Rafts and Dreams & Outside the Whale Robert Holman, 2014-02-03 Robert Holman is the quiet man among modern British dramatists But his new play is an outstanding work that sings with truth Michael Billington Guardian Rafts and Dreams While digging up the roots of a tree in the garden Neil Leo and Hetty uncover a vast underground lake which floods away the world With Leo at the tiller of his sawn away living room the trio begin a voyage of the earth s watery surface It is a surrealist fantasy at its most thought provoking a play whose best bits manage to work like a dream Paul Taylor Independent Outside the Whale is a fictional account of the writer George Orwell set in the early 30s in which the action moves easily over a period of three years and settings as various as the basement warehouse of the publishers Victor Gollancz a hen hut in Essex and the dosshouse in Romford

Boll, 2013-10-18 How can war be represented on stage How does the theatre examine the structures leading to violence and war and explore their transformation of societies Springing from the discussion about New Wars in the age of globalisation this interdisciplinary study demonstrates how these New Wars bring forth new plays about war

The North East of England on Film and Television James Leggott, 2021-06-28 This book analyses the representation of North East England in film and television It is a response to the way a number of important British films and programmes for example Get Carter 1971 Whatever Happened to the Likely Lads 1973 74 Our Friends in the North 1996 and Billy Elliot 2000 have used this particular setting to explore questions of class identity and history It argues for the significance and coherence of a North East corpus of film and television through a series of case studies relating to specific eras or types of representation These include regional writers working for television in the 1970s the achievements of the workshop movement in the 1980s and works produced within the genres of documentary crime drama comedy period drama and reality television The book discusses how the communities and landscapes of the region have been used to explore processes of cultural change and

Drum Belly Richard Dormer,2013-06-05 Hold tight as you are thrown into New York City s deep and dark underworld in this exciting new play on the Abbey stage Man has just set foot on the moon The streets of Brooklyn are tense The Irish Mafia is desperately trying to hold on to their power and more importantly their identity After all THEY built these streets In this edgy new story relationships between family friends and enemies are ultimately challenged

A Thousand Stars Explode in the Sky David Eldridge,Robert Holman,Simon Stephens,2013-10-21 On a farm in the North East of England a family gathers Five brothers and four generations feature in an epic play about hope love fear and the very end of time A Thousand Stars Explode in the Sky is a refreshingly subtle and compassionate vision of the world on the edge of apocalypse Within a cosmological context the focus is on a single family their relations with each other and their unreconciled regrets soon to become permanent With an ensemble of strong engaging characters there are knotty realistic family dynamics and a palimpsest of recent family history The characters and dialogue are naturalistic but the serious themes are elucidated and alleviated with humour and quirky surreal touches The play represents a unique collaboration between three of the UK s pre eminent stage writers The ambition of the partnership is matched by the ambition of the play s sweeping scope Whilst the three voices collide they also ring out individually without sacrificing the piece s coherent wholeness and the play represents a rare fascinating study in stage collaboration
