholars and the vast number and range of important research questions which pose a challenge for the next generation
