Lindsay Kaplan, 2019 M Lindsay Kaplan expands the study of the history of racism through an analysis of the medieval Christian concept of Jewish servitude Developed through exegetical readings of Biblical figures in canon law this discourse produces a racial status of hereditary inferiority that justifies the subordination not only of Jews but of Muslims and Africans as well A History of Polish Christianity Jerzy Kloczowski, 2000-09-14 This is a single volume history of Christianity in Poland a subject at the core of religious history and European secular history alike The book covers the development of Polish Christianity from the tenth century to the year 2000 placing it in the broader context of East Central European political social religious and cultural history Jewish Christian relations and the problematic religious history of the Jews in the region play an important part in the story and there are pervasive references to countries historically linked to Poland such as Lithuania Belarus and the Ukraine Jerzy Kloczowski shows how the history of Poland and Polish Christianity are embedded in the complex systems of relations with other countries and religious denominations A History of Polish Christianity should be read by anyone

Chryssides, Margaret Z. Wilkins, 2014-09-11 Christians in the Twenty First Century examines Christianity as it is understood and practised both by active followers and those who regard themselves as Christian The book opens with an examination of key Christian concepts the Bible the Creeds the Church and the sacraments and the major traditions of Roman Catholicism Eastern Orthodoxy and Protestantism as well as more recent movements The book continues with an analysis of the challenges presented by the rise of science new approaches to biblical scholarship the rise of fundamentalist movements the ordination of women secularization the interfaith movement and the impact of the electronic revolution The Christian Educator's Handbook on Spiritual Formation Kenneth O. Gangel, James C. Wilhoit, 1998-02-01 Provides the help Christians need to understand and pursue spiritual growth Nineteenth-Century Philosophy of Religion Graham Oppy, N. N. Trakakis, 2014-09-19 The nineteenth century was a turbulent period in the history of the philosophical scrutiny of religion Major scholars such as Hegel Fichte Schelling Newman Caird and Royce sought to construct systematic responses to the Enlightenment critiques of religion carried out by Spinoza and Hume At the same time new critiques of religion were launched by philosophers such as Schopenhauer and Nietzsche and by scholars engaged in textual criticism such as Schleiermacher and Dilthey Over the course of the century the work of Marx Freud Darwin and Durkheim brought the revolutionary perspectives of political economy psychoanalysis evolutionary theory and anthropology to bear on both religion and its study These challenges played a major role in the shaping of twentieth century philosophical thought about religion Nineteenth Century Philosophy of Religion will be of interest to scholars and students of Philosophy and Religion and will serve as an authoritative guide for all who are interested in the debates that took place in this seminal period in the history of philosophical thinking about religion Teach Us to Pray Katharine Mahon, 2019-04-01 The study of liturgical reform is usually undertaken through a close examination of liturgical texts In order to consider the impact of reform on the worship life of Christians Katharine Mahon takes a wider view of liturgy by considering the worship practices of Christian churches beyond what appears in the rites themselves Looking at how Christians were taught how to pray and instructed in liturgical and sacramental participation Mahon explores the late medieval patterns of Christian ritual formation and the transformation of these patterns in the sixteenth century reforms of Martin Luther Thomas Cranmer and Roman Catholic leaders She uses the Lord's Prayer the backbone of medieval lay catechesis liturgical participation and private prayer to paint a panorama of medieval ritual formation integrated into the life of the church in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries She then follows the disintegration and reconstruction of that system of formation through the changing functions of the Lord's Prayer in the official reforms of catechesis liturgy and prayer in the sixteenth century Private Worship, Public Values, and Religious Change in Late Antiquity Kimberly Diane Bowes, 2008-07-28 In this book Kim Bowes examines the late antique Christian

Political Prayer in Nineteenth-Century American Literature Amy Dunham

Strand, 2024-09-30 Political Prayer in Nineteenth Century American Literature explores how American women writers such as Catharine Maria Sedgwick Harriet Beecher Stowe Rebecca Harding Davis and Emily Dickinson translated petitioning a political form for redress of grievances with religious resonance or what Strand calls political prayer in their literary works At a time when petitioning was historically transforming governments mobilizing masses and democratizing North America these White women writers wrote literary petitions to advocate for others in social justice causes such as antiremoval antislavery and labor reform to transform American literature and culture and to articulate an ambivalent political agency Political Prayer in Nineteenth Century American Literature introduces historic petitioning into literary study as an overlooked but important new lens for reading nineteenth century fiction and poetry Understanding petitions in these literary works and these literary works as petitions also helps us to understand women's political agency before their enfranchisement to explain why scholars have long debated and inconsistently interpreted the works of well anthologized women writers and to see more clearly the multidimensional coexisting and often competing religious and political aspects of their writings

Milton attended church while growing up in Richmond Virginia though it was mostly just part of the family's Sunday routine before dinner and the football game After graduating from the University of Richmond Milton entered the U S Coast Guard's Officer Candidate School in 1963 Thus began a twenty year career that took him all over the country including assignments in Viet Nam Guam and Hawaii It was in Mayport Florida while serving as captain of a Coast Guard buoy tender that Milton accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior This experience changed his whole outlook on life and gave him a hunger and thirst for the word of God that continues to drive him today Since his retirement from the military Milton has served on church pastoral staff and as lay volunteer in many capacities In 1989 he co founded Prison Fellowship Guam and has been involved in prison ministry for the last 21 years including three years as a prison chaplain Milton has seen first hand how the power of God's truth changes lives Milton also observed that many church members were lukewarm in their Christian walk because they lacked an understanding of the foundational truths of Christianity and therefore hesitated to even share their Christian faith with another This book is his effort to help those who truly desire a Solid Foundation for their future spiritual growth Milton and his wife Olivia live in Gatesville Texas He is available for speaking to groups and churches You may reach him via e mail at dnorichards@embarqmail.com or by letter at PO Box 1073 Gatesville Texas 76528

Christianity Sandra Sizer

Frankiel, 2011-08-18 Christianity has a deceptively simple core but is an extremely diverse religion Frankiel approaches that diversity by a historical study that traces the contours of development and identifies some of the major different religious styles worldviews and directions within the religion She then examines the characteristics of Christianity that endure over time those that make it distinct from other religions This multidimensional approach provides a rich picture of Christianity by

Prayer and Embodiment in Nineteenth-Century Women's Writing Elizabeth Ludlow, 2025-02-20 In the 19th century an era that saw a reconfiguration of the relationship between the self the world and the divine women writers probed the theological depths of embodied faith in new ways through poetry fiction devotional prose and life writing Elizabeth Ludlow explores how through this process they articulated what it means to pray and thereby understand one's place in a world of individual and communal bodies The eight women writers discussed Elizabeth Barrett Browning Josephine Butler George Eliot Elizabeth Gaskell Dora Greenwell Felicia Hemans Adelaide Procter and Christina Rossetti provide accounts of prayer that stress that the only way to experience and respond to something of the transcendent is through embracing lived experience and through a recognition of the connectedness of all bodies In detailing how these writers engage with new ways of thinking about faith desire and the material world Ludlow argues that they offer models for ethical modes of being in the world and pave the way for later theologies of embodiment
