Sex And Suffering Womens Health And A Womens Hospital:

Sex and Suffering Janet McCalman, 2012-11-27 Sex and Suffering is a ground breaking work It tells the often shocking story of women s desperation to gain control over their lives and their health and of medicine s struggle to comprehend and manage the mysteries of nature It offers a graphic and revealing history of childbirth in Australia of the medical care of women of nursing and gender roles and of the impact of immigration on Australian society Remarkably thousands of detailed case notes from the 1850s to the 1930s survived intact at the Royal Women s Hospital Melbourne For the first time in the English speaking world a historian was allowed to work directly from these confidential patient records Janet McCalman vividly recreates the lives of patients and the daily work of a hospital She enables readers to follow the institution through times of growth and economic depression through the grim history of criminal abortion and through the inspiring story of medical science and surgery since the coming of anaesthesia Sex and Suffering is a vivid and absorbing social history of women s health seen through the work of Australia s oldest women s hospital

The Rise and Fall of National Women's Hospital Linda Bryder, 2014-02-01 In this major history Linda Bryder traces the annals of National Women s Hospital over half a century in order to tell a wider story of reproductive health She uses the varying perspectives of doctors nurses midwives consumer groups and patients to show how together their dialog shaped the nature of motherhood and women s health in 20th century New Zealand Natural childbirth and rooming in artificial insemination and in vitro fertilization sterilization and abortion women s health and reproduction went through a revolution in the 20th century as scientific advances confronted ethical and political dilemmas In New Zealand the major site for this revolution was National Women s Hospital Established in Auckland in 1946 with a purpose built building that opened in 1964 National Women s was the home of medical breakthroughs scandals This chronicle covers them all

The Spectacular Modern Woman Liz Conor, 2004-07-16 Liz Conor explores the role of media technology in the emergence of the modern woman in the 1920s At once liberating confining the media images of women set standards of appearance that were closely tied to ideas about the roles a woman could fulfill from city girl to mannequin to flapper

Breastwork Alison Bartlett, 2005 Breastwork delivers an original and personal approach to a near universal practice and doesn t shy from controversy or controversial topics such as sexual desire and breastfeeding It features a broad range of illustrations from Renaissance paintings of mother and child Madonna del Latte to Jerry Hall breastfeeding on the cover of Vanity Fair and Kate Langbroek breastfeeding on The Panel to a banned New Zealand health poster of a man breastfeeding at work

Artmaking in the Age of Global Capitalism Jan Bryant, 2019-09-11 Jan Bryant looks at the strategies visual artists and filmmakers are using to criticise the social and economic conditions shaping our historical moment She then assesses how the world is being positively re imagined through their work today Located at the intersection of practice and theory Bryant argues that an effective contemporary political aesthetics encompasses more than just analysis of a work s conceptual or aesthetic reality It should also consider the impact the artwork has at the point of reception the methods adopted by the artists and the relationships they engender with communities

Hail Caesar Caroline De Costa, 2008-12-01 Who performed the first caesarean Was Julius Caesar born by caesarean section If I have a caesarean for my first baby do all the other births have to be caesareans as well Is it okay for a woman to have a caesarean just because she wants one or is she being selfish What are the real risks of caesarean section And why is the caesarean rate rising steadily in Australia so that one in three babies is now born this way These questions and many others about this hotly debated surgical operation are all answered in Hail Caesar a well informed and provocative explanation of every aspect of caesarean birth From the pen of a woman doctor who has personally performed more than 4 000 caesareans comes a guide to the operation packed with facts sympathetic to all viewpoints and up to date in its attitudes Caesarean says Caroline de Costa while not a natural method of birth is now both common and safe and should be regarded as one of the normal birth methods Accurate information about the surgery should be supplied to all pregnant women so that when faced with the possibility of the surgery for themselves they can make an informed decision Currently women who give birth by caesarean too often end up feeling guilty or negative about their experience because they have not been well prepared For mothers mothers to be fathers partners families and all those just interested in birth here is the definitive book on caesarean section in Australia in the 21st century A Life Course Approach to Chronic Disease Epidemiology Diana Kuh,Yoav Ben Shlomo,2004-04 A Life Course Approach to Chronic Disease Epidemiology provides a detailed and up to date review of research findings which suggest that many of the chronic diseases prevalent in adult life have their origins in early life

