Make Disciples Reaching The Postmodern World For Christ:

Make Disciples! Terry A. Bowland, 1999 Let us make no mistake about it Evangelism is not simply learning Bible facts Evangelism is not simply understanding sociological information Evangelism is taking part in God s great work of redeeming the world through Christ It is to reach out and allow God s power and presence to extend into the lives of people through our daily lives When we increasingly become aware of God working within us the result will be joy joy in our daily tasks and joy in the lives we touch Wherever God s will is done the ultimate result for us will be joy Questions of the Soul S. Thomas Valentine, 2015-01-27 The Festival of Young Preachers is a trans denominational one of a kind event designed to showcase and encourage young people who aspire to be preachers of the Gospel Questions of the Soul celebrates the preaching ministry of the millennial generation with its collection of sermons preached during the 2014 Festival Sacred Subdivisions Justin Wilford, 2012-11-19 In an era where church attendance has reached an all time low recent polling has shown that Americans are becoming less formally religious and more promiscuous in their religious commitments Within both mainline and evangelical Christianity in America it is common to hear of secularizing pressures and increasing competition from nonreligious sources Yet there is a kind of religious institution that has enjoyed great popularity over the past thirty years the evangelical megachurch Evangelical megachurches not only continue to grow in number but also in cultural political and economic influence To appreciate their appeal is to understand not only how they are innovating but more crucially where their innovation is taking place In this groundbreaking and interdisciplinary study Justin G Wilford argues that the success of the megachurch is hinged upon its use of space its location on the postsuburban fringe of large cities its fragmented dispersed structure and its focus on individualized spaces of intimacy such as small group meetings in homes which help to interpret suburban life as religiously meaningful and create a sense of belonging Based on original fieldwork at Rick Warren s Saddleback Church one of the largest and most influential megachurches in America Sacred Subdivisions explains how evangelical megachurches thrive by transforming mundane secular spaces into arenas of religious significance Invitation to Educational Ministry George Hillman, Sue Edwards, 2018-09-25 Because teaching is at the heart of Christian ministry the editors of Invitation to Educational Ministry have assembled a team of seasoned experts to present a comprehensive plan of Christian education This volume will help church staff parachurch leaders and small group teachers become more effective influential and creative After laying a biblical and practical foundation for Christian education the contributors provide specific guidance on teaching a variety of individuals and groups including children adults singles seniors and non Christians The final section shares valuable insights on leading small groups teaching innovatively and overseeing a healthy educational ministry among other topics Each chapter is designed to equip educators with the most relevant information and includes many useful features Real life case studies Scriptural support Explanations of key terms and concepts Practical suggestions Resources for additional study Sidebars illustrating best principles and practices

Preaching to a Postmodern World Graham M. Johnston, 2001-07-01 While growing churches dot our urban centers and country landscapes church goers and students today are actually less likely to maintain a Christian worldview than in the past In fact the majority of society does not even believe in objective truth A minister out of touch with this culture is like an uninformed missionary trying to teach in a foreign country To communicate God's Word effectively in the twenty first century teachers need to know how to connect with and confront an audience of postmodern listeners In Preaching to a Postmodern World Johnston shows pastors seminary students professors lay teachers and church leaders can reach the present age without selling out to it The book discusses how to distinguish between modernism and postmodernism understand postmodern worldviews change the style of preaching without compromising the substance take advantage of new opportunities provided by the cultural shift show an inattentive society the relevance of God's truth The author's keen insights into contemporary pop and media culture also help equip speakers to address today's listeners with clarity and relevance

Repairing the Missional Breach Kevin Blackwell, 2024-04-02 Making disciples is the primary calling of the church however in the past decades of American evangelicalism there has been a breach of Christ's Great Commission as found in Matt 28 19 20 Much of this failure can be attributed to the doctrine and practice within three modern church movements The book offers a history and critique of modern American evangelical church movements including the Church Growth Emergent Church and Missional Church movements Each of these movements did not result in disciple making multiplication In this book you will find an analysis of disciple making in these movements as compared to the methods and model of Jesus Informed by these critiques formative ministry adjustments are presented as a faithful path for future missional approaches

Making Disciples in a World Parish Paul W. Chilcote, 2011-04-01 In this collection of inspirational and challenging essays Methodists from around the globe reflect on the practice of disciple making in their own contexts From their own perspectives they address questions like What are the challenges you face What biblical images shape your missional practice What examples of Christian authenticity inspire your communities What gifts related to mission and evangelism do you offer the global community of faith Churches on every continent have their own stories of struggle and faithfulness Indeed each distinct community within any given region has a voice of its own that deserves to be heard The voices included in this volume belong to women and men alike Likewise they resound with the accents of Africa and Asia Latin and North America Europe and Oceania Each voice is distinct but all articulate a vision of faith made effective through love In a world characterized variously by poverty and violence as well as prosperity and peace the church must reclaim its central mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ In their effort to articulate a vision of mission and evangelism the contributors to this volume bear witness to the fact that we can no longer do this work in isolation from one another To be the ambassadors of the gospel we need each other and we need to pay attention to the voices that sound different from our own This volume takes a large step in that vital direction
