Competing Devotions Mary Blair-Loy,2009-07 The wrenching decision facing successful women who must choose between demanding careers and intensive family lives has been the subject of many articles and books most of which propose strategies for resolving the dilemma Competing Devotions focuses on broader social and cultural forces that create women s identities and shape their understanding of what makes life worth living Mary Blair Loy examines the career paths of women financial executives who have tried various approaches to balancing career and family These mavericks who face great resistance but are aided by new ideological and material resources that come with historical change may eventually redefine both the nuclear family and the capitalist firm in ways that reduce work family conflict Table of Contents Introduction 1 The Devotion to Work Schema 2 The Devotion to Family Schema 3 Reinventing Schemas Creating Part Time Careers 4 Reinventing Schemas Family Life among Full Time Executive Women 5 Turning Points 6 Implications Appendix Methods and Data Notes References Acknowledgments Index Many professional women intuit that male colleagues whose spouse handle for them the details of everyday life are favored in the workplace Blair Loy confirms this intuition and shows us how it happens She captures how the cultural schemas of family devotion and work devotion contribute to the reproduction of gender inequality and how meeting the demands of a husband's job and other people's needs push professional women to progressively abandon their work to take care of others Her analysis also gives us hope by comparing the fate of pre and post baby boomers This is both an important scholarly contribution and a book that will help readers think differently about their lives It should be required reading for professional women who aspire to maintain multidimensional lives Michèle Lamont author of The Dignity of Working Men Morality and the Boundaries of Race Class and Immigration This is a fascinating book with an important message Blair Loy's findings are surprising She challenges conventional viewpoints She is on to something really new when she writes about not only the interplay between cultural norms and individual actions and institutional structures but on the cultural schemas that evoke deep emotional resonances An outstanding book Cynthia Fuchs Epstein author of Deceptive Distinctions Sex Gender and the Social Order Mary Blair Loy's book transcends old debates about work and family by examining the women who have beaten the odds and risen to the top Her detailed examination of careers and strategies perfectly complements her subtle analysis of the schemas and visions these women have for their lives Blair Loy has given us not only a splendid view into a little known world but also a new way of understanding the dynamic interplay of work and family Looking beyond the static conflict we have studied so much she shows how creative women put traditional schemas of family and work into a mutual transformation to build for themselves a new and more livable world Andrew Abbott author of Time Matters

Family Devotions Neil M. Phelan, Jr., 2005-06-14 Devotional material has always been of immeasurable value to God's people Spurgeons Morning and Evening has encouraged many a pilgrim as they prepared for their day and sought comfort on their pillow at night We do not aspire to this caliber of thought or experience yet we feel a burden for the same work One reason is because there is always a need for contemporary authors people who live and breathe in this present world who may be identified as a living brother and companion in tribulation Another reason has given equal force to vent our hearts in written form There was once a day when families gathered together to discuss religious topics It was by those discussions however brief and unstructured they may have been that children became aware of their parents faith and ultimately their God Today we live in a busy world With computers television VCR's CD's and a world of entertainment at our fingertips this opportunity of teaching has become all but extinct Gadgets noise and electronics stifle familial communication Granted children may know that their parents believe in God because they go to church yet the dynamics of personal interactions between parent and child is all but lost Thus we come to this final reason for this collection of articles To give the parent some short meditations to enjoy personally and ultimately share with their family and children Our homilies are for the most part a condensed version of messages delivered to our congregation Surely if they were given us by the Chief Shepherd for the feeding of the gathered flock they will be beneficial to other sheep which are not of our immediate fold For your benefit we have included some helpful hints for parents at the conclusion of each devotion
