Making Faces Playing God Identity And The Art Of Transformational Makeup:

Making Faces, Playing God Thomas Morawetz,2001 Making Faces, Playing God Thomas Morawetz,2013-04-01

Wearing a mask putting on another face embodies a fundamental human fantasy of inhabiting other bodies and experiencing other lives In this extensively illustrated book Thomas Morawetz explores how the creation of transformational makeup for theatre movies and television fulfills this fantasy of self transformation and satisfies the human desire to become the other Morawetz begins by discussing the cultural role of fantasies of transformation and what these fantasies reveal about questions of personal identity He next turns to professional makeup artists and describes their background training careers and especially the techniques they use to create their art Then with numerous before during and after photos of transformational makeups from popular and little known shows and movies ads and artist s demos and portfolios he reveals the art and imagination that go into six kinds of mask making representing demons depicting aliens inventing disguises transforming actors into different older heavier disfigured versions of themselves and creating historical or mythological characters Appreciation Post Tara Ward,2024-04-30

What does an art history of Instagram look like Appreciation Post reveals how Instagram shifts long established ways of interacting with images Tara Ward argues Instagram is a structure of the visual which includes not just the process of looking but what can be seen and by whom She examines features of Instagram use including the effect of scrolling through images on a phone the skill involved in taking an Instagram worthy picture and the desires created by following influencers to explain how the constraints imposed by Instagram limit the selves that can be displayed on it The proliferation of technical knowledge especially among younger women revitalizes on Instagram the myth of the masculine genius and a corresponding reinvigoration of a masculine audience for art Ward prompts scholars of art history gender studies and media studies to attend to Instagram as a site of visual expression and social consequence Through its insightful comparative analysis and acute close reading Appreciation Post argues for art history s value in understanding the contemporary world and the visual nature of identity today Special Makeup

Rethinking Horror in the New Economies of Television Stella Marie Gaynor, 2022-06-07 This book explores the cycle of horror on US television in the decade following the launch of The Walking Dead considering the horror genre from an industrial perspective Examining TV horror through rich industrial and textual analysis this book reveals the strategies and ambitions of cable and network channels as well as Netflix and Shudder with regards to horror serialization Selected case studies including American Horror Story The Haunting of Hill House Creepshow Ash vs Evil Dead and

Hannibal explore horror drama and the utilization of genre cult and classic horror texts as well as the exploitation of fan practice in the changing economic landscape of contemporary US television In the first detailed exploration of graphic horror special effects as a marker of technical excellence and how these skills are used for the promotion of TV horror drama

Gaynor makes the case that horror has become a cornerstone of US television Early Race Filmmaking in America

Barbara Lupack,2016-05-26 The early years of the twentieth century were a formative time in the long history of struggle for black representation More than any other medium movies reflected the tremendous changes occurring in American society Unfortunately since they drew heavily on the nineteenth century theatrical conventions of blackface minstrelsy and the Uncle Tom Show traditions early pictures persisted in casting blacks in demeaning and outrageous caricatures that marginalized and burlesqued them and emphasized their comic or servile behavior By contrast race films that is movies that were black cast black oriented and viewed primarily by black audiences in segregated theaters attempted to counter the crude stereotyping and regressive representations by presenting more authentic racial portrayals This volume examines race filmmaking from numerous perspectives By reanimating a critical but neglected period of early cinema the years between the turn of the century and 1930 the end of the silent film era it provides a fascinating look at the efforts of early race film pioneers and offers a vibrant portrait of race and racial representation in American film and culture Art Journal ,1960

The Art Bulletin ,2002 Includes section Notes and reviews Magic and Illusion in the Movies George

Higham,2024-11-13 From top hats to top secrets this book is a celebration of illusion technology and mechanisms of trickery through a genre crossing selection of films Heroes villains spies con men and madmen magicians all have utilized complex constructs and trickery in thrilling cinematic adventures from the earliest days of cinema to the present Current blockbusters such as Spider Man Far from Home and the Mission Impossible series feature amazing acts of deception often appearing far fetched that are in fact surprisingly close to today s technology Along with the James Bond saga classics such as The Wizard of Oz Nightmare Alley and The Sting are joined by a host of other movies superficially seeming to be very different yet proving there is more than meets the eye

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