Becoming a mother Carla Pascoe Leahy,2023-04-04 Becoming a mother charts the diverse and complex history of Australian mothering for the first time exposing the ways it has been both connected to and distinct from parallel developments in other industrialised societies In many respects the historical context in which Australian women come to motherhood has changed dramatically since 1945 And yet examination of the memories of multiple maternal generations reveals surprising continuities in the emotions and experiences of first time motherhood Drawing upon interdisciplinary insights from anthropology history psychology and sociology Carla Pascoe Leahy unpacks this multifaceted rite of passage through more than 60 oral history interviews demonstrating how maternal memories continue to influence motherhood today Despite radical shifts in understandings of gender care and subjectivity becoming a mother remains one of the most personally and culturally significant moments in a woman s life Prison Jacqueline Z. Wilson,2008 Prison Cultural Memory and Dark Tourism discusses decommissioned Australian prisons currently or potentially functioning as tourist attractions In particular it addresses a fundamental question Do the interpretations and presentations of the sites include and fairly represent the personal stories and experiences associated with those prisons The author argues that the conventional understanding of most of Australia s historical prisons fosters a radical othering of inmates and with it the exclusion distortion and historical neglect of their narratives This book examines avenues via which neglected narratives may be glimpsed or inferred presenting a number of examples This remedies the imbalance in some degree and tests such avenues potential as resources for inclusive interpretations by public historians and curators The book also focuses on the influence of celebrity prisoners whose links to the penal system are exploited as promotional features by the sites and in some cases by the individuals themselves Their narratives provide broad if unwitting support for the system and for the othering of the more general inmate population The ramifications of the above with regard to aspects of Australian identity mean that certain facets of the Australian character traditionally held to be emblematic are affected These effects have subtle but tangible consequences for modern Australians collective memory and deleterious consequences for current popular attitudes to penal practice A Voice for Mothers Linda Bryder,2013-10-01 Covering the history of the Plunket Society from 1907 to the present day this book is organized around three dominant themes that contribute both to international historiography and to the social history of New Zealand These themes are the mixed economy of welfare maternal and infant health and motherhood and parenting Discussed in detail is how these three strands form an important contribution to New Zealand s social history In particular the public role of women as welfare providers maternal and child health provision and parenting roles and practices are examined An in depth study of the voluntary welfare system this book will be of interest to welfare difficulty and necessity of remembering now also lends this classic work a palpable new relevance The Old World and the New Elizabeth Taylor, 2013-05-31 This is a story of landed aristocrats Victorian politicians and nouveaux riches colonial entrepreneurs It is about sudden death in 10 Downing Street an obsessive relationship the marrying of New World money with old world class and social elevation from a poor Scottish croft to an historic stately home It considers the impact on the old world of money made in colonial enterprises and the cultural exchange resulting from colonial expansion and it details the self managed decline of a British upper class that had held power for almost a thousand years This biography is of interest to scholars and general readers alike It tells the previously untold story of two British aristocrats detailing the drama of their personal lives and examining their rule in the two colonies India and Australia in which they served It raises issues of population immigration social mobility and the ethics of the British Empire all of which are relevant to today's debates The Northcotes life in England is described in the context of a sweep of British political and social history in which Harry Northcote directly participated from the passing of the Third Reform and Redistribution Acts in 1884-5 to the bitter battles over female suffrage and the composition of the House of Lords at the close of the Edwardian era The action during the couple's colonial adventures in the early 1900s takes place in two different outposts of Empire India under the Raj where Harry wielded autocratic power in a Bombay devastated by plague and famine and the new democratic settler colony of Australia following the federation of separate colonies on a huge yet sparsely populated continent The transmission of the culture of the Mother Country to the Empire's furthest reaches is studied through Alice's contribution as Governor's wife The crucial part that women played in the maintenance of the British Empire in both locations is a key theme Cancer Data For Good Thomas Kehoe, 2022-10-26 This book examines the history of the Victorian Cancer Registry VCR in Australia from its establishment in the late 1930s through to the present day It sheds new light on the history of medicine and the broader social and cultural histories affected by advances in cancer control science providing a historical account of cancer registration that is empirically grounded in new archival and oral sources It addresses the obstacles that proponents of cancer registration faced how governments came to support permanent registries and the subsequent contributions of the VCR and other registries to cancer research In charting this history the book discusses some of the political social and cultural implications of registry driven science and the links between developments in scientific knowledge and campaigning for policy changes around cancer The Forgotten Rebels of Eureka Clare Wright, 2013-10-23 Winner of the Stella Prize 2014 The Eureka Stockade It's one of Australia's foundation legends yet the story has always been told as if half the participants weren't there But what if the hot tempered free spirited gold miners we learned about at school were actually husbands and fathers brothers and sons What if there were women and children right there beside them inside the Stockade when the bullets started to fly And how do the answers to these questions change what we thought we knew about the so called birth of Australian democracy Who in fact were the midwives to that precious delivery Ten years in the research and writing irrepressibly bold entertaining and often irreverent in style Clare Wright's The Forgotten Rebels of Eureka is a fitting tribute to the unbiddable women of Ballarat women who made Eureka a story for us all Clare Wright is an historian who has worked as a political speechwriter university lecturer historical consultant and radio and television broadcaster Her first book Beyond the Ladies Lounge Australia's Female Publicans garnered both critical and popular acclaim and her second The Forgotten Rebels of Eureka won the 2014 Stella Prize She researched wrote and presented the ABC TV documentary Utopia Girls and is the co writer of the four part series The War That Changed Us which screened on ABC1 Lively incisive and timely Clare Wright's account of the role of women in the Eureka Stockade is an engrossing read Assembling a tapestry of voices that vividly illuminate the hardscrabble lives endured on Ballarat's muddy goldfields this excellent book reveals a concealed facet of one of Australia's most famous incidences of colonial rebellion For once Peter Lalor isn't the hero it's the women who are placed front and centre The Forgotten Rebels links the actions of its heroines to the later fight for female suffrage and will be of strong relevance to a contemporary female audience Comprehensive and full of colour this book will also be essential reading for devotees of Australian history Bookseller and Publisher This is a wonderful book At last an Australian foundation story where women are not only found but are found to have played a fundamental role Chris Masters Brilliantly researched and fun to read An exhilarating new take on a story we thought we knew Brenda Niall Fascinating revelations Beautifully told Peter FitzSimons The best source on women at Eureka Big Smoke

