be told The members of de Hamel's club share many such wonders which he brings to us with scholarship style and a lifetime's experience The Apocalypse and the Shape of Things to Come Frances Carey, 1999-01-01 The Book of Revelation's legacy of visual imagery is evaluated here from the 11th century to the end of World War 2 illuminated manuscripts books prints and drawings of apocalyptic phases are examined The Sister Queens Mary McGrigor, 2016-01-07 Isabella de Valois was 3 years old when on a hot August day in 1392 her father suddenly went mad Less than four years later she was married by proxy to the English King Richard II and arrived in England with a French retinue and her doll's house Richard's humiliating deposition and brutal murder by his cousin the future Henry IV forced Isabella's desperate return to France where she found her country fatally divided Isabella's sister Catherine de Valois became the beautiful young bride of Henry V and is unique in history for being the daughter of a king the wife of a king the mother of a king and the grandmother of a king Like her sister Catherine was viewed as a bargaining chip in times of political turmoil yet her passionate love affair with the young Owain Tudor established the entire Tudor dynasty and set in motion one of the most fascinating periods of British history The Sister Queens is a gripping tale of love exile and conflict in a time when even royal women had to fight for survival Representing the Passions Richard Evan Meyer, 2003 Through an interlocking series of texts and images this work explores how extreme sensations such as wonder misery ecstasy and rage have been portrayed at different moments in Western culture Moving across multiple fields of creative endeavour and intellectual inquiry from classical artefacts to Chicano art political protest to operatic performance Rene Descartes's writings on the soul to the Internet's digitised flesh it reveals how the passions have elicited eluded and transformed the act of representation Wealthy Australian, Secret Son Margaret Way, 2011-01-01 Charlotte Prescott is stunned when Riverbend homestead's new owner walks through the door All these years later her heart still beats to his name Rohan Costello Rohan was Charlotte's shining white knight until he disappeared before she had the chance to tell him she was pregnant Rohan is still torn over the woman he believes chose money over love Now a self made millionaire the tables have turned but a blond blue eyed little boy is about to change everything The Virgin Mary's Book at the Annunciation Laura Saetveit Miles, 2020 An overlooked aspect of the iconography of the Annunciation investigated Mary's book English and International Elizabeth Salter, 1988-08-26 Elizabeth Salter's principal works and essays are collected here in one volume Mixed Metaphors Stefanie Knöll, Sophie Oosterwijk, 2015-06-18 This groundbreaking collection of essays by a host of international authorities addresses the many aspects of the Danse Macabre a subject that has been too often overlooked in Anglo American scholarship The Danse was once a major motif that occurred in many different media and spread across Europe in the course of the fifteenth century from France to England Germany Scandinavia Poland Spain Italy and Istria Yet the Danse is hard to define because it mixes metaphors such as dance di The Medieval Chronicle IV Erik Kooper, 2006 There are several reasons why the chronicle is particularly suited as the topic of a yearbook In the first place there is its ubiquity all over Europe and throughout the

Middle Ages chronicles were written both in Latin and in the vernacular and not only in Europe but also in the countries neighbouring on it like those of the Arabic world Secondly all chronicles raise such questions as by whom for whom or for what purpose were they written how do they reconstruct the past what determined the choice of verse or prose or what kind of literary influences are discernable in them Finally many chronicles have been beautifully illuminated and the relation between text and image leads to a wholly different set of questions The yearbook The Medieval Chronicle aims to provide a representative survey of the on going research in the field of chronicle studies illustrated by examples from specific chronicles from a wide variety of countries periods and cultural backgrounds The Medieval Chronicle is published in cooperation with the Medieval Chronicle Society Imago Mortis Ashby Kinch, 2013-02-01 Here Ashby Kinch argues for the affirmative quality of late medieval death art and literature providing a new interdisciplinary approach to a well known body of material Antwerp Royal Museum Annua l2013-2014 Paul Vandenbroeck, 2016-12-28 At various points over the course of the 20th century the Belgian State and its various ministries and provinces consciously chose to subsidise not only the fine arts but also the applied and decorative arts and in particular the art of weaving tapestry On the one hand orders were placed for World Exhibitions and for Belgian embassies and on the other competitions were held for tapestries to be hung in important locations such as the United Nations and NATO headquarters and the exhibitions that were organized by the various ministries over the years They provided an overview of the ways in which this branch of the arts was changing as well as representative work by the best tapestry designers The exhibitions organized by the provincial authorities give quite a different image There were the highly conventional exhibitions of Brabantine tapestries to promote the craftsmanship of the province and there were the more innovative textile exhibitions Taken as a whole the commissions competitions and exhibitions give a good overview of what was happening in Belgium in the field of tapestry over the period 1945 1980 They also make it clear what image was being projected abroad that of a country with rich traditions master craftsmanship in weaving and in the 1970s some affiliation to the latest developments in European textile art
