Making Capitalism Without Capitalists The New Ruling Elites In Eastern Europe:

Making Capitalism Without Capitalists Gil Eyal, Ivan Szelenyi, Eleanor R. Townsley, 2000 Explores class formation and elite struggles in post communist Central Europe

Making Capitalism Without Capitalists Gil Eyal, Iván Szelényi, Eleanor R. Townsley, 1998 Making Capitalism without Capitalists offers a new theory of the transition to capitalism By telling the story of how capitalism is being built without capitalists in post communist Central Europe it guides us towards a deeper understanding of the origins of modern capitalism

Capitalist Diversity on Europe's Periphery Dorothee Bohle, Bela Greskovits, 2012-08-15 With the collapse of the Council for Mutual Economic Assistance in 1991 the Eastern European nations of the former socialist bloc had to figure out their newly capitalist future Capitalism they found was not a single set of political economic relations Rather they each had to decide what sort of capitalist nation to become In Capitalist Diversity on Europe's Periphery Dorothee Bohle and Bela Greskovits trace the form that capitalism took in each country the assets and liabilities left behind by socialism the transformational strategies embraced by political and technocratic elites and the influence of transnational actors and institutions They also evaluate the impact of three regional shocks the recession of the early 1990s the rolling global financial crisis that started in July 1997 and the political shocks that attended EU enlargement in 2004 Bohle and Greskovits show that the postsocialist states have established three basic variants of capitalist political economy neoliberal embedded neoliberal and neocorporatist The Baltic states followed a neoliberal prescription low controls on capital open markets reduced provisions for social welfare The larger states of central and eastern Europe Poland Hungary and the Czech and Slovak republics have used foreign investment to stimulate export industries but retained social welfare regimes and substantial government power to enforce industrial policy Slovenia has proved to be an outlier successfully mixing competitive industries and neocorporatist social inclusion Bohle and Greskovits also describe the political contention over such arrangements in Romania Bulgaria and Croatia A highly original and theoretically sophisticated typology of capitalism in postsocialist Europe this book is unique in the breadth and depth of its conceptually coherent and empirically rich comparative analysis

Inventing the Needy Lynne Haney, 2002-06-03 In her beautifully written deeply researched and elegantly argued book Lynne Haney shows how much American policy makers can learn from Hungary's social welfare experience By unpacking the very different strategies that Hungary has adopted during the past half century Haney's account illuminates basic policy choices about how a society any society addresses the problems of poverty It makes indispensable reading for those on both sides of the Atlantic who care about the lives of the poor David Kirp author of Gender Justice Inventing the Needy is a theoretically engaged and methodologically innovative ethnography of Hungarian welfare regimes from 1948 to 1996 Studying the state from below her multi layered and multi sited analysis of the transformations in state policies and institutional practices and their effects on everyday life is an important contribution to comparative studies of welfare states the social construction of the materialization and materialization of need as well as to critical socialist postsocialist and feminist studies Well written lucidly argued thoughtful and thought provoking Gail Kligman author of The Politics of Duplicity Controlling Reproduction in Ceausescu's Romania Inventing the Needy stands at the forefront of a new generation of revisionist scholarship It dispenses with the sharp dichotomies of capitalism and communism and forsakes triumphal interpretations of the transition to the free market and liberal democracy Looking at Hungary through the eyes of women and their experiences with successive welfare regimes Lynne Haney offers a more balanced and variegated picture of the state socialist past and a more sober account of the capitalist present Inventing the Needy is a brilliant combination of ethnography history and theory Michael Burawoy co author of Global Ethnography Forces Connections and Imaginations in a Postmodern World Lynne Haney's provocative original and altogether brilliant study of welfare restructuring in Hungary in the wake of 1989 challenges us to rethink gender states and social policies in both east and west while providing essential conceptual tools for doing so Ann Shola Orloff coauthor of States Markets Families Gender Liberalism and Social Policy in Australia Canada Great Britain and the United States This important book engages the central issue sociology faces after the fall of communism Inventing the Needy is a careful empirically well documented and beautifully written analysis of the Hungarian welfare system during and after socialism Haney shows that a critical analysis of capitalism is possible from the perspective of a socialist alternative even today She challenges transitologists who often contrast an idealized capitalist present with a homogeneous and negative view of socialism This book is a must for those interested in theoretical debates about socialism and capitalism and in the welfare state and gender relations under and after socialism Ivan Szelenyi author of Privatizing the Land Rural Political Economy in Post Communist and Socialist Societies and co author of Making Capitalism without Capitalists Class Formation and Elite Struggles in Post Communist Central Europe China's Domestic Private Firms: Anne S. Tsui, Yanjie Bian, 2014-12-18