The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated women's daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A-Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune women's and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go-to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike

Chinese Diaspora Charity and the Cantonese Pacific, 1850-1949 John Fitzgerald, Hon-ming Yip, 2020-04-15

Chinese Diaspora Charity and the Cantonese Pacific 1850 1949 sheds new light on the history of charity among Chinese overseas and its place in the history of charity in China and in the wider history of global philanthropy It finds that diaspora charity besides serving traditional functions of helping the sick and destitute and supporting development in China helped to build trust among dispersed hometown networks while challenging color boundaries in host societies by contributing to wider social causes The book shows that charitable activities among the Gold Rush communities of the Pacific rim a loosely integrated migr network from Guangdong Province perhaps better known for its business acumen and hard work among English speaking settler societies in North America and Australasia also led the way with social innovations that helped to shape modern charity in China Fitzgerald and Yip s volume demonstrates that charity lay at the heart of community life among Chinese communities overseas From remittances accompanying letters to contributions to benevolent organizations emigrants transferred funds in many different ways to meet urgent requirements such as disaster relief while also contributing to long term initiatives like building schools or hospitals By drawing attention to diaspora contributions to their host societies the contributors correct a common misunderstanding of the historical Chinese diaspora which is often perceived by host communities as self interested or disengaged This important study also reappraises the value of charitable donations in the maintenance of networks an essential feature of diaspora life across the Cantonese Pacific Fitzgerald and Yip s fascinating collection is a major contribution to the growing study of charity and its relationship to social welfare The essays show how remittances were used for much more than family support The book fills a large gap on the almost unrecognized importance of charity among Cantonese communities in the Chinese diaspora Diana Lary University of British Columbia This collection is a great contribution to our understanding of how important charity became among overseas Chinese in the early stages of the diaspora between 1850 and 1949 Philanthropy was crucial in the creation of trust networks among the diasporic communities that earned Chinese recognition to the overseas communities both in China and in their host countries Sue Fawn Chung University of Nevada Las Vegas
