Making Integrated Curriculum Work:

Making Integrated Curriculum Work P. Elizabeth Pate, Elaine R. Homestead, Karen L. McGinnis, 1997 Grade level 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 e i s t Creating Standards-Based Integrated Curriculum Susan M. Drake, 2012-05-08 In this completely revised and updated edition of Susan Drake's classic text on integrated curriculum the author provides a new approach to standards based curriculum instruction and assessment Creating an Inclusive School Richard A. Villa, 2005 In this comprehensive resource on inclusive schooling administrators general and special educators and parents explore how inclusive education can support a diverse student body at all grade levels They show how schools can meet standards and provide a least restrictive environment for students with disabilities by using cooperative learning teaming multi age grouping multicultural education social skills training and educational technology applications And they explain how to facilitate change by using universal design principles and other curricular instructional assessment and organizational practices The authors examine the prevailing myths and the most frequently asked questions about inclusive education and they provide an extensive list of resources Woven through the book are the personal stories of people with disabilities and the educators and parents who work with them As their voices make clear inclusion is more than an educational buzzword inclusion is a way of life based on the belief that each individual is valued and belongs Creating Integrated Curriculum Susan M. Drake, 1998-10-15 This book brings integrated curriculum into sharp focus and helps you find a curriculum model that can work for your school Resources in Education , 2001 Making Skill Standards Work , 1999 Making Reform Work Robert Zemsky, 2009-08-11 Making Reform Work is a practical narrative of ideas that begins by describing who is saying what about American higher education who's angry who's disappointed and why Most of the pleas for changing American colleges and universities that originate outside the academy are lamentations on a small number of too often repeated themes The critique from within the academy focuses on issues principally involving money and the power of the market to change colleges and universities Sandwiched between these perspectives is a public that still has faith in an enterprise that it really doesn't understand Robert Zemsky one of a select group of scholars who participated in Secretary of Education Margaret Spellings's 2005 Commission on the Future of Higher Education signed off on the commission's report with reluctance In Making Reform Work he presents the ideas he believes should have come from that group to forge a practical agenda for change Zemsky argues that improving higher education will require enlisting faculty leadership on the one hand and on the other a strategy for changing the higher education system writ large Directing his attention from what can't be done to what can be done Zemsky provides numerous suggestions These include a renewed effort to help students performance in high schools and a stronger focus on the science of active learning not just teaching methods He concludes by suggesting a series of dislodging events for example making a three year baccalaureate the standard undergraduate degree congressional rethinking of student aid in the wake of the loan scandal and a change in the rules governing endowments that could break the gridlock that today holds higher education reform captive Making Reform Work offers three rules for successful college and university transformation don't vilify don't play games and come to the table with a well thought out strategy rather than a sharply worded lamentation Clustering Standards in Integrated Units Diane L. Ronis, 2008 This book provides a wealth of information for teachers who are seeking new ways to meet the needs of all learners for high academic achievement Marguerita K DeSander Assistant Professor of Leadership and Policy Studies The George Washington University Using this book as part of the alignment process will greatly enhance any classroom curriculum Joen M Painter Education Consultant Develop integrated meaningful units that engage students and address multiple standards Using a student oriented approach Clustering Standards in Integrated Units Second Edition offers guidelines for designing interdisciplinary units that combine content areas address standards and involve students in their own learning and assessment Diane L Ronis offers a framework for organizing implementing and evaluating units and provides sample rubrics templates and reproducibles for the planning process Drawing on a constructivist approach and geared to meet students individual learning needs the text demonstrates how to Integrate content across multiple curriculum areas Make instruction meaningful using new information about how the brain works Encourage students to pose and investigate questions relevant to the real world Access specific Web sites for meeting state standards This book helps seasoned and novice teachers facilitate collaborative learning with teams of students and assist them in making significant connections between their own experiences and events in the real world Literacy in America Barbara J. Guzzetti, 2002-12-02 The definitive encyclopedic resource on literacy literacy instruction and literacy assessment in the United States Once upon a time the three Rs sufficed Not any more not for students not for Americans Gone the way of the little red school house is simple reading and writing instruction Surveying an increasingly complex discipline Literacy in America An Encyclopedia offers a comprehensive overview of all the latest trends in literacy education conceptual understanding of texts familiarity with electronic content and the ability to create meaning from visual imagery and media messages Educators and academicians call these skills multiple literacies shorthand for the kind of literacy skills and abilities needed in an age of information overload media hype and Internet connectedness With its 400 A Z entries researched by experts and written in accessible prose Literacy in America is the only reference tool students teachers and parents will need to understand what it means to be and become literate in 21st century America Research and Resources in Support of This We Believe Vincent A. Anfara, P. Gayle Andrews, 2003 Designing Interdisciplinary Curriculum in Middle, Junior High, and High Schools Richard E. Maurer, 1994 Section One describes current research concerning interdisciplinary curriculum Section Two contains 23 examples of successful interdisciplinary curricula that can be used in middle schools or junior high schools Section Three presents 19 interdisciplinary curricula at high school level Section Four TAKING ACTION IN SCIENCE CLASSROOMS THROUGH COLLABORATIVE ACTION RESEARCH Karen

Goodnough,2011-10-23 This book provides an introduction to the nature of collaborative action research explains how to engage in the action research process and offers readers insights into how collaborative action research may be embedded in everyday classroom practice The latter objective will be accomplished by engaging the reader with four case studies about teachers who took part in collaborative action research Each case study focuses on teacher beliefs about science teaching and learning how school based teams of teachers develop and implement plans of action in their classrooms and how action research results in changes teacher learning and classroom practice This book will be of interest to anyone who wishes to develop an understanding of or engage in collaborative action research especially practitioners and teacher educators
