both of which experienced civil war while the boundary commission was subverted In the North a control system organized the new majority behind a dominant party that won all elections to the Belfast parliament until its abolition in 1972 The Ulster Unionist Party successfully disorganized Northern nationalists and Catholics Bolstered by the Specials a militia created from the Ulster Volunteer Force this system displayed a pathological version of the Westminster model of democracy which may reproduce one party dominance and enforce national ethnic religious and cultural discrimination How the Unionist elite improvised this control regime and why it collapsed under the impact of a civil rights movement in the 1960s take center stage in this second volume of A Treatise on Northern Ireland The North's trajectory is paired and compared with the Irish Free State's incremental decolonization and restoration of a Republic Irish state building however took place at the expense of the limited prospect of persuading Ulster Protestants that Irish reunification was in their interests or consistent with their identities Northern Ireland was placed under British direct rule in 1972 while counter insurgency practices applied elsewhere in its diminishing empire were deployed from 1969 with disastrous consequences On January 1 1973 however the UK and Ireland joined the then European Economic Community Many hoped that would help end conflict in and over Northern Ireland Such hopes were premature Northern Ireland appeared locked in a stalemate of political violence punctuated by failed political initiatives

The McNair-Flemming Years, Volume 2 James G. Long, 2024-05-17 The McNair Fleming Years Volume 2 relates a shift of influence by the print media Newspaper reporting of peacetime events had always expressed a known degree of partisan views but these suddenly became toxic The result was a transition of political news from predictable to untrustworthy to outrageous and to propaganda There was an evolution away from text heavy political advertising based on achievements to an emphasis on the personality of leadership In his last public speech before the 1952 election Premier J B McNair said with confidence integrity and honesty will win for the Liberal Party and he was wrong The image of Premier Hugh John Fleming 1952-1960 was carefully monitored by political campaign manager Dalton Camp speechwriter Kenneth Carson and PC Party bagman Ewart Atkinson Party propaganda and priority news cycle coverage for the new premier were maintained by Michael Wardell the editor owner of Fredericton's Daily Gleaner newspaper and the monthly periodical Atlantic Advocate While his predecessor was challenged with significant international events the affable outgoing Mr Fleming could concentrate on local events his obsession with building of the Beechwood Dam and his own self promotion He governed over a period of substantially increased debt while holding fast to the belief that the path to prosperity was through increased Federal financial support
