The Mystery of Death Ladislaus Boros, 2020-04-21 What precisely happens at the time of death is a question that theologians have struggled over for centuries but have never answered satisfactorily The response to this question that Ladislaus Boros gives in his monumental synthesis The Mystery of Death is that in death we meet Christ fully for the first time and in doing so attain to full consciousness and freedom It is therefore only in the moment of death that humans are able to elect for or against their eternal salvation In other words death is a kind of judgment day but it is we ourselves who pass judgment on ourselves In her introduction and commentary Cynthia Bourgeault argues passionately that Ladislaus Boros represents a necessary link to understanding the radical theology of Teilhard de Chardin She presents Boros as a powerful potential bridgebuilder Standing firmly on the shoulders of his celebrated Jesuit mentor Karl Rahner and highly skilled in the scholastic discourse that Teilhard himself eschewed he is able to mediate an illuminating dialogue between Teilhard and the greater Christian theological tradition not as is so often the case in so much of contemporary Teilhardian scholarship by secularizing Teilhard's thought or draping it in current evolutionary jargon but by piercing to the very marrow of Teilhard's Christic mysticism and carrying it to an even more brilliant degree of spiritual luminosity
