Metamorphosis Simone Matlock-Phillips, 2003-11 The experiences that Ms Matlock Phillips had with the students in her first classroom taught her to consider their needs and the environments that they came from when teaching. Administration and mentoring teachers were not able to help her to learn the individual need of her students. She developed meaningful relationships with each and every one of her students because she was able to understand why they behaved in the ways that they did. In other words Ms Matlock learned to respect the values that her students had learned about life and survival and developed teaching strategies that corresponded to their life lessons.

Christian Education Robert E. Clark, Lin Johnson, Allyn K. Sloat, 1991-10-22 Whether in the home or in the church or in a Christian school the challenge of contemporary Christian educators is to meet the academic needs of students while remaining unwavering in adherence to biblical principles Christian Education Foundations for the Future introduces you to the basics of a healthy Christian education program then takes you beyond showing you how to develop a fresh innovative Christian education program that will revitalize your church home or school

Effective Classroom Management ,1985 Educator Or Bully? Marie Menna Pagliaro,2011-08-25 Educator or Bully offers a comprehensive approach to classroom management for both novice and veteran teachers who are interested in examining their current classroom management performance especially with respect to how it reflects the characteristics of the 21st century classroom Practices presented are based on sound educational theory There is an emphasis on the responsibility the student should have in successful classroom management Part I covers the guidelines that deal with everyday classroom management interactions with a focus on contemporary approaches These chapters discuss preventive measures followed by reactive procedures that teachers can implement once problems have occurred Punishment and logical consequences are distinguished and educative techniques in handling misbehavior are demonstrated Part I concludes with a thorough consideration regarding how to organize and maintain the physical classroom environment and how to prepare for the beginning of school Part II reviews students through teacher centered strategies systems to deal with diverse classroom needs These strategies are tailored so that the least intrusive to those in which the teacher has more control reflect 21st century attributes
