Myself Among Others:

Myself Among Others George Wein, Nate Chinen, 2009-02-18 No one has had a better seat in the house than George Wein. The legendary impresario has known the most celebrated figures of music in general and jazz in particular from Duke Ellington to Ella Fitzgerald to Miles Davis to Frank Sinatra. As a founder of the Newport Jazz Festival, the Newport Folk Festival, and the New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Festival, Wein has brought a dazzling spectrum of musicians to millions of fans, forever changing the musical landscape. In this highly praised memoir, Wein looks back on his life and career, describing his unforgettable relationships, sometimes smooth, sometimes tempestuous, with the great musicians he has known. From what really happened when Charlie Mingus visited the White House to how Miles Davis and the ensemble that would eventually record the greatest jazz album of all time, Kind of Blue, came together at Wein's Storyville nightclub to the day at Newport when Bob Dylan first went electric, here are the personalities and forces that have shaped the past half century of popular music.

Other Me Antonio Almas, 2021-03-26 And then it came the time for silence. It had to come one day because too many words disorders the mind; too much talking exhausts your head, overwhelms your senses, and strays you from what's essential. I know that I attempted to run that I couldn't accept loneliness and the absence of noise. I struggled to keep myself among others, to be like them, to have lots of friends to go to, lots of parties and feel lots of joy, but that was not who I was. I was a tiny, quiet person who always wanted to be on their own, shut into their own world in silence, hidden inside their own brain. I never had the hang for being public, even though I had such ability for argumentation. When I first started in the political arts, I felt uncomfortable with all the lies, the need for constantly being under the sight of the people, under the scrutiny of others. I was never into being scrutinized. Not sure if it's for fear, although yes, I've always been afraid of everything, of being wimpy, of not being as good as the others. I always use others in a comparative way, after all, that's the way it is: we're always pointing out differences between ones and others, fighting to surpass the others instead of helping each other. In sum, a young one with inferiority complexes can only grow into an adult filled with insecurity, who, besides their obstinacy for an independent life and paying your own bills, has left behind a few fragilities which apparently weren't so evident though equally serious as serious as those of who could not be in charge of building a solid, stable life.

Mythical Me Richella Parham, 2019-10-22 Do you ever find yourself stuck in the comparison trap? Speaker and author Richella Parham knows what this feels like, often finding herself admiring one person's achievements, someone else's personality, another's skills, yet another's relationships or appearance. While there are no easy answers, Parham helps readers pick up practices that help us walk in the freedom of Christ with confidence in ourselves.

Born to Play Thomas P. Hustad, 2012-05-03 Jazz trombonist Jack Teagarden once referred to Ruby Braff as the Ivy League's Louis Armstrong. That legacy of great trumpet performance and recording is brought to readers in Thomas Hustad's Born to Play: The Ruby Braff Discography and Directory of Performances. Braff's uncompromising standards, musical taste, and creative imagination informed his consummate artistry.

in creating music beautifully played He achieved swiftly what few musicians accomplish in a lifetime by developing a unique and immediately recognizable style For a reminder of that we need but play any of the more than 150 released recordings on which he appears These records span a total of 54 years from 1949 to 2002 a feat almost unmatched in jazz recording This was five years longer than even Louis Armstrong Although prepared in discographical style capturing information about both commercial recordings and previously undocumented performances Born to Play serves as a biography of the artist detailing the path he paved as a performer and featuring personal recollections of his musical career with commentary from other figures Images over the course of his half century of playing fill out this comprehensive survey of Bruff's performing and recording career This bio discography of the man who jazz drumming legend Buddy Rich declared one of my favorite trumpeters and singing giant Tony Bennett described as my great friend who now holds the reigning position of the best cornet player in the world is sure to be of interest to jazz fans and scholars alike

A Dictionary of the Otchipwe Language, Explained in English Frederic Baraga, 1882 Maurice Merleau-Ponty: Basic Writings Thomas

Baldwin, 2004-02-24 Merleau Ponty was a pivotal figure in twentieth century French philosophy He was responsible for bringing the phenomenological methods of the German philosophers Husserl and Heidegger to France and instigated a new wave of interest in this approach His influence extended well beyond the boundaries of philosophy and can be seen in theories of politics psychology art and language This is the first volume to bring together a comprehensive selection of Merleau Ponty's writing Sections from the following are included The Primacy of Perception The Structure of Behaviour The Phenomenology of Perception The Prose of the World The Visible and the Invisible Sense and Non Sense The Adventures of the Dialectic In a substantial critical introduction Thomas Baldwin provides a critical discussion of the main themes of Merleau Ponty's philosophy connecting it to subsequent philosophical debates and setting it in the context of the ideas of Bergson Husserl Heidegger and Sartre Each text is also prefaced with an explanation which sets it in its context in Merleau Ponty's work and there are extensive suggestions for further reading to enable students to pursue the issues raised by Merleau Ponty Thus the book provides the ideal materials for students studying Merleau Ponty for the first time

Sinatra James Kaplan, 2016-10-25 One of the Best Books of the Year The Washington Post Los Angeles Times Milwaukee Journal Sentinel The story of Frank Sinatra's second act Sinatra finds the Chairman on top of the world riding high after an Oscar victory and firmly reestablished as the top recording artist of his day Following Sinatra from the mid 1950s to his death in 1998 Kaplan uncovers the man behind the myth revealing by turns the peerless singer the sometimes powerful actor the business mogul the tireless lover and of course the close associate of the powerful and infamous It was in these decades that the enduring legacy of Frank Sinatra was forged and Kaplan vividly captures Ol Blue Eyes in his later years The sequel to the New York Times best selling Frank here is the concluding volume of the definitive biography of The Entertainer of the Century
