Narrative Objects Tatiana Argounova-Low, Alison K. Brown, 2025-06-25 Narrative Objects is concerned with the conversations that arise when artists scholars and museum practitioners come together with historic objects Its focus is a unique mammoth ivory model of yhyakh the annual celebration of the Sakha people in the Russian Far East which has been in the collection of the British Museum since 1867 Almost 150 years later the model was loaned to the National Arts Museum of the Republic of Sakha Yakutia for exhibition and public engagement As Sakha people revisit past histories and reconstitute cultural knowledge following decades of Soviet rule this book considers narratives generated by the return of the model which speak to wider concerns in anthropology material culture studies and history about how knowledge is both suppressed and engaged with The book also explores how art can be a focus for cultural pride how skilled practices are entwined with oral histories and how historic objects can contribute to wider processes of cultural revival The chapters draw on fieldwork and museum and archival research in Sakha Sire Paris and London Narrative Objects is particularly relevant to scholars of anthropology and museum studies as well as those with an interest in the subarctic and post Soviet states The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2001 X-Radiography of Textiles, Dress and Related Objects Sonia O'Connor,Mary Brooks,2007-08-15 X radiography of textile objects reveals hidden features as well as unexpected components and materials This non destructive technique throws light on construction manufacturing techniques use wear repair patterns of decay and dating X radiography improves artefact documentation and interpretation as well as guiding conservation approaches by enhancing understanding This book explores techniques for X raying textiles It describes approaches to image interpretation and explains how through digitisation and digital image manipulation maximum information can be realised Case studies include archaeological ecclesiastical and ethnographic textiles items of dress and accessories upholstery quilts embroideries dolls and toys Museum professionals will find this stimulating book an essential guide for developing their own practice or commissioning textile X radiographs Library Youth Outreach Kerol Harrod,2014-01-23 With tightened library budgets the norm librarians run the risk of cutting back so much that they isolate themselves from their patrons and their communities This doesn t have to happen The outreach methods detailed in this book range from simple actions to detailed processes Each of the 26 chapters provides helpful information for both those new to library outreach and those with years of experience Thematic Activities and Patterns for the Early Childhood Classroom Beverly Ann Beckmann,1999 American Book Publishing Record ,2001 50 Fantastic Ideas for Creative Role Play Hayley Hughes,2017-07-27 Role play is a fun and creative way to engage with children in EYFS and is fundamental in developing children s learning and communication skills This new addition to the 50 Fantastic series is filled with great ways to make the most of play based learning in your environment Each activity is linked to children s interests and is designed to allow the child to learn create communicate and have fun Many of the scenarios involve an element of problem solving to encourage team work and the suggested props and locations are both easily sourced and well suited to Early Years schools and settings With a whole host of inspirational ideas with photos to match this book is the perfect starting point for creating an outstanding role play environment Establishing Dress History Lou Taylor,2004-05-07 Establishing Dress History will appeal not only to students and academics bt all those those with an interest in the history of dress and fashion The title fuses together two areas of current academic interest dress design and history and current museum studies approaches Book Review Index ,2003 Vols 8 10 of the 1965 1984 master cumulation constitute a title index Irresistible Joshua

Paul Dale, 2023-10-26 Why are some things cute and others not? What happens to our brains when we see something cute? And how did cuteness go global from Hello Kitty to Disney characters? Cuteness is an area where culture and biology get tangled up. Seeing a cute animal triggers some of the most powerful psychological instincts we have: the ones that elicit our care and protection. But there is a deeper story behind the broad appeal of Japanese cats and saccharine greetings cards. Joshua Paul Dale, a pioneer in the burgeoning field of cuteness studies, explains how the cute aesthetic spread around the globe from pop brands to Lolita fashion, kids' cartoons, and the unstoppable rise of Hello Kitty. Irresistible delves into the surprisingly ancient origins of Japan's kawaii culture and uncovers the cross-cultural pollination of the globalised world. If adorable things really do rewire our brains, it can help answer some of the biggest questions we have about our evolutionary history and the mysterious origins of animal domestication. This is the fascinating cultural history of cuteness and a revealing look at how our most powerful psychological impulses have remade global style and culture. Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001
