Making Of Britain 2 Life Work Between:

Anglo-Chinese Encounters Before the Opium War Xin Liu, 2022-08-12 Anglo Chinese Encounters Before the Opium War A Tale of Two Empires Over Two Centuries studies the fascinating encounters between the two historic empires from Queen Elizabeth I's first letter to the Ming Emperor Wanli in 1583 to Lord Palmerston's letter to the Minister of China in 1840 Starting with Queen Elizabeth I's letter to the Chinese Emperor and ending with the letter from Lord Palmerston to the Minister of China just before the Opium War this book explores the long journey in between from cultural diplomacy to gunboat diplomacy It interweaves the most known diplomatic efforts at the official level with the much unknown intellectual interactions at the people to people level from missionaries to scholars from merchants to travelers and from artists to scientists This book adopts a novel mirror approach by pairing and comparing people texts commodities artworks architecture ideologies operating systems and world views of the two empires Using letters gifts and traded goods as fulcrums and by adopting these unique lenses it puts China into the world history narratives to contextualise Anglo Chinese relations thus providing a fresh analysis of the surviving evidence Xin Liu casts a new light on understanding the Sino centric and Anglo centric world views in driving the complex relations between the two empires and the reversals of power shifts that are still unfolding today The book is not intended for specialists in history but a general audience wishing to learn more about China's historical engagement with the world The Salem Witch Trials Marilynne K. Roach, 2004 The Salem Witch Trials is based on over twenty five years of archival research including the author's discovery of previously unknown documents newly found cases and court records From January 1692 to January 1697 this history unfolds a nearly day by day narrative of the crisis as the citizens of New England experienced it Teaching History, 1969, Navigating the Return-to-Work Experience for New Parents Maria Karanika-Murray, Cary Cooper, 2020-02-18 Parenthood can be one of the most fulfilling altering and challenging life events This book is set within the background of the reality of many parents return to work experience the task of re engaging with work and maintaining a job or a career and the difficulties that parenthood poses for balancing the demands of a new family with the demands of work It helps us understand this reality give voice to new parents and offer relief in the knowledge that we know a lot about these challenges and most importantly how we can start to address them The book brings together a number of internationally recognized experts from research practice and policy to explore the issues and offer evidence based solutions around return to work after having children It takes a balanced approach to theory and practice to cover topics such as equality stereotypes work family conflict training and development and workplace culture among others whilst integrating research and policy and illustrating learnings with case studies from parents and examples from countries that lead the way It will appeal to parents researchers and employers in any sector or economy across the world Ultimately it will help develop ways for new parents to re engage with work successfully while maintaining their work family well being The Making of Women Trade Unionists Gill Kirton, 2017-03-02

In what will be essential reading for all industrial relations scholars Gill Kirton considers the social construction of women's trade union participation in the context of male dominated trade unions Exploring the making and progress of women's trade union careers this book locates the issues within the context of their experiences of three interlocking social institutions the union work and family The book examines how and why women embark on trade union careers the social processes which shape women's gender and union identities and the combined influences of union work family contexts on the trajectory of women's union careers Additionally the book offers a historical overview of the development of women's trade union education and separate organizing with original analysis and historical data

Struggling With The System: The case for UK welfare reform Moussa Haddad, The Making of Indian English Literature Subhendu Mund, 2021-07-08 The Making of Indian English Literature brings together seventeen well researched essays of Subhendu Mund with a long introduction by the author historicising the development of the Indian writing in English while exploring its identity among the many appellations tagged to it The volume demonstrates contrary to popular perceptions that before the official introduction of English education in India Indians had already tried their hands in nearly all forms of literature poetry fiction drama essay biography autobiography book review literary criticism and travel writing Besides translation activities Indians had also started editing and publishing periodicals in English before 1835 Through archival research the author brings to discussion a number of unknown and less discussed texts which contributed to the development of the genre The work includes exclusive essays on such early poets and writers as Khyas Chunder Dutt Shoshee Chunder Dutt Toru Dutt Mirza Moorad Alee Beg Krupabai Saththianadhan Swami Vivekananda H Dutt and Sita Chatterjee and historiographical studies on the various aspects of the genre The author also examines the strategies used by the early writers to indianise the western language and the form of the novel The present volume also demonstrates how from the very beginning Indian writing in English had a subtle nationalist agenda and created a space for protest literature The Making of Indian English Literature will prove an invaluable addition to the studies in Indian writing in English as a source of reference and motivation for further research Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka

