Making Place Making Self Travel Subjectivity And Sexual Difference:

Making Place, Making Self Inger Birkeland, 2017-03-02 Making Place Making Self explores new understandings of place and place making in late modernity covering key themes of place and space tourism and mobility sexual difference and subjectivity Using a series of individual life stories it develops a fascinating polyvocal account of leisure and life journeys These stories focus on journeys made to the North Cape in Norway the most northern point of mainland Europe which is both a tourist destination and an evocation of a reliable and secure point of reference an idea that gives meaning to an individual's life The theoretical core of the book draws on an interweaving of post Lacanian versions of feminist psychoanalytical thinking with phenomenological and existential thinking where place making is linked with self making and homecoming By combining such ground breaking theory with her innovative use of case studies Inger Birkeland here provides a major contribution to the fields of cultural geography tourism and feminist studies Travel Writing Carl Thompson, 2011-05-16 Concise and practical Travel Writing is the ideal introduction for those new to the subject as well as a crucial overview of the terminology history and debates within the field Momentous Mobilities Noel B. Salazar, 2018-07-20 Grounded in scholarly analysis and personal reflection and drawing on a multi sited and multi method research design Momentous Mobilities disentangles the meanings attached to temporary travels and stays abroad and offers empirical evidence as well as novel theoretical arguments to develop an anthropology of mobility Both focusing specifically on how various societies and cultures imagine and value boundary crossing mobilities elsewhere and drawing heavily on his own European lifeworld the author examines momentous travels abroad in the context of education work and spiritual quests and the search for a better quality of life Arctic Modernities Heidi Hansson, Anka Ryall, 2018-01-23 Less tangible than melting polar glaciers or the changing social conditions in northern societies the modern Arctic represented in writings visual images and films has to a large extent been neglected in scholarship and policy making However the modern Arctic is not only a natural environment dramatically impacted by human activities It is also an incongruous amalgamation of exoticized indigenous tradition and a mundane everyday The chapters in this volume examine the modern Arctic from all these perspectives They demonstrate to what extent the processes of modernization have changed the discursive signification of the Arctic They also investigate the extent to which the traditions of heroic Arctic images whether these traditions are affirmed contested or repudiated have continued to shape influence and inform modern discourses Sometimes the Arctic is seen as synonymous with modernity itself Sometimes it appears as a utopian space signalling a different future However it still often represents the continued survival within modernity of the past as nostalgia longing dream and myth Disruptive Tourism and its Untidy Guests S. Veijola, J. Germann Molz, Olli Pyyhtinen, E. Hockert, Alexander Grit, Jennie Germann Molz, Emily Höckert, 2014-09-30 This book invokes the radical potentialities of untidiness to envision alternative arrangements of social life and hospitality Instead of trying to manage sustainability or tidy up tourist situations the authors embrace the messiness of human relations and argue for more creative embodied and ethical ontologies of tourism and mobility Tourism and Geographies of Inequality

Granås,2016-04-15 The Northern peripheries of Europe which are covered by this book are associated with remoteness the frontier isolated communities colonialism and resource extraction Recently huge projects in petroleum and hydropower have been located there and the region has become better known as an attractive tourist destination Although these spaces are perceived as being marginal they are inhabited and linked into globalization and international agendas This book examines how people live in such remote spaces in an emerging global world of connectivity interdependency mobility and non linear dynamics The various case studies examine a wide range of experiences ranging from tourists and local settlers to those who migrate for labour in old or new industries or to pursue the hybrid urban rural life of the periphery In this book mobility and place come together The analyses demonstrate how mobility and place mutually constitute each other and how specific relationships between the two aspects are crucial in the making of societies The authors study attempts to reinvent places together with connections and the opening of new scapes in order to sustain businesses municipalities and people s livelihood Multivocality in World Heritage Inger Birkeland,Steffen F. Johannessen,Guro Nordby,Benjamin

Richards,2025-06-06 This book examines multivocality in 21st century World Heritage management through an in depth interdisciplinary exploration of the complexity and plurality of voices on the ground at a specific World Heritage site offering new perspectives and insights into the established inherent tension between change and heritage conservation Through an interdisciplinary approach the book presents a rich variety of cases grounded in a single World Heritage site to provide new insights and perspectives on World Heritage as complex local phenomena entangled in global processes Multivocality and constant change are fundamental to all societies and must therefore be emphasised and also applied to World Heritage sites including the UNESCO site under scrutiny in this volume The Rjukan Notodden Industrial Heritage Site in Southern Norway If World Heritage is to promote shared commitments to both conservation and principles of sustainability the concept of conservation must acknowledge and accommodate change Bringing together academic approaches from different disciplines this edited volume addresses this pressing issue by paying serious attention to local complexities and multiple perspectives on the ground The cases presented demonstrate the relevance of applying a broader sense of multivocality to improve practices in World Heritage management policymaking planning and governance Multivocality emerges as a perspective attentive to diversity and complexity questioning reductionism and challenging monocultural thinking in global World Heritage management while supporting a more democratic multitude of voices in World Heritage sites both human and more than human This book will be of interest to researchers and students in the multidisciplinary field of heritage heritage policymakers and bureaucrats international advisory bodies to UNESCO as well as managers at different levels in the World Heritage arena isolating authors in terms of geography reinforces the primacy of the nation Upstone instead illuminates the power of spatial locales such as the journey city home and body to enable personal or communal statements of resistance against colonial prejudice and its neo colonial legacies While focusing on the major texts of Wilson Harris Toni Morrison and Salman Rushdie in relation to particular spatial locations Upstone offers a wide range of examples from other postcolonial authors including Michael Ondaatje Keri Hulme J M Coetzee Arundhati Roy Tsitsi Dangarembga and Abdulrazak Gurnah The result is a strong case for what Upstone terms the postcolonial spatial imagination independent of geography though always fully contextualised Written in accessible and unhurried prose Upstone s study is marked by its respect for the ways in which the writers themselves resist not only geographical boundaries but academic categorisation
