The Fairgrounds Blake Alb, 2022-05-31 Can you stomach the Fairgrounds Based on nothing but a modern day message in a bottle and a secret invention that can measure the ebb and flow of Karma itself watch as three troubled strangers each takes a leap of faith to find fairness in an unfair world But things get close and personal as a masked vigilante vows to take Karma into his own hands But no matter what brought our band of less than merry men together one thing is for certain common enemies make for strange bedfellows In book 2 conclusion join our three existential detectives at the point where they meet for the very first time at the precipice of the secret location alluded to in the mysterious message But they will need to do more than just wax philosophical as they decide to employ their secret invention and start Project Madcap to study the very workings of Karma itself Will they see beyond the Veil of the World's Great Curtain past the Abyss and into the very realms of the 6th dimension Or are their ambitions too lofty as they would be fortunate to simply get out alive Things get more complicated when the serial killer Amrak gets involved and takes justice in his own hands With all three beaten and broken heroes in one place and time let's just hope the whole is greater than the sum of its parts

Reading with Earth Anne Elvey, 2022-08-25 Winner of the 2023 ANZATS Award for the Best Monograph by an Established Scholar Applying a re-envisioned ecological feminist hermeneutics this book builds on two important responses to twentieth and twenty first century situations of ecological trauma especially the complex contexts of climate change and cross species relations first ecological feminism second ecological hermeneutics in the Earth Bible tradition By way of readings of selected biblical texts this book suggests that an ecological feminist aesthetic bringing present situation and biblical text into conversation through engagement with activism and literature principally poetry is helpful in decolonizing ethics Such an approach is both informed by and speaks back to the new materialism in ecological criticism

The Best of Edward Abbey Edward Abbey, 2018-09-01 A mix of fiction and essays by the author described as the Thoreau of the American West Larry McMurtry The Washington Post Edward Abbey himself compiled this volume representing some of his greatest work including selections from such novels as The Monkey Wrench Gang The Brave Cowboy and Black Sun as well as a number of expressive and acerbic essays Renowned for inspiring modern environmentalists though his interests ranged as widely as the landscapes he loved Abbey offers an entertaining introduction to his writing including excerpts from the autobiographical Desert Solitaire in addition to his own sketches illustrating the text throughout

Empty Harvest Dr. Bernard Jensen, 1995-01-01 Nearly twenty years after its initial publication Dr Bernard Jensen's sobering picture of just how interconnected man is with the earth and how this connection is being destroyed link by link still resonates powerfully In this eye opening account of the inherent dangers in our agricultural system Jensen looks at the better known manmade disasters such as the greenhouse effect as well as the ecological and subsequent health related problems hidden from the general public at the time Empty Harvest is a groundbreaking book that examines just what the total problem was and still is In a day when it is cheap and easy to be a doomsday prophet Empty Harvest shines like a bright beacon of hope and ecological sanity While exposing the dire consequences of thinking we can grow healthy food with poisons this excellent book defines positive alternatives and demonstrates their power to restore us to true health Empty Harvest lights the way toward living in harmony and happiness with the forces of life John Robbins author of Diet for a New America