The Making of Sporting Cultures John Hughson, 2013-09-13 The Making of Sporting Cultures presents an analysis of western sport by examining how the collective passions and feelings of people have contributed to the making of sport as a way of life The popularity of sport is so pronounced in some cases that we speak of certain sports as national pastimes Baseball in the United States soccer in Britain and cricket in the Caribbean are among the relevant examples discussed Rather than regarding the historical development of sport as the outcome of passive spectator reception this work is interested in how sporting cultures have been made and developed over time through the active engagement of its enthusiasts This is to study the history of sport not only from below but also from within as a means to understanding the deep relationship between sport and people within class contexts the middle class as well as the working class Contestation over the making of sport along axes of race gender and class are discussed where relevant A range of cultural writers and theorists are examined in regard to both how their writing can help us understand the making of sport and as to how sport might be located within an overall cultural context in different places and times The book will appeal to students and academics within humanities disciplines such as cultural studies history and sociology and to those in sport studies programmes interested in the historical cultural and social aspects of sport This book was published as a special issue of Sport in Society Globalising Housework Laura Humphreys,2021-04-26 This book shows how international influences profoundly shaped the English home of Victorian and Edwardian London homes which in turn influenced Britain s and Britons place on the world stage The period between 1850 and 1914 was one of fundamental global change when London homes were subject to new expanding influences that shaped how residents cleaned ate and cared for family It was also the golden age of domesticity when the making and maintaining of home expressed people s experience of society class race and politics Focusing on the everyday toil of housework the chapters in this volume show the English home as profoundly global conglomeration of people technology and things It examines a broad spectrum of sources from patents to ice cream makers and explores domestic histories through original readings and critiques of printed sources material culture and visual ephemera British Social Realism Samantha Lay,2002 British Social Realism From Documentary to Brit Grit details and explores the rich tradition of social realism in British cinema from its beginnings in the documentary movement of the 1930s to its more stylistically eclectic and generically hybrid contemporary forms Samantha Lay examines the movements moments and cycles of British social realist texts through a detailed consideration of practice politics form style and content using case studies of key texts including Listen to Britain Saturday Night and Sunday Morning Letter to Brezhnev and Nil By Mouth The book considers the challenges for social realist film practice and production in Britain now and in the future Encyclopedia of Women in Today's World Mary Zeiss Stange,Carol K. Sex, Gender and the Conservative Party S. Childs,P. Webb,2011-11-15 As leader of the Conservative party David Cameron inherited a multi faceted gender problem only 17 women MPs an unhappy women s organization electorally uncompetitive policies for women and a party which was seemingly unattractive to women voters This book is an account of the feminization of the party since 2005

Workstyle Alex Hirst,Lizzie Penny,2022-10-13 Workstyle is the freedom to choose when and where you work It is only now after centuries of formal and inflexible working hours that such an opportunity is on the horizon It is an opportunity that will have far reaching and profoundly positive implications levelling the playing field and helping to create true inclusivity and accessibility in our society This inspiring book will explain the history of work where the 9 5 came from and why the time is right for change You ll learn how workstyle differs from flexible hybrid or remote working and why it matters Most importantly you ll explore and design your own workstyle by reflecting on the things that matter to you acting to change your life and inspiring others to do the same all underpinned by research that proves that this is a better way to work for us all This book is for everyone who has had to take a day off work to receive a delivery or go to a doctor s appointment It is for anyone who has caring responsibilities for parents for those with illnesses with mental health issues who feel burnt out or who are living with disabilities It is for those who are older who identify as neurodiverse or who consider themselves different in any way It is for people who feel disenchanted with work and want to live a meaningful fulfilled life It is for anyone who questions why they need to commute to an office to be productive It is for every person who has a life outside of work This book is for everyone This book is for you

Low-carbon Growth Links with China Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Energy and Climate Change Committee,2012-08-29 China is the fastest growing economy in the world and by 2030 could account for half of the world s CO2 emissions It has recently set out ambitious plans to reduce the carbon intensity of its economy boost green energy draft a new climate law and introduce carbon trading MPs say that this is the ideal time for the UK to work together with China both to prepare the ground for a future international agreement and to secure potential opportunities for British businesses in China s burgeoning markets for low carbon technologies currently worth around 430 billion The report warns however that the Government s work in China suffers from a lack of strategic direction There are too many small projects focused on too many different areas rather than a coordinated effort to achieve key objectives tailored to appeal to Chinese priorities and which build on UK strengths For policy this means a focus on carbon pricing and accounting where the UK has experience to offer In the business area this mean identifying the potential markets and technologies in which the UK could have a comparative advantage One area in which the UK could establish a comparative advantage with the right Government support is carbon capture and storage CCS technology which could be a substantial export earner if the UK is able to develop

CCS expertise early The UK's ability to influence policy in China and to compete for business in low carbon development depends on the reputation of the UK as a credible leader Children, Food and Identity in Everyday Life A. James, A.

Kjørholt, V. Tingstad, 2009-11-27 This book explores the significance of food practices for childhood identities from early babyhood to middle childhood and teenage years It examines how children and families negotiate food and eating practices what influence the media has on these the role institutions play and how far class and ethnicity shape the food that children eat The History of the Theory of Structures Karl-Eugen Kurrer, 2012-01-09 This book traces the evolution of theory of structures and strength of materials the development of the geometrical thinking of the Renaissance to become the fundamental engineering science discipline rooted in classical mechanics Starting with the strength experiments of Leonardo da Vinci and Galileo the author examines the emergence of individual structural analysis methods and their formation into theory of structures in the 19th century For the first time a book of this kind outlines the development from classical theory of structures to the structural mechanics and computational mechanics of the 20th century In doing so the author has managed to bring alive the differences between the players with respect to their engineering and scientific profiles and personalities and to create an understanding for the social context Brief insights into common methods of analysis backed up by historical details help the reader gain an understanding of the history of structural mechanics from the standpoint of modern engineering practice A total of 175 brief biographies of important personalities in civil and structural engineering as well as structural mechanics plus an extensive bibliography round off this work Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1958

Men in reserve Juliette Pattinson, Arthur McIvor, Linsey Robb, 2017-02-01 Men in reserve focuses on working class civilian men who as a result of working in reserved occupations were exempt from enlistment in the armed forces It uses fifty six newly conducted oral history interviews as well as autobiographies visual sources and existing archived interviews to explore how this group articulated their wartime experiences and how they positioned themselves in relation to the hegemonic discourse of military masculinity It considers the range of masculine identities circulating amongst civilian male workers during the war and investigates the extent to which reserved workers draw upon these identities when recalling their wartime selves It argues that the Second World War was capable of challenging civilian masculinities positioning the civilian man below that of the soldier hero while simultaneously reinforcing them by bolstering the capacity to provide and to earn high wages frequently in risky and dangerous work all which were key markers of masculinity
