Making Content Comprehensible for English Language Learners Jana Echevarría, Mary Ellen Vogt, Deborah Short, 2000 This book is an invaluable resource for training educators to work effectively with English language learners It presents a model of sheltered instruction the Sheltered Instruction Observation Protocol SIOP which provides school administrators teachers teacher candidates and university field experience supervisors with a tool for observing and quantifying a teacher's implementation of quality sheltered instruction Making Content Comprehensible presents a coherent specific field tested model of sheltered instruction that specifies the features of a high quality sheltered lesson that teaches content material to English language learners Each of the 30 items from the SIOP model are illustrated through vignettes Three different lessons for each item are rated and discussed allowing the book to be applied to a variety of content areas Making Content Comprehensible for English Learners Jana Echevarria, Mary Ellen Vogt, Deborah and grade levels Short, 2004 Like no other text on the market Making Content Comprehensible presents an empirically validated model of sheltered instruction This text contains the Sheltered Instruction Observation Protocol SIOP model which provides school administrators staff developers teachers teacher candidates university faculty and field experience supervisors with a tool for observing and quantifying a teacher's implementation of quality sheltered instruction New to This Edition A new additional chapter addresses the issue of English learners who are struggling readers and or students with disabilities by including detailed information about learning disabilities and delayed development in reading Ch 10 Revised vignettes present teaching scenarios where three teachers teaching the same grade level and content attempt to include the focal SIOP indicators with varying degrees of success Complete lesson descriptors allow readers to score the three teaching scenarios and help readers develop a degree of inter rater reliability New pedagogy Each chapter contains A graphic organizer that provides an overview of the chapter Background Sections that include descriptions of the 8 sections and 30 indicators of the SIOP to help readers plan and prepare effective sheltered lessons Background Discussion Questions appropriate for portfolio development in pre service and graduate classes for professional development workshops or for reflection The new larger trim size facilitates using in the classroom the SIOP long and short versions and the lesson plan forms and rating the vignettes Includes both the full SIOP and an abbreviated version for the reader s use Two different SIOP lesson plan formats that can be used for planning and preparation depending on your needs An Appendix contains the results of studies that demonstrate that English learners whose teachers used the SIOP model outperformed similar students whose teachers did not implement the model Making Content Comprehensible is very practical and right on target for strategies in the field of ELLs Professor Gerald McCain Southern Oregon University What clearly distinguishes Making Content Comprehensible from others in the field is that it provides an easy to use powerful field tested protocol for effective lesson planning delivery and assessment Professor Karen L Newman Indiana University The strength of Making Content Comprehensible is the clear picture it provides of instruction and the teaching scenarios The discussion of the teaching techniques and evaluation of each of the three teachers provides invaluable examples for the student Professor Judith B O Loughlin New Jersey City University Author Bios Dr Jana Echevarria is Chair of the Department of Educational Psychology Administration and Counseling at California State University Long Beach Formerly she was a professor of Special Education Her professional experience includes elementary and secondary teaching in special education ESL and bilingual programs She has lived in Taiwan and Mexico where she taught ESL and second language acquisition courses at the university level as well as in Spain where she conducted research on instructional programs for immigrant students After receiving a Masters Degree in Bilingual Special Education from California State University Long Beach she received her Ph D from UCLA and was one of the recipients of the National Association for Bilingual Education's Outstanding Dissertations Competition Her research and publications focus on effective instruction for language minority students particularly those with learning disabilities Mary Ellen Vogt is Professor and Director of Graduate Studies in Reading at California State University Long Beach Prior to her work at the university she was a reading specialist a the school and district levels Dr Vogt is a past president of the California Reading Association and served on the Board of Directors of the International Reading Association She has authored chapters and articles in professional journals and texts and has co authored five books including Portfolios in Teacher Education 1996 International Reading Association Professional Portfolio Models 1998 Christopher Gordon Creativity and Innovation in Content Area Teaching 2000 Christopher Gordon and Making Content Comprehensible for English Language Learners The SIOP Model 2000 Allyn Bacon Dr Vogt is also an author of two K 8 reading series published by Houghton Mifflin Invitations to Literacy and a Legacy of Literacy She has been inducted into the California Reading Hall of Fame and in 1999 she received the Distinguished Faculy Teaching Award from her university Deborah J Short directs the Language Education and Academic Development division at the Center for Applied Linguistics in Washington DC She conducts school based research on sheltered instruction and on effective programs for English language learners She helped develop the national ESL standards Her PhD specialization is bilingual multicultural education Making Content Comprehensible for English Learners Jana Echevarria, Mary Ellen Vogt, Deborah J. Short, 2012-05 The aim of this series is to bring together important recent writings in major areas of philosophical inquiry selected from a variety of sources mostly periodicals which may not be conveniently available to the university student or the general reader The editor of each volume contributes an introductory essay on the items chosen and on the questions with which they deal A selective bibliography is appended as a guide to further reading

The newest addition to the successful Oxford Readings in Philosophy series The Philosophy of Science contains the most important contributions to the recent philosophical debate on the authority of scientific theory. The contributors ask whether we are justified in believing scientific theories and what attitude we should take to them if we are not Although few philosophers seriously question the existence of everyday objects like trees and tables many have real doubts about viruses electrons and gravitational waves Thelast two decades have seen important new work in the philosophy of science stimulated by sceptical attitudes towards scientific theories Scientific realist have in turn countered with arguments of their own resulting in a wide ranging debate drawing from many different philosophical disciplines The Philosophy of Science bridges the gap between both sides of the argument including articles on different species of realism and anti realism the underdetermination of theory by evidence the lessons of the history of science naturalized epistemology of science and Bayesian methodology Making Content Comprehensible for Secondary English Learners Jana Echevarría, Mary Ellen J. Vogt, Deborah J. Short, 2014 Making Content Comprehensible for Secondary English Learners The SIOP Model is written to give middle and secondary school teachers lesson plans teaching ideas and many effective activities for working successfully with adolescents who are English learners or who struggle with academic literacy Several sample lessons and activities show the alignment of the SIOP Model to the Common Core State Standards CCSS Based on research that confirms that the SIOP Model Sheltered Instruction Observation Protocol makes a positive difference academically for all students and what works well for English learners will work equally well with other students the book is ideal both for teachers who are already familiar with the SIOP Model and those who are just learning about it It gives educators a model for planning and implementing lessons that help the English learners in their charge gain access to grade level content standards and ultimately prepare them for life after high school in college or a career New with the Second Edition is an accompanying online resource site PDToolkit for SIOP The new website includes SIOP Research SIOP Resources SIOP Lesson Plans and Activities SIOP Videos To learn more please visit http pdtoolkit pearson com Making Content Comprehensible for English Learners + Pearson Etext Access Card Jana J.
