Making A World Of Difference A Multifaith Resource For Primary Teachers:

Making a World of Difference Elizabeth Hughes, Sheila Hunter, Tony Henry, 1994 This book presents a thoroughly tried and tested programme of study for use in Religious Education It incorporates material from world faith traditions and shows how schools can handle differences of religious belief in a stimulating way It includes an invaluable section of resource material for direct practical application in the classroom Attractively presented with clear illustrations and diagrams throughout this is an essential resource for all primary teachers

The Complete Multifaith Resource for Primary RE Judith Lowndes, 2012-03-12 The Complete Multifaith Resource for Primary Religious Education Ages 7 11 is a definitive teaching and learning aid for cross religious exploration in the classroom offering stimulating and detailed ways in which to apply a concepts based approach to the teaching of RE It provides a model for learning which engages children and encourages the development of higher order thinking skills and which can be applied to other subject areas in cross curricular settings

Comprising of a book and CD ROM The Complete Multifaith Resource features key concepts that underpin religious beliefs and practices and that are key to effective learning in RE for the target age level Each concept chapter provides a wealth of material which will enable teachers to lead their pupils through the learning experience Resources can be displayed on an interactive whiteboard for classroom viewing or alternatively printed out for pupils to use during individual and group activities requiring no further search for resources This includes stories pictures and questions to prompt discussion writing frames sort cards matching pairs and other engaging activities This indispensable tool provides a modern innovative and refreshing approach to teaching RE that has already proved to be effective in a large number of schools and can be applied to the effective delivery of an agreed syllabus for RE Each chapter is introduced by looking at the key concept from a Christian point of view and is then examined from the perspectives of the other major world faiths including Buddhism Judaism Islam Hinduism and Sikhism The Complete Multifaith Resource for Primary Religious Education Ages 7 11 will be of value not only to RE managers and leaders but also to primary phase teachers who may have little confidence or expertise in teaching RE Trainee teachers and those studying on education courses will also benefit from gaining a better understanding of the concepts based approach to the teaching of RE as expounded by the Hampshire Portsmouth and Southampton Agreed Syllabus

Fernandez,2017-05-05 When religious diversity is our reality radical hospitality to people of other faiths is not a luxury but a necessity More than necessary for our survival radical hospitality to religious diversity is necessary if we are to thrive as a global society By no means does the practice of hospitality in a multifaith world require that we be oblivious of our differences On the contrary it demands a respectful embrace of our differences because that s who we are Neither does radical hospitality require that we water down our commitment because faithfulness and openness are not contradictory We must be able to say with burning passion that we are open to the claims of other faiths because we are faithful to our religious heritage The essays in this book do not offer simply theological exhortations they offer specific ways of how we can become religiously competent citizens in a multifaith world Let s take the bold steps of radical openness with this book on our side Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1993-12 Bibliographic Guide to Education 1994 New York Public Library,New York Public Library Staff,1995 This guide lists materials catalogued by Columbia University Teachers College during 1994 with additional entries from the New York Public Library for selected publications in the field All aspects of education are covered including American elementary and secondary education higher adult education early childhood education history and philosophy of education international and comparative education administration education of the culturally disadvantaged and physically challenged education of minorities education of women and administrative reports of departments of education in the US and abroad The listing is intended as a supplement to the Dictionary Catalogue of the Teachers College Library Columbia University G K Hall 1970 Religion in Life Orientation Chrissie Steyn,2000 Multi religious education is a reality in today s classroom but very few educators have received training in this particular field The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2003 Boletin Internacional de Bibliografia Sobre Educacion

,1996 A Fresh Look at Islam in a Multi-Faith World Matthew L.N. Wilkinson,2014-10-30 WINNER Cheryl Frank Memorial Prize International Association of Critical Realism A Fresh Look at Islam in a Multi Faith World provides a comprehensively theorised and practical approach to thinking systematically and deeply about Islam and Muslims in a multi faith world It makes the case for a contemporary educational philosophy to help young Muslims surmount the challenges of post modernity and to transcend the hiatuses and obstacles that they face in their interaction and relationships with non Muslims and visa versa It argues that the philosophy of critical realism in its original dialectical and metaReal moments so fittingly underlabours Bhaskar 1975 for the contemporary interpretation clarification and conceptual deepening of Islamic doctrine practice and education as to suggest a distinctive branch of critical realist philosophy specifically suited for this purpose This approach is called Islamic Critical Realism The book proceeds to explain how this Islamic Critical Realist approach can serve the interpretation of the consensual elements of Islamic doctrine such as the six elements of Islamic belief and the five pillars of Islamic practice so that these essential features of the Muslim way of life can help Muslim young people to contribute positively to life in multi faith liberal democracies in a globalising world Finally the book shows how this Islamic Critical Realist approach can be brought to bear in humanities classrooms by history religious education and citizenship teachers to help Muslim young people engage informatively and transformatively with themselves and others in multi faith contexts

World Faiths in Education W. Owen Cole,2018-12-07 First published in 1978 The world religions movement gave way to a new form of religious education which was wide ranging in content and open in approach This development raised a number of issues How broad should the syllabus be Should Humanism and Marxism be included How should Christianity be taught What role has the believer of any one faith in the teaching of RE As curriculum development gathers momentum so the need to discuss such questions becomes urgent This book is devoted to examining the place of world faiths in education by members of a variety of faiths It will help students and teachers to think their way through the many challenges facing RE today The book argues a new framework for the subject The contributors hope that they have provided a sign post pointing to a future in which all who are concerned that children should grow up with an understanding of the ultimate meaning of life whatever their own faiths may be able to work together to make the subject vital and worthwhile
