The American Heritage Dictionary of Idioms, Second Edition Christine Ammer, 2013 Fifteen years after the publication of the first edition of the American Heritage R Dictionary of Idioms author Christine Ammer has extensively updated and expanded her original text making over 1500 revisions and adding hundreds of new entries such as couch potato elephant in the room senior moment and think outside the box to keep up with the rapidly changing English language

Early American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases Bartlett Jere Whiting, 1977 p B J Whiting savors proverbial expressions and has devoted much of his lifetime to studying and collecting them no one knows more about British and American proverbs than he The present volume based upon writings in British North America from the earliest settlements to approximately 1820 complements his and Archer Taylor s Dictionary of American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases 1820 1880 It differs from that work and from other standard collections however in that its sources are primarily not literary but instead workaday writings letters diaries histories travel books political pamphlets and the like The authors represent a wide cross section of the populace from scholars and statesmen to farmers shopkeepers sailors and hunters Mr Whiting has combed all the obvious sources and hundreds of out of the way publications of local journals and historical societies This body of material because it covers territory that has not been extracted and compiled in a scholarly way before can justly be said to be the most valuable of all those that Whiting has brought together according to Albert B Friedman What makes the work important is Whiting's authority a proverb or proverbial phrase is what BJW thinks is a proverb or proverbial phrase There is no objective operative definition of any value no divining rod his tact feel experience determine what's the real thing and what is spurious

Brother Jonathan Horatio Hastings Weld, John Neal, George M. Snow, Edward Stephens, 1842 On the Slow Train Again Michael Williams, 2011-04-07 Michael Williams has spent the past year travelling along the fascinating rail byways of Britain for this new collection of journeys Here is the train to the end of the world running for more than four splendid hours through lake loch and moorland from Inverness to Wick the most northerly town in Britain He discovers a perfect country branch line in London's commuterland and travels on one of the slowest services in the land along the shores of the lovely Dovey estuary to the far west of Wales He takes the stopping train across the Pennines on a line with so few services that its glorious scenery is a secret known only to the regulars Here too is the Bittern Line in Norfolk and the Tarka Line in North Devon as well as the little branch line to the fishing port of Looe in Cornwall rescued from closure in the 1960s and now celebrating its 150th anniversary taking families on holiday to the seaside From the most luxurious and historic aboard the Orient Express to the most futuristic on the driverless trains of London's Docklands Light Railway here is a unique travel companion celebrating the treasures of our railway heritage from one of Britain's most knowledgeable railway writers
