Making A Model Village:

Model Villages Tim Dunn, 2017-11-15 Part of the story of the seaside holiday and a fascinating sidelight on British social history the model village richly deserves its history written here by Britain's foremost village expert and advocate Making Hong Kong Pui-yin Ho, 2018-09-28 This insightful book provides a comprehensive survey of urban development in Hong Kong since 1841 Pui-yin Ho explores the ways in which the social economic and political environments of different eras have influenced the city's development From colonial governance wartime experiences high density development and adjustments before and after 1997 through contemporary challenges this book explores forward looking ideas that urban planning can offer to lead the city in the future Evaluating the relationship between town planning and social change this book looks at how a local Hong Kong identity emerged in the face of conflict and compromise between Chinese and European cultures In doing so it brings a fresh perspective to urban research providing historical context and direction for the future development of the city Hong Kong's urban development experience offers not only a model for other Chinese cities but also a better understanding of Asian cities more broadly Urban studies scholars will find this an exemplary case study of a developing urban landscape Town planners and architects will also benefit from reading this comprehensive book as it shows how Hong Kong can be taken to the next stage of urban development and modernisation Making a New World Tom Avermaete, 2012 A heavily illustrated study of the foundations and working mechanisms of modern communities The Many Roads to Becoming Modern Chen Jiajian, 2022-03-30 The Many Roads to Becoming Modern explores collectivism in the context of contemporary rural Chinese history Following the history of a southern village from 1949 to the present the author attempts to understand the origin and current state of collectivity in rural China Along with other unique Chinese institutions such as the Danwei work unit system rural collectivism is the basis of New China's economic development Previous academic research on rural collectivism in general is limited to scattered historical fragments this book however is an empirical study of the actual historical process of rural collectivism Focusing on presenting a mechanism for universal interpretation the author illustrates the development of rural collectivism in southern Jiangsu using the historical research method revealing the characteristics of the Chinese society as it is Within seven chapters the author explains in detail the core features and evolution mechanism of the collective model throughout different periods since the establishment of the People's Republic of China This book will be of interest to all levels of students and scholars who study contemporary China modern Chinese history and collectivism especially those who are concerned with rural area development and the land systems Islamic NGOs in Bangladesh Mohammad Musfequs Salehin, 2016-01-13 NGOs Non Governmental Organizations have emerged in both a development and aid capacity in Bangladesh providing wide reaching public services to the country's population living in extreme poverty However resistance to and limitations of NGO led development which in conjunction with Bangladesh's social transformation led to a new religious based NGO development practice Looking at the role of

Islamic NGOs in Bangladesh the book investigates new forms of neoliberal governmentality supported by international donors It discusses how this form of social regulation produces and reproduces subjectivities particularly Muslim women subjectivity and has combined religious and economic rationality further complicating the boundaries and the relationship between Islam modernity and development The book argues that both secular and Islamic NGOs target women in the name of empowerment but more importantly as the most reliable partners to meet their debt obligations of micro financing schemes including shari a based financing The targeted women in turn experience Islamic NGOs as less coercive and more sensitive to their religious environment in the rural village community than are secular NGOs Providing a comparative study of the role of religious and secular NGOs in the implementation of neoliberal policies and development strategies this book will be a significant addition to research on South Asian Politics Development Studies Gender Studies and Religion

Homes Fit For Heroes Mark Swenarton,2018-11-09 Homes fit for Heroes looks at the pledge made 100 years ago by the Lloyd George government to build half a million homes fit for heroes the pledge which made council housing a major part of the housing system in the UK Originally published in 1981 the book is the only full scale study of the provision and design of state housing in the period following the 1918 Armistice and remains the standard work on the subject It looks at the municipal garden suburbs of the 1920s which were completely different from traditional working class housing inside and out Instead of being packed onto the ground in long terraces the houses were set in spacious gardens surrounded by trees and open spaces and often they contained luxuries like upstairs bathrooms unheard of in the working class houses of the past The book shows that in the turbulent period following the First World War the British government launched the housing campaign as a way of persuading the troops and the people that their aspirations would be met under the existing system without any need for revolution The design of the houses based on the famous Tudor Walters Report of 1918 was a central element in this strategy the large and comfortable houses provided by the state were intended as visible evidence of the arrival of a new era for the working classes of this country The Council of State Debates (official Report)... ,1923
