Gustav Klaus, Valentine Cunningham, 2016-04-29 Premised on the belief that a social and an ecological agenda are compatible this collection offers readings in the ecology of left and radical writing from the Romantic period to the present While early ecocriticism tended to elide the bitter divisions within and between societies recent practitioners of ecofeminism environmental justice and social ecology have argued that the social the economic and the environmental have to be seen as part of the same process Taking up this challenge the contributors trace the origins of an environmental sensibility and of the modern left to their roots in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries charting the ways in which the literary imagination responds to the political industrial and agrarian revolutions Topics include Samuel Taylor Coleridge s credentials as a green writer the interaction between John Ruskin s religious and political ideas and his changing view of nature William Morris and the Garden City movement H G Wells and the Fabians the devastated landscapes in the poetry and fiction of the First World War and the leftist pastoral poetry of the 1930s In historicizing and connecting environmentally sensitive literature with socialist thought these essays explore the interactive vision of nature and society in the work of writers ranging from William Wordsworth and John Clare to John Berger and John Burnside The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 1, 600-1660 George Watson, Ian Roy Willison, 1974-08-29 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 1 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Legal Bibliography ... ,1903 Catalogue of the Parliamentary Library of South Australia South Australia.
