Exploring classroom assessment practices and teacher decision-making Dennis Alonzo, Chris Davison, Chris Ann Harrison, 2023-05-25

Discourse : Event : Practice Franka Schäfer, 2025-10-14 With Discourse Event Practice the author presents a dynamic theoretical program for a discourse theoretically informed sociology of practice oriented toward the concept of the event She outlines the sociological relationship between the concepts of discourse event and practice diagnoses their distorted relationship and explains the dynamization of dichotomous

conceptions as the guiding principle of her argumentation Through a reconstruction of the discourse theoretical foundations the practical theoretical conditions the situation of the method discussion and the starting point of sociological protest research she forms the basis of the research program and marks the question of the association of discourses and practices as a gap which is elucidated using the example of protest research The core of the book is a nuanced examination of the concept of event developed from the influence of Foucault as a primary basis for transformation and translated into a concept of event that ensures a relationship between discourse and practice that overcomes dichotomies within a post structuralist materialism In addition the potential of the program lies in the expansion of practice studies to include an explicit perspective on power and domination illustrated through an analysis of the practices of resistance as exemplified by the Yippie Festival of Life

Making a Difference College and Graduate Guide Miriam Weinstein, 2000 Finally Prestigious scholarships and fellowships for doing good This is the make a difference generation and all over America high school and college students are rolling up their sleeves and devoting their time and energy to causes they believe in And like most students they could use some extra money when heading to college so why not take advantage of the many scholarships available for doing community service Making a Difference Scholarships is a unique guide written especially for caring students The guide lists distinguished scholarships awarded for social service social entrepreneur funds for young people who start their own non profits college based service scholarships and fellowships for studies such as labor peace and the environment While most scholarship guides are filled with obscure small scholarships that very few students are eligible for anyone doing community service anywhere in the U S can try for most making a difference scholarships Many of these scholarships are exceptionally large in the 5 000 to 10 000 range And winners of these awards substantially increase their chances of being admitted to the college of their choice Today s students really deserve honors for their acts of community building and environmental stewardship A wonderful gift for students who care and a great companion guide to Making a Difference College and Graduate Guide Miriam Weinstein has been active in environmental and social causes since her teens She has been publishing the Making a Difference College Guide since 1992 Weinstein is a graduate of the New College of California and lives in San Anselmo California

Reconsidering Social Constructionism Gale Miller, 2017-09-29 With the impact of social interactionist and ethnographic methodology twenty five years ago the research agenda in social problems began to shift its focus giving rise to the Social Constructionism movement The present volume and the related shorter text Constructionist Controversies review the substantial contributions made by social constructionist theorists over that period as well as recent debates about the future of the perspective These contributions redefine the purpose and central questions of social problems theory and articulate a research program for analyzing social problems as social constructions A generation of theorists has been trained in the constructionist perspective and has extended it through numerous analyses of diverse aspects of contemporary social life The debates in this volume pose fundamental questions about the major assumptions of the perspective the ways in which it is practiced and the purposes of social problems theory Their point of departure is Ibarra and Kitsuse's essay cutting new theoretical ground in calling for investigating vernacular resources especially rhetorical forms in the social problems process Contributors are forceful proponents both within and outside of the social constructionist community who take a broad array of positions on the current state of social problems theory and on the rhetorical forms that need exploring They also lay down the general lines for diverse and often competing programs for the future development of the constructionist agenda

Theism and Atheism in a Post-Secular Age Morteza

Hashemi, 2017-07-05 This book examines the post secular idea of religion for non believers The new form of unbelief which is dubbed as tourist atheism is not based on absolute rejection of religion as a dangerous illusion or mere prejudice Tourist atheists instead consider religion as a cultural heritage and a way of seeking perfection What are the origins of these new forms of atheism What are the implications of the emergence of a type of atheism which is more open toward religious teachings rituals arts and world views Hashemi argues that public intellectuals must consider that it is a sign of a post secular age in which believers and non believers go beyond mere tolerance and engage in a creative process of co practice and co working
