Making Global and Local Connections Tapio

Bergholm, Lewis R. Fischer, M. Elisabetta Tonizzi, International Maritime Economic History Association, 2007 This book provides a series of case studies concerning ports and port communities from around the world in attempt to determine the impact of globalisation on the port industry and the link between local and global port conditions It also presents the case for the absolute necessity of ports and port systems to trade and industry on a global scale The book is comprised of ten essays the first six of which concern local issues in a rapid globalising industry The second section contains the remaining four essays which consider port systems from national perspectives

The Making of the Modern Age Arthur Haberman, 1977

Care of the World Elena Pulcini, 2012-08-20 This book proposes a philosophy of care in a global age It discusses the distinguishing and opposing pathologies produced by globalization unlimited individualism or self obsession manifested as Promethean omnipotence and narcissistic indifference and endogamous communitarianism or an us obsession that results in conflict and violence The polarization between a lack and an excess of pathos is reflected in the distorted forms taken on by fear The book advocates a metamorphosis of fear which may restore in the subject an awareness of vulnerability and become the precondition for moral action Such awareness and the recognition of the condition of contamination caused by the other s unavoidable presence teach us to fear for rather than be afraid of Fear for the world means care of the world and care understood as concern and solicitude is a new notion of responsibility in which the stress is shifted to a relational subject capable of responding to and taking care of the other From a global perspective the proposed vision of care also compels us to explore a new paradigm of justice

Making the Familiar Unfamiliar Zygmunt Bauman, Peter Haffner, 2020-10-28

Shortly before his death Zygmunt Bauman spent several days in conversation with the Swiss journalist Peter Haffner Out of these conversations emerged this book in which Bauman shows himself to be the pre eminent social thinker for which he became world renowned a thinker who never shied away from addressing the great issues of our time and always strove to interrogate received wisdom and common sense to make the familiar unfamiliar As in Bauman s work more generally the personal and the political are interwoven in this book Bauman s life which followed the same trajectory as the social and political upheavals of the 20th century left its trace on his thought Bauman describes his upbringing in Poland military service in the Red Army working for the Polish Secret Service after the war and expulsion from Poland in 1968 providing personal accounts of the historical events on which he brings his social and political insights to bear His reflections on history identity Jewishness morality happiness and love are rooted in his own personal journey through the turbulent events of the 20th century to which he bore witness These last conversations shed new light on one of the greatest social thinkers of our time offering a more personal perspective on a man who changed our way of thinking about the modern world of the ancient world from 6000 B C to 400 A D      World Civilization Robin W. Winks,1993-05 Robin W Winks placed particular emphasis on those developments that most directly explain the nature of the modern world social diffusion group and national consciousness technological change religious identities those aspects of intellectual history that have contributed most to our current dilemmas In turn this means that there is more in World Civilization A Brief History about nationalism imperialism or ethnic identities than there is about monarchies feudalism or diplomacy The result of the strategic and intellectual decisions made with respect to this textbook is that its proportions are not the customary ones Particular emphasis is placed on the early origins of civilizations on Greece and Rome and on the period of the so called barbarian invasions because it is by studying these periods that students may best learn how societies are formed Particular emphasis is also placed on the period from the French Revolution on for it is the events of the last two hundred years that have most closely shaped our present condition This book can be read straight through and in its entirety as an interpretive statement about Western history written by a person who knew a good bit about non Western history and who could thus throw into perspective the unusual the commonplace and the comparable in that sector of history conventionally labeled Western The text draws on over thirty five years of discovering in the classroom what students themselves wish to ask about the past rather than what a body of scholars may have concluded they should wish to ask Though this book is largely about Western civilization it is also about world civilizations for from the eighteenth century forward and in many aspects of life much earlier the non West has interacted with the West in such a way as to make it virtually impossible to separate one from the other when dealing at this level of generalization As a teacher of the history of exploration and discovery of imperialism and decolonizati      Rebellious Passage Jeffrey R. Kerr-Ritchie,2019-02-07 Examines the successful slave revolt aboard the US slave ship Creole during the early 1840s and its consequences      Kohut's Self Psychology for a Fractured World John Hanwell Riker,2024-05-20 Drawing from Kohut s conceptualisation of self Riker sets out how contemporary America s formulation of persons as autonomous self sufficient individuals is deeply injurious to the development of a vitalizing self structure a condition which lies behind much of the mental illness and social malaise of today s world By carefully attending to Kohut s texts Riker explains the structural functional and dynamic dimensions of Kohut s concept of the self He creatively extends this concept to show how the self can be conceived of as an erotic striving for connectedness beauty and harmony separate from the ego Riker uses this distinction to reveal how social practices of contemporary American society foster skills and traits to advance the aims of the ego for power and control but tend to suppress the needs of the self to authentically express its ideals and connect with others The book explores the impact that this view can have on clinical practice and concludes by imaginatively constructing an ideal self psychological society using Plato s Republic as a touchstone Informed by self psychology and philosophy this book is essential reading for psychoanalysts psychotherapists and philosophers seeking to revisit and revise constructions of both self and humanity      The Iron Triangle of Energy Ronald L.

Miller,2024-11-07 The Iron Triangle of Energy explores the intricate balance between cheap reliable and clean energy In a world of trade offs this book provides rational ideas to optimize energy choices With a focus on education and mentoring it equips consumers students industry and government with the knowledge needed to make informed decisions for our future Rich with pertinent graphs it offers a clear understanding of key energy issues
