Roger Maris Died Yesterday A Collection Of Short Stories Signed:

Roger Maris Tom Clavin, Danny Peary, 2010-03-16 Tom Clavin and Danny Peary chronicle the life and career of baseball's natural home run king in the first definitive biography of Roger Maris including a brand new chapter to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of his record breaking season Roger Maris may be the greatest ballplayer no one really knows In 1961 the soft spoken man from the frozen plains of North Dakota enjoyed one of the most amazing seasons in baseball history when he outslugged his teammate Mickey Mantle to become the game's natural home run king It was Mantle himself who said Roger was as good a man and as good a ballplayer as there ever was Yet Maris was vilified by fans and the press and has never received his due from biographers until now Tom Clavin and Danny Peary trace the dramatic arc of Maris's life from his boyhood in Fargo through his early pro career in the Cleveland Indians farm program to his World Series championship years in New York and beyond At the center is the exciting story of the 1961 season and the ordeal Maris endured as an outsider in Yankee pinstripes unloved by fans who compared him unfavorably to their heroes Ruth and Mantle relentlessly attacked by an aggressive press corps who found him cold and inaccessible and treated miserably by the organization After the tremendous challenge of breaking Ruth's record was behind him Maris ultimately regained his love of baseball as a member of the world champion St Louis Cardinals And over time he gained redemption in the eyes of the Yankee faithful With research drawn from more than 130 interviews with Maris's teammates opponents family and friends as well as 16 pages of photos some of which have never before been seen this timely and poignant biography sheds light on an iconic figure from baseball's golden era and establishes the importance of his role in the game's history

The Road to Cooperstown James F. Vail,2017-07-06 The selection process for the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown New York has been the same for sixty years Two sets of electors are used both of which vote each year using subjective criteria that inevitably cause errors of selection and omission One group the Baseball Writers Association of America votes by mail using a pre selected list of retired players that meet eligibility requirements The second group of electors is the Veterans Committee comprised of former players who are Hall of Fame members plus retired baseball executives and sportswriters who meet in Florida during spring training and base their votes on the merits of candidates no longer eligible for the BBWAA ballot In this work the author combines an irreverent critique of the voting process with an analysis of the biases that have fostered questionable choices in Hall of Fame voting The result is a comprehensive statistically founded survey of the factors which influence election
