

Human Body: Nervous System

The nervous system is made up of the central nervous system and peripheral nervous system. These systems work together to collect and interpret data from the body's internal and external environment and control responses.

Central Nervous System

The central nervous system (CNS) manages the body's essential functions. Made up of the brain and spinal cord, the CNS receives sensory information and coordinates an appropriate response.

Peripheral Nervous System

The peripheral nervous system (PNS) connects the CNS to the rest of the body. Nerves branch out from the brain and spinal cord, extending to the organs, muscles, and other parts of the body.

Neurons are highly specialized cells that transmit chemical and electrical information in the body. Neurons use short, branched extensions called dendrites to receive nerve impulses from surrounding cells. These messages then travel through the cell body to the axon, a threadlike structure. The impulse moves through the axon and is transmitted via chemical or electrical signals that pass through a synapse.

Neuron

Neurotransmitters are chemicals that relay signals between neurons and bodily tissues. Neurotransmitters include adrenaline, dopamine, and endorphins.

The Whispers of the Nervous System Pasquale De Marco,2025-07-23 The nervous system is a complex and fascinating network that plays a vital role in every aspect of our lives From our physical health to our mental well being the nervous system is responsible for regulating a wide range of functions including movement breathing digestion and even our thoughts and emotions In recent years there has been growing interest in the role of the nervous system in our overall health and well being This has led to the development of a new field of study called neurospeak which explores the ways in which we can use language to communicate with our nervous system and promote healing and transformation Neurospeak is based on the idea that the words we use have a powerful impact on our nervous system By choosing our words carefully we can create positive neural pathways that support our health and well being Conversely using negative or self limiting language can create negative neural pathways that can lead to a variety of health problems The good news is that we can learn to use neurospeak to rewire our nervous system and create positive change in our lives By understanding the principles of neurospeak we can learn to speak to our nervous system in a way that promotes healing and well being This book is a comprehensive guide to neurospeak It will teach you the basics of neurospeak including how to identify and break negative neural patterns create new neural pathways for positive change and use neurospeak to improve your physical mental and emotional health Whether you are new to neurospeak or you are already familiar with its principles this book will provide you with valuable insights and practical tools that you can use to improve your health and well being So what are you waiting for Start reading today and discover the power of neurospeak This book is perfect for anyone who is interested in improving their health and well being It is also a valuable resource for healthcare professionals educators and anyone who works with people who are struggling with physical mental or emotional health challenges If you like this book write a review

Making a Stand for Animals Oscar Horta,2022-06-23 Engaging and thought provoking this book examines how humans see and treat other animals and argues that we should extend equal consideration and respect to all beings human and nonhuman alike Our world is plighted by isms such as racism and sexism but we may have overlooked a very important one speciesism Speciesism is a form of discrimination against those who don't belong to a certain species It drives us to see nonhuman animals as objects rather than individuals with their own interests and with the ability to feel and suffer This book questions all of the assumptions speciesism is based upon It raises many challenging questions over humans very complicated attitudes toward other animals Thinking about how animals are used as well as the suffering of wild animals and what the future may be for all beings this book calls for society to seriously take into account the interests of all animals For all who care about animals or simply how to make the world a better place this book is essential reading

Genetic Manipulation of the Nervous System, 1995-11-24 Neuroscience Perspectives provides multidisciplinary reviews of topics in one of the most diverse and rapidly advancing fields in the life sciences Whether you are a new recruit to neuroscience or an established expert look to this series for one stop sources of the historical physiological pharmacological biochemical molecular biological and therapeutic aspects of chosen research areas The recent development of Gene Therapy procedures which allow specific genes to be delivered to human patients who lack functional copies of them is of major therapeutic importance In addition such gene delivery methods can be used in other organisms to define the function of particular genes These studies are of particular interest in the nervous system where there are many incurable diseases like Alzheimer's and Parkinson's diseases which may benefit from therapies of this kind Unfortunately gene delivery methods for use in the nervous system have lagged behind those in other systems due to the fact that the methods developed in other systems are often not applicable to cells like neurons which do not divide This book discusses a wide range of methods which have now been developed to overcome these problems and allow safe and efficient delivery of particular genes to the brain Methods discussed include virological methods physical methods such as liposomes and the transplantation of genetically modified cells In a single volume therefore this book provides a complete view of these methods and indicates how they can be applied activities are handled by the reptilian brain more protective functions such as fighting fleeing feeding and reproductive behaviour are handled by the primitive emotional brain and higher functions are handled by the intellectual brain In terms of physical parts of the brain these three areas more or less match up to the brain stem and cerebellum the limbic system and the cerebral cortex It also assumes that the primitive emotional brain is very fast and the intellectual brain is much slower and tends to be used less
