Effective lesson planning is a crucial skill for all primary school teachers and is key to fostering engaging and focused learning So how can new teachers ensure that their plans are motivating and impactful so that their students can make good progress This book serves as a comprehensive roadmap for planning dynamic and effective English lessons and clearly explains key principles and concepts that underpin effective teaching in all aspects of the primary English curriculum Covering a wide range of topics this book discusses how to plan compelling lessons on teaching phonics comprehension grammar spoken language and more as well as adaptive teaching for an inclusive classroom It identifies the key decisions new teachers who are planning their own lessons for the first time must consider to execute well structured lessons and suggests how these can be tailored to meet the needs of all learners Whether you re on a university based path PGCE BEd BA with QTS or exploring school based routes School Direct SCITT Teach First or an Early Career Teacher this book is essential reading to transforming lesson planning from a challenge into a creative and effective teaching tool Kirstie Hewett is a senior lecturer in primary English at the University of Chichester      Rehabilitation Work Hannah Graham,2016-05-26

Conversations about rehabilitation and how to address the drugs crime nexus have been dominated by academics and policymakers without due recognition of the experience and knowledge of practitioners Not enough is known about the cultures and conditions in which rehabilitation occurs Why is it that significant numbers of practitioners are leaving the alcohol and other drugs field while disproportionate numbers of criminal justice practitioners are on leave Rehabilitation Work provides a unique insight into what happens behind the closed doors of prisons probation and parole offices drug rehabs and recovery support services drawing on research from Australia This book is among the first to provide a dedicated empirical examination of the interface between the concurrent processes of desistance from crime and recovery from substance misuse and the implications for rehabilitation work Hannah Graham uses practitioner interviews workforce data and researcher observations to reveal compelling differences between official accounts of rehabilitation work and what practitioners actually do in practice Practitioners express a desire to be the change rather than being subject to change actively co producing progressive reforms instead of passively coping with funding cutbacks and interagency politics Applied examples of how practitioners collaborate lead and innovate in the midst of challenging work are complemented with evocative illustrations of insider humour and professional resilience This book is a key resource for students academics and practitioners across fields including criminology and criminal justice social work psychology counselling and addiction treatment
