My Years Journey:

My 15 Year Journey in Africa Sister Mary Angelita Molina Osf,2010-06 In this book Sister Angelita tells her story of those 15 years in Nigeria Sister Angelita did all this missionary activity while constantly begging for prayers and financial support to carry on her work Her love of God shines through in everything that Sister Angelita accomplished During her worst tribulations and there were many her constant prayer was God is Good Indeed each of the stories Angelita relates in her little book radiates her dependence on Divine Providence The chapters show how God worked through her to ease the afflictions of body soul and spirit of the people she loved so much Because of her their lives became a little more bearable This little dynamo of a person never takes no for an answer When the going gets tough she works all the harder to accomplish her objectives I know of no one with a more determined spirit Sister Angelita and I have known each other for 45 years and this is my testimony to a woman of God who radiates the words of Jesus Live in Me as I do in you those who live in Me and I in them will bear much fruit John 14 4 5 Sarah E Wellinger Longtime Friend

A Young Widow's Twenty-Year Journey Carol Goldblum Nathenson,2022-01-20 Chronicling my journey as a young widow has been an emotional and cathartic experience It was my goal to write a memoir of my experiences that would provide hope for others in a similar situation I described how fortunate my daughters and I were to be surrounded by so many friends and family We experienced the true meaning of the phrase It takes a village It was excruciatingly difficult to lose my husband at a young age but throughout the years the pain and loss became manageable Meeting a new partner and ultimately remarrying was wonderful but presented its own set of challenges in blending families It was difficult to handle and cope with these events at the time but thankfully with a lot of perseverance and love we overcame these challenges Nothing in life is easy but remaining steadfast and committed to making relationships work proved to be successful for us We weathered a lot of storms and bumps in the road and are thankful to be able to enjoy our growing family
