Myanmar in the Fifteenth Century Michael A. Aung-Thwin, 2017-05-31 When the great kingdom of Pagan declined politically in the late thirteenth and early fourteenth centuries its territory devolved into three centers of power and a period of transition occurred Then two new kingdoms arose the First Ava Dynasty in Upper Myanmar and the First Pegu Dynasty in Lower Myanmar Both originated around the second half of the fourteenth century reached their pinnacles in the fifteenth and declined before the first half of the sixteenth century was over Their story is the only missing piece in Myanmar s mainstream historiography a gap this book is designed to fill Renowned historian Michael Aung Thwin reconstructs the chronology of this nearly two hundred year period while challenging a number of long held beliefs Contrary to conventional histories he contends that Ava was the continuation of an old kingdom Pagan led by its traditional ethno linguistic group the Burmese speakers while Pegu was a new kingdom led by more recent arrivals the Mon speakers Although both kingdoms shared many cultural components of the classical Pagan tradition Ava was inland and agrarian while Pegu was maritime and commercial so that each was shaped by very different geopolitical and economic environments In that difference rests the dynamism of their upstream downstream relationship which thereafter became a regular historical pattern in Myanmar history represented today by inland Naypyidaw and coastal Yangon Original in conception and impressive in scope this well written book not only fills in the history of early modern Myanmar but places it in a broad