One of the most important outcomes of market reforms in China over the past 20 years has been the emergence of a significant domestic private sector which now accounts for almost a third of China's GDP and is by far the country's most important source of employment growth This book is the first in depth analysis of the management and operation of these domestic private firms which are defined as companies or organizations created by PRC citizens including township enterprises and collectives The book provides a comprehensive and multidisciplinary perspective on the factors important to the successful operation and growth of these firms It begins with a review of the literature on the topic in three different disciplines economics sociology and management each followed by several chapters covering recent developments in these areas Featuring contributions by distinguished scholars and China experts the work concludes with an insightful chapter on the future of China's public sector in the global economy Realist Biography and European Policy Jeffrey David Turk, Adam Mrozowicki, 2013-12-11 Realist Biography and European Policy is the first concerted attempt to integrate the separate strands of critical realism as a developed philosophy for social science with biographical narrative methods as a concrete methodological approach The main goal is to demonstrate that the combination of critical realism and biographical methods is not only possible but it is exceptionally well suited for the exploration of newly emerging research fields within European policy studies This volume offers new insights to and is an indispensable reference for researchers in search of solid underpinnings for their own empirical research Foreword by Miriam Kennet Director of the Green Economics Institute Founder and Editor of the International Journal of Green Economics Contributors Tatiana Bajuk Sen ar Scientific Research Centre of the Slovenian Academy of Sciences and Arts Institute of Slovenian Ethnology Bob Carter University of Leicester Department of Sociology Prue Chamberlayne Open University Faculty of Health and Social Care Markieta Domecka independent researcher Norbert Kluge coordinator and adviser for the European Works Council of ThyssenKrupp AG Lyudmila Nurse director of Oxford XXI Elisabetta Perone University of Naples Federico II Valeria Pulignano Centre for Sociological Research KU Leuven Antonella Span University of Naples Federico II Tom Wengraf Middlesex University

Ambiguous Transitions Jill Massino, 2019-07-30 Focusing on youth family work and consumption Ambiguous Transitions analyzes the interplay between gender and citizenship postwar Romania By juxtaposing official sources with oral histories and socialist policies with everyday practices Jill Massino illuminates the gendered dimensions of socialist modernization and its complex effects on women's roles relationships and identities Analyzing women as subjects and agents the book examines how they negotiated the challenges that arose as Romanian society modernized even as it clung to traditional ideas about gender Massino concludes by exploring the ambiguities of postsocialism highlighting how the legacies of the past have shaped politics and women's lived experiences since 1989 Lustration and Transitional Justice Roman David, 2011-09-21 How do transitional democracies deal with officials who have been tainted by complicity with prior governments Should they be excluded or should they be incorporated into the new system In Lustration and Transitional Justice Roman David examines major institutional innovations that developed in Central Europe following the collapse of communist regimes While the Czech Republic approved a lustration vetting law based on the traditional method of dismissals Hungary and Poland devised alternative models that granted their tainted officials a second chance in exchange for truth David classifies personnel systems as exclusive inclusive and reconciliatory they are based on dismissal exposure and confession respectively and they represent three major classes of transitional justice David argues that in addition to their immediate purposes personnel systems carry symbolic meanings that help explain their origin and shape their effects In their effort to purify public life personnel systems send different ideological messages that affect trust in government and the social standing of former adversaries Exclusive systems may establish trust at the expense of reconciliation while inclusive and reconciliatory systems may promote both trust and reconciliation In spite of its importance the topic of inherited personnel has received only limited attention in research on transitional justice and democratization Lustration and Transitional Justice is the first attempt to fill this gap Combining insights from cultural sociology and political psychology with the analysis of original experiments historical surveys parliamentary debates and interviews the book shows how perceptions of tainted personnel affected the origin of lustration systems and how dismissal exposure and confession affected trust in government reconciliation and collective memory Radical Political Economy: A Concise Introduction Charles A. Barone, 2015-03-26 This straightforward introduction to radical political economy strikes a balance between breadth and depth and was written for the beginning student and others interested in a relatively short text on radical economics

