Robinson Jeffers: Myth, Ritual, and Symbol in His Narrative Poems R. J. Brophy, 1973      Robinson Jeffers: Myth, Ritual, and Symbol in His Narrative Poems Robert J. Brophy, 1973      Centennial Essays for Robinson Jeffers Robert Zaller, 1991

This work is the first volume of critical essays devoted to the poetry of Robinson Jeffers. Although Jeffers was likened to some of the greatest figures in the literary world, his work was controversial. His preoccupation with violence and sexuality was denounced by some, his alleged blasphemy by others. Condemned by moralists, Marxists, and Cold Warriors alike, Jeffers fell into obscurity until his death in 1962. Included are nine original essays by leading Jeffers scholars.

Robinson Jeffers and the American Sublime Robert Zaller, 2012-01-25

Robinson Jeffers and the American Sublime is the most comprehensive and most substantial critical work ever devoted to the major American poet Robinson Jeffers. 1887-1962: Jeffers, the best known poet of California and the American West, particularly valorized the Big Sur region, making it his own as Frost did New England and Faulkner Mississippi, and connecting it to the wider tradition of the American sublime in Emerson, Thoreau, and John Muir. The book also links Jeffers to a Puritan sublime in early American verse and explores his response to the Darwinian and Freudian revolutions and his engagement with modern astronomy. This discussion leads to a broad consideration of Jeffers' focus on the figure of Christ as emblematic of the human aspiration toward God, a God whom Jeffers defines not in Christian terms but in those of an older materialist pantheism and of modern science. The later sections of the book develop a conspectus of the democratic sublime that addresses American exceptionalism through the prism of Jeffers' Jeffersonian ethos. A final chapter places Jeffers' poetic thought in the larger cosmological perspective he sought in his late works.

Robinson Jeffers James Karman, 2015-08-05

A deeply informative biography situates the poet in his time and place, tracing the effect of both contemporary history and wild nature on his work. Edwin Cranston, Harvard University. The precipitous cliffs, rolling headlands, and rocky inlets of the California coast come alive in the poetry of John Robinson Jeffers, an icon of the environmental movement. In this concise and accessible biography, Jeffers scholar James Karman reveals deep insights into this passionate and complex figure and establishes Jeffers as a leading American poet of prophetic vision. In a move that would define his life's work, Jeffers' family relocated to California from Pennsylvania in 1903 when he was sixteen. At the height of his popularity in the 1920s and 1930s, Jeffers became one of the few poets ever featured on the cover of Time magazine and posthumously put on a U.S. postage stamp. Writing by kerosene lamp in a granite tower that he had built himself, his vivid and descriptive poetry of the coast evoked the difficulty and beauty of the wild and inspired photographers.

such as Edward Weston and Ansel Adams He was known for long narrative blank verse that shook up the national literary scene but in the 1940s his interest in the Greek classics led to several adaptations which were staged on Broadway to great success Inspiring later artists from Charles Bukowski to Czeslaw Milosz and even the Beach Boys Robinson Jeffers contribution to American letters is skillfully brought back out of the shadows of history in this compelling biography of a complex man of poetic genius who wrote so powerfully of the astonishing beauty of nature Inventing the Language to Tell It George Hart,2013-09-02 From 1920 until his death in 1962 consciousness and its effect on the natural world was Robinson Jeffers s obsession Understanding and explaining the biological basis of mind is one of the towering challenges of modern science to this day and Jeffers s poetic experiment is an important contribution to American literary history no other twentieth century poet attempted such a thorough engagement with a crucial scientific problem Jeffers invented a sacramental poetics that accommodates a modern scientific account of consciousness thereby integrating an essentially religious sensibility with science in order to discover the sacramentality of natural process and reveal a divine cosmos There is no other study of Jeffers or sacramental nature poetry like this one It proposes that Jeffers s sacramentalism emerged out of his scientifically informed understanding of material nature Drawing on ecocriticism religious studies and neuroscience Inventing the Language to Tell It shows how Jeffers produced the most compelling sacramental nature poetry of the twentieth century Fifty Key Thinkers on the Environment Joy A. Palmer,David E. Cooper,David Cooper,2002-09-11 Fifty Key Thinkers on the Environment is a unique guide to environmental thinking through the ages Joy A Palmer herself an important and prolific author on environmental matters has assembled a team of thirty five expert contributors to summarize and analyse the thinking of fifty diverse and stimulating figures from all over the world and from ancient times to the present day Among those included are Philosophers such as Rousseau Spinoza and Heidegger Activists such as Chico Mendes Literary giants such as Virgil Goethe and Wordsworth Major religious and spiritual figures such as the Buddha and St Francis of Assisi Lucid scholarly and informative these fifty essays offer a fascinating overview of mankind s view and understanding of the physical world Robinson Jeffers and a Galaxy of Writers William B. Thesing,1995 A Literary History of the American West Western Literature Association (U.S.),1987 Literary histories of course do not have a reason for being unless there exists the literature itself This volume perhaps more than others of its kind is an expression of appreciation for the talented and dedicated literary artists who ignored the odds avoided temptations to write for popularity or prestige and chose to write honestly about the American West believing that experiences long knowns to be of historical importance are also experiences that need and deserve a literature of importance The View from the Tower Theodore Ziolkowski,2014-07-14 Immediately after World War I four major European and American poets and thinkers W B Yeats Robinson Jeffers R M Rilke and C G Jung moved into towers as their principal habitations Taking this striking coincidence as its starting point this book sets out to locate modern turriphilia in its cultural context and to explore the biographical circumstances that motivated the four writers to choose their unusual retreats From the ziggurats of ancient Mesopotamia to the ivory towers of the fin de siècle the author traces the emergence of a variety of symbolic associations with the proud towers of the past ranging from spirituality and intellect to sexuality and sequestration But in every case the tower served both literally and symbolically as a refuge from the urban modernism with whose values the four writers found themselves at odds While the classic modernists Eliot Woolf Hart Crane often singled out the broken tower as the image of a crumbling past these writers actualized their powerful visions Yeats and Rilke moved into medieval towers in Ireland and Switzerland while Jeffers and Jung built themselves towers at Carmel and Bollingen as secluded spaces in which to cultivate the traditions and values they cherished The last chapter traces this perseverance of the ancient image through its heyday in the twenties and into the present where it has undergone renewal institutionalization and parody Originally published in 1998 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

