Mysticism And The Institutional Crisis Concilium 1994 4:

Foucault, Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue Henrique Pinto, 2020-11-25 Foucault Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue develops a new model for interfaith dialogue using the work of the French historian of ideas Michel Foucault The author argues that it is the injustice done to the Other by Roman Catholic Protestant and other centred and unitary models of religious pluralism that allows the introduction of Foucault's de-centring of transcendence and human reason as an alternative model for understanding religious diversity and the role it ought to play in the constitution of the self and the making of society This Foucaultian approach provides a new direction for interfaith dialogue in the modern world and leads to an ethical rather than a nihilistic position while fostering a non-unitary theology of religious pluralism and an open textured process of self-transformation The author's original and imaginative application and expansion of Foucault's concept of the More from The Archaeology of Knowledge 1969 makes important and original contributions to academic work on Foucault and contemporary theology

Michel Foucault and Theology James Bernauer, 2017-03-02 Whilst Foucault's work has become a major strand of postmodern theology the wider relevance of his work for theology still remains largely unexamined Foucault both engages the Christian tradition and critically challenges its disciplinary regime Michel Foucault and Theology brings together a selection of essays by leading Foucault scholars on a variety of themes within the history thought and practice of theology Revealing the diverse ways that the work of Michel Foucault 1926-1984 has been employed to rethink theology in terms of power discourse sexuality and the politics of knowledge the authors examine power and sexuality in the church in late antiquity Castelli Clark Schuld raise questions about the relationship between theology and politics Bernauer Leezenberg Caputo consider new challenges to the nature of theological knowledge in terms of Foucault's critical project Flynn Cutrofello Beadoin Pinto and rethink theology in terms of Foucault's work on the history of sexuality Carrette Jordan Mahon This book demonstrates for the first time the influence and growing importance of Foucault's work for contemporary theology

The Beginning and the End of 'Religion' Nicholas Lash, 1996-06-28 The common view that religion is something quite separate from politics art science law and economics is one that is peculiar to modern Western culture In this book Professor Lash argues that we should begin to question seriously that viewpoint the modern world is ending and we are now in a position to discover new forms of ancient wisdom which have been obscured from view These essays explore this idea in a number of directions examining the dialogue between theology and science the secularity of Western culture and questions of Christian hope Part One examines the dialogue between Christianity and Hinduism while Part Two considers the relations between theology and science the secularity of Western culture and questions of Christian hope or eschatology

Between the 'Mysticism of Politics' and the 'Politics of Mysticism' David Ranson, 2013-08-31 Between the Politics of Mysticism and the Mysticism of Politics traces the dialectic of the mystical and the political from both a theological and an historical perspective It presents the dialectic as a hermeneutic for the rise of the new ecclesial communities within the Roman Catholic Tradition and suggests it as the framework by which a trajectory for Christian holiness might emerge in the 21st century

Risking the Church Richard Lennan, 2004-10-14 As a consequence of numerous social and theological movements over the last few decades the Roman Catholic Church finds itself in a situation that some have described as a state of peril This book traces the emergence of that peril develops a systematic ecclesiology that identifies both the mission and resources of the Church in the present day and explores possible responses to some of the specific challenges facing the contemporary Church The book develops an understanding of the Catholic tradition in order to highlight its potential for development

A World Transfigured Philip Sheldrake, 2022-10-15 In A World Transfigured The Mystical Journey Philip Sheldrake demonstrates the importance of the mystical dimension of religious belief and practice Using the words of the great theologian Karl Rahner Sheldrake makes the case that the Christian of the future will be either a mystic or nothing at all In our contemporary world this judgment applies equally to other religions as well After chapters on the meaning of mysticism and the connection between mysticism and beliefs Sheldrake describes important dimensions of mystical writings illustrated by a range of examples These are Love and Desire Knowing and Unknowing Wonder and Beauty Mysticism and Everyday Practice and The Mystic as Radical Prophet Finally the book briefly explores why mysticism fascinates so many people in our modern times

The Mystical and Prophetic Thought of Simone Weil and Gustavo Gutiérrez Alexander Nava, 2001-11-01 Brings together the thought of liberation theologian Gustavo Gutiérrez and Christian philosopher Simone Weil to present a unique vision that can speak of both the reality of suffering and the desire for mystical experience

The Mystery and the World Maria Clara Bingemer, 2017-02-23 In The Mystery and the World Maria Clara Bingemer explores how the place of religion in society has dramatically shifted since the Enlightenment The modern era is characterised by a major change in humanity's fundamental desires that means that reason has taken the place of faith Human beings in their ongoing search for a scientific understanding of the world have drifted away from seeking any essence of transcendence in their lives Bingemer examines this transition and how especially in the postmodern era it has led to technology and superficial happiness becoming all important as opposed to the more sacred sense of contentment that governed us for centuries prior to the Enlightenment In her discussion however Bingemer demonstrates that we as humans have not lost our innate desire to believe in a higher power and that even in our world of instant satisfaction we still need to fill the void left by religion Through well researched analysis of the modern era and discussion of some of the mystics of more recent times she reveals to readers how our religious belief whilst changed is not dead and is still an important aspect of our existence Gendering Global Transformations Chima J. Korieh, Philomina E Okeke-Ihejirika, 2008-11-19 The authors collected in Gendering Global Transformations Gender Culture Race and Identity probe the effects of global and local forces in reshaping notions of gender race class identity human rights and community across Africa and its Diaspora The essays in this unique collection employ diverse interdisciplinary approaches drawing from subjects such as history sociology religion anthropology gender studies feminist studies in an effort to centralize gender as a category of analysis in developing critical perspectives in a globalizing world From this approach come a host of exciting insights and subtle analyses that serve to illuminate the effects of issues such as international migration globalization and cultural continuities among diaspora communities on the articulation of women s agency community organization and identity formation at the local and the global level Bringing together the voices of scholars from Africa Europe and the United States Gendering Global Transformations Gender Culture Race and Identity offers a multi national and wholly original perspective on the intricacies of life in a globalized era