Local Environmental Regulation in Post-Socialism: A Hungarian Case Study Chris G. Pickvance, 2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2003 This text examines Hungarian local environmental regulation in practice rather than what should happen according to national legislation The book is based on interviews with officials regulators firm managers and environmental groups in four localities in Hungary and on a national survey of local government officials Numerous quotations from interviews are included It is shown that the local social and economic context influences the behaviour of both local governments and regional environmental inspectorates Firms responsiveness to regulation is studied and it is shown that while some firms are ready to pay moderate environmental fines others are afraid of even symbolic fines The findings are set within debates in the international literature on environmental regulation It is shown that there are convergences with patterns reported in developed capitalist societies but that certain legacies from state socialism are compatible with these patterns The Soviet Elite from Lenin to Gorbachev Evan Mawdsley, Stephen White, 2000-03-09 This ground breaking book examines the Soviet ruling elite over the entire period of Communist rule It serves as a collective biography of nearly two thousand people who served on the Communist Party's Central Committee from 1917 to 1991 The book is based on archival research only available after the collapse of communism and extensive interviews with former Central Committee members The Red Riviera Kristen Ghodsee, 2005-11-02 A study of the changes in women's roles in postcommunist Bulgarian society and the workplace focusing on the tourism industry

Transformation and European Integration B. Dallago, 2006-07-13 The Balkan countries have been looking for good examples and ideas to pursue development and internal integration in destabilized and ethnically complex and conflicting areas This book about transformation in the framework of European outlines the path of the Balkans to European integration Handbook of Post-Western Sociology: From East Asia to Europe , 2023-04-03 Beyond hegemonic thoughts the Post Western sociology enables a new dialogue between East Asia China Japan Korea and Europe on common and local knowledge to consider theoretical continuities and discontinuities to develop transnational methodological spaces and co produce creolized concepts With this new paradigm in social sciences we introduce the multiplication of epistemic autonomies vis vis Western hegemony and new theoretical assemblages between East Asia and European sociologies From this ecology of knowledge this groundbreaking contribution is to coproduce a post Western space in a cross pollination process where Western and non Western knowledge do interact articulated through cosmovisions as well as to coproduce transnational fieldwork practices

The Selection of Ministers around the World Keith Dowding, Patrick Dumont, 2014-08-13 Governing cabinets are composed of ministers who come and go even as governments march on. They work for the chief executive, the prime minister or the president for their parties and for the constituent groups from which they come. They are chosen for their role and dismissed from it for all sorts of reasons that vary across time and country. This book examines the process of selection, shuffling and removal of ministers in national cabinets around the world. Drawing on original data over several decades, it offers a series of case studies of countries from around the world with differing institutional and cultural structures, including presidential and semi-presidential systems and parliamentary unitary and federal systems, some of which have experienced periods under authoritarian regimes. Featuring 14 case studies on North and South America, Asia, Africa, Australia and New Zealand, this book complements the earlier volume The Selection of Ministers in Europe (Routledge, 2009). This volume will be an important reference for students and scholars of political science, government executives, comparative politics and political parties.

The Politics of Europeanization and Post-Socialist Transformations N. Lindström, 2014-12-12 This study examines conflicts arising from the dual processes of Europeanization and post-socialist transformations from gaining independence in 1991 to facing the current economic crisis. Through an in-depth comparison of Estonia and Slovenia over time, it shows how elite actors within these two very different welfare capitalist states resisted EU pressures to change their cohesive and successful national models.

