The Warsaw Ghetto in American Art and Culture

Samantha Baskind,2018-02-15 On the eve of Passover April 19 1943 Jews in the Warsaw Ghetto staged a now legendary revolt against their Nazi oppressors Since that day the deprivation and despair of life in the ghetto and the dramatic uprising of its inhabitants have captured the American cultural imagination The Warsaw Ghetto in American Art and Culture looks at how this place and its story have been remembered in fine art film television radio theater fiction poetry and comics Samantha Baskind explores seventy years worth of artistic representations of the ghetto and revolt to understand why they became and remain touchstones in the American mind Her study includes iconic works such as Leon Uris s best selling novel Mila 18 Roman Polanski s Academy Award winning film The Pianist and Rod Serling s teleplay In the Presence of Mine Enemies as well as accounts in the American Jewish Yearbook and the New York Times the art of Samuel Bak and Arthur Szyk and the poetry of Yala Korwin and Charles Reznikoff In probing these works Baskind pursues key questions of Jewish identity What links artistic representations of the ghetto to the Jewish diaspora How is art politicized or depoliticized Why have Americans made such a strong cultural claim on the uprising Vibrantly illustrated and vividly told The Warsaw Ghetto in American Art and Culture shows the importance of the ghetto as a site of memory and creative struggle and reveals how this seminal event and locale served as a staging ground for the forging of Jewish American identity The 25th Hour Keith B. Darrell,2016 Mackenzie Mortimer is a typical junior high geek shy awkward late with his homework and always late for class He s never got enough time to do everything he needs to do after all there are only 24 hours in a day But when Mac finds his grandfather s pocket watch he discovers his days have an extra hour The eccentric inventor s journal reveals the watch can add up to 60 minutes to a single day by freezing time around whomever controls it When a crisis looms for Mac and his friends time is running out but fortunately Mackenzie Mortimer has a few more minutes than anyone else

Holocaust History and the Readings of Ka-Tzetnik Annette F. Timm, 2018-01-25 Holocaust History and the Readings of Ka Tzetnik provides the first extensive exploration of the reception of Ka Tzetnik's work and the role that his books have played in the larger discussion of the Holocaust and its memorialization around the world Including contributions from an international and interdisciplinary group of experienced scholars the book examines the literary merits historical context and public resonance of Ka Tzetnik's stories It also places his novels in the context of post WWII debates about how the memories and testimonies of the victims of the Holocaust can be represented and made publicly accessible through literature There is also detailed coverage of key topics like Holocaust memory and sexual violence in the concentration camps and thorough historical analysis of key works like House of Dolls included throughout This is an important study for all scholars and students with an interest in the Holocaust and Holocaust literature

New Approaches in Teaching History Frederic Krome, 2024-02-14 Science fiction literature and film are an underappreciated source for the teaching of history Finding material that can excite a student's curiosity can be a key towards greater student engagement especially among students who are taking history as a requirement rather than from interest The discovery that they can read or watch science fiction as part of their classwork often comes as a pleasant surprise Beyond its popularity however utilizing science fiction for class assignments has certain pedagogical advantages it introduces students to new vistas in historical thought helps them learn how literature and film can be applied as a primary source and can encourage participation in projects that are enjoyable Each chapter provides case studies focusing on a different subject in the modern history curriculum and in addition to providing an analysis of specific texts and or cinematic sources gives suggestions on assignments for the students

While America Watches Jeffrey Shandler, 2000-09-21 The Holocaust holds a unique place in American public culture and as Jeffrey Shandler argues in While America Watches it is television more than any other medium that has brought the Holocaust into our homes our hearts and our minds Much has been written about Holocaust film and literature and yet the medium that brings the subject to most people television has been largely neglected Now Shandler provides the first account of how television has familiarized the American people with the Holocaust He starts with wartime newsreels of liberated concentration camps showing how they set the moral tone for viewing scenes of genocide and then moves to television to explain how the Holocaust and the Holocaust survivor have gained stature as moral symbols in American culture From early teleplays to coverage of the Eichmann trial and the Holocaust miniseries as well as documentaries popular series such as All in the Family and Star Trek and news reports of recent interethnic violence in Bosnia Shandler offers an enlightening tour of television history Shandler also examines the many controversies that televised presentations of the Holocaust have sparked demonstrating how their impact extends well beyond the broadcasts themselves While America Watches is sure to continue this discussion and possibly the controversies among many readers

The Horrors of Trauma in Cinema Michael Elm, Kobi Kabalek, Julia B. Köhne, 2014-10-02 This volume explores the multifaceted depiction and staging of historical and social traumata as the result of extreme violence within national contexts It focuses on Israeli Palestinian German and US American film and reaches out to cinematic traditions from other countries like France Great Britain and the former USSR International and interdisciplinary scholars analyze both mainstream and avant garde movies and documentaries premiering from the 1960s to the present From transnational and cross genre perspectives they query the modes of representation regarding narration dramaturgy aesthetics mise en scene iconology lighting cinematography editing and sound held by film as a medium to visualize shattering experiences of violence and their traumatic encoding in individuals collectives bodies and psyches This anthology uniquely traces horror aesthetics and trajectories as a way to reenact echo and question the perpetual loops of trauma in film cultures The contributors examine the discursive transfer between historical traumata necessarily transmitted in a medialized and conceptualized form the changing landscape of clinical trauma theory the filmic depiction and language of trauma and the official memory politics and hegemonic national identity constructions

Fighting the White Knight Jocelyn Turner, 2023-01-12 In her final year of teaching Jocelyn Turner spent over one fifth of each week administering mandatory tests and quizzes She spent the remaining time preparing students to take those specific exams regardless of the background knowledge and preparedness of individual students While she was testing she could not teach Teachers were expected to present the same Common Core based grade specific material to all their students at the same time whether Jake was reading at a first grade level or Taylor at a ninth grade level It was a rare and lucky child who fit the profile of the year's onslaught of tests Since No Child Left Behind US schools have been burying students in tests and then drawing often misguided conclusions when sometimes the only conclusion anyone ought to draw is that student X obviously spent hours staring at a set of questions he or she did not understand and maybe could not even read We have been told that US education is in crisis Ms Turner agrees In Fighting the White Knight she argues that government mandates created and are now perpetuating this crisis depriving children of remedial learning instruction time and personal attention Fighting the White Knight also looks at the 1.6 trillion student debt crisis a consequence of today's single minded college bound pipeline vocabulary deficits left to fester due to narrowly targeted curricula and the sneaky gutting of elective vocational technical and gifted education Ms Turner concludes by advocating for changes she believes can rescue American education guiding children back to the safe inspirational learning experiences of a more student focused time
