Jameel Zookie McGee,Andrew Collins,Mark Tabb,2017-09-19 WINNER OF THE CHRISTOPHER BOOK AWARD A must read for anyone who longs for the day when the dividing lines of race class and bigotry are finally overcome by the greater forces of love forgiveness and brotherhood Rev Samuel Rodriguez Racial tensions had long simmered in Benton Harbor a small city on the eastern shore of Lake Michigan before the day a white narcotics officer more focused on arrests than justice set his sights on an innocent black man But when officer Andrew Collins framed Jameel McGee for possession of crack cocaine the surprising result was not a race riot but a transformative journey for both men Falsely convicted McGee spent three years in federal prison Collins also went to prison a few years later for falsifying police reports While behind bars the faith of both men deepened But the story took its most unexpected turn once they were released when their lives collided again in a moment brimming with mistrust and anger The two were on a collision course not to violence but forgiveness As current as today s headlines this explosive true story reveals how these radically conflicted men chose to let go of fear and a thirst for revenge to pursue reconciliation for themselves their community and our racially divided nation