The Heath Anthology of American Literature Paul Lauter, 1990 Towers of Myth and Stone Deborah Fleming, 2015-09-15 In this critical study of the influence of W B Yeats 1865 1939 on the poetry and drama of Robinson Jeffers 1887 1962 Deborah Fleming examines similarities in imagery landscape belief in eternal recurrence use of myth distrust of rationalism and dedication to tradition Although Yeats's and Jeffers's styles differed widely Towers of Myth and Stone examines how the two men shared a vision of modernity rejected contemporary values in favor of traditions some of their own making and created poetry that sought to change those values Jeffers's well known opposition to modernist poetry forced him for decades to the margins of critical appraisal where he was seen as an eccentric without aesthetic content Yet both Yeats and Jeffers formulated social and poetic philosophies that continue to find relevance in critical and cultural theory Engaging Yeats's work enabled Jeffers to develop a related though distinct sense of what themes and subject matter were best suited for poetic endeavor His connection to Yeats helps to explain the nature of Jeffers's poetry even as it helps to clarify Yeats's influence on those who followed him Moreover Fleming argues Jeffers's interest in Yeats suggests that critics misunderstand Jeffers if they take his rejection of modernism as exemplified by Wallace Stevens William Carlos Williams and Ezra Pound as a rejection of contemporary poetry or the process by which modern poetry came into being A Wilderness of Signs Joe Jordan, 2006 While it is clear that postmodernism was a much needed shift in thinking a concerted movement to displace naturalized grand narratives and power stacked claims to reason order and justice postmodernism has evaded address of elements integral to the conditions of being human ethics beauty value and judgment And although signifying practice inescapably defines the human world postmodernism has not successfully addressed aspects that lie outside human signification namely the environment and the natural world Here we find a dangerous conundrum while the natural world around us has an existence independent of its human conceptions these human conceptions carry with them grave consequences for the natural world TM s very existence This collection is comprised of selections from the 2005 Pacific Rim Conference on Literature and Rhetoric oethics beauty environment the Wilderness of Signs an annual graduate student conference held at the University of Alaska Anchorage Clipped from a wide critical swath the discussions in this collection include clashes between global capitalism and environmentalist discourses problems implied by ownership of place dismantling the borders between language region and modern criticism extending agency action and voice to the voiceless and re discovering identity ethics and oereality through the lens of post positivism At the dusk of postmodernism now is the time to visit careful attention upon these issues issues critical not only for the good of humanity but for the good of the non human world as well

How Not to Be Human Matthew Calarco, 2024-07-09 Current debates in the environmental humanities animal studies and related fields increasingly revolve around this question What to do with the human Is the human a category worth preserving Should it be replaced with the post human Should marginalized and minoritarian groups advocate for a universal humanism What is the relationship between humanism and anthropocentrism Is a genuinely non anthropocentric mode of thinking and living possible for human beings This book argues that the writings of twentieth century poet Robinson Jeffers offer twenty first century readers a number of crucial insights concerning such questions and timely advice about how not to be human For Jeffers our tendency to turn inward on ourselves and to indulge in human narcissism is at the heart of the social economic and existential ills that plague modern societies As a remedy Jeffers recommends turning ourselves outward beyond the self and beyond the human and learning to affirm and even love the inhuman cosmos in all of its terrible beauty In the process Jeffers helps us find our way back to ourselves but this time no longer as human in the traditional sense but as plain members of the inhuman world