Czech Democracy in Crisis Astrid Lorenz, Hana Formánková, 2020-04-13

Democracy theories and comparative political science have been challenged within the last decade by an unexpected democratic deficit and the rise of populism in the new EU member states. This volume, written by German and Czech scholars, gives some food for thought for solving these research problems by means of thorough analyses of the polity, the politics and selected policies of the Czech Republic since 1990. Dieter Segert, retired Professor of Political Science, Area Studies on Eastern Europe, University of Vienna, Austria. Czech Democracy in Crisis is a long overdue comprehensive study of the Czech political system. Using institutional approaches to change, it explores crucial policy outcomes. A perfect book for academics and practitioners who want to understand the challenges of democratic consolidation in a new democracy. Lenka Bustiková, Associate Professor of Political Science, Arizona State University, USA, and author of Extreme Reactions: Radical Right Mobilization in Eastern Europe. The image of the Czechs as a poster child of democratization has changed into a crisis narrative in recent years. This edited volume traces this change and examines the suitability of different theories to explain developments in Czech democracy. The contributors, all renowned experts in their fields, offer well-founded and compact insights into the post-1989 Czech political system. They cover political institutions and parties, civil society, the media and selected policy areas such as foreign economic migration and regional policy. The book takes into account processes of democratization and Europeanization, explaining the political picture at various stages of development. Finding that many of today's problems—fragmented political parties, government instability, inefficient state administration and low quality of governance have not been new developments but have constantly existed the authors present a plea for theoretical adjustments that should be read by all academics students practitioners and readers with an interest in Czech politics and society

The Transnational Politics of Corporate Governance Regulation Henk Overbeek, Bastiaan van Apeldoorn, Andreas Nölke, 2007-04-30 This ambitious volume explores the politics of recent changes in corporate governance regulation and the transnational forces driving the process Corporate governance has in the 1990s become a catchphrase of the global business community The Enron collapse and other recent corporate scandals as well as growing worries in Europe about the rise of Anglo Saxon finance have made issues of corporate governance the subject of political controversies and of public debate The contributors argue that the regulation of corporate governance is an inherently political affair Given the context of the deepening globalization of the corporate world it is also increasingly a transnational phenomenon In terms of the content of regulation the book shows an increasing reliance on the application of market mechanisms and a tendency for corporations themselves to become commodities The emerging new mode of regulation is characterized by increasing informalization and by forms of private regulation These changes in content and mode are driven by transnational actors first of all the owners of internationally mobile financial capital and their functionaries such as coordination service firms as well as by key public international agencies such as the European Commission The Transnational Politics of Corporate Governance Regulation will be of interest to students and researchers of international political economy politics economics and corporate governance

Towards a Normal Stratification Order Ellu Saar, 2011 From a historical perspective the period between the fall of the Berlin Wall 1989 until the Wall Street crash of 2008 was brief but the social changes were far reaching and resulted in the profound alteration of institutional frameworks of post socialist societies in Central and East European countries e g Estonia This book examines the transformation of Estonian society concentrating on changes in the stratification order The re distribution of the risks and opportunities between different groups in Estonian society the most neoliberal in the European Union and the perceptions about fairness of the most radical changes in post socialist world are the main issues of this volume

Constructing the Limits of Europe Rumena Filipova, 2022-04-30 This comparative study harks back to the revolutionary year of 1989 and asks two critical questions about the resulting reconfiguration of Europe in the aftermath of the collapse of communism Why did Central and East European states display such divergent outcomes of their socio political transitions Why did three of those states Poland Bulgaria and Russia differ so starkly in terms of the pace and extent of their integration into Europe Rumena Filipova argues that Poland s Bulgaria s and Russia s dominating conceptions of national identity have principally shaped these countries foreign policy behavior after 1989 Such an explanation of these three nations diverging degrees of Europeanization stands in contrast to institutionalist rationalist interest based accounts of democratic transition and international integration in post communist Europe She thereby makes a case for the need to include ideational factors into the study of International Relations and demonstrates that identities are not easily malleable and may not be as fluid as often assumed She proposes a theoretical middle ground argument that calls for qualified post positivism as an integrated perspective that combines positivist and post positivist orientations in the study of IR
